Rereading Global Socialist Cultures After The Cold War The Reassessment Of A Tradition:

Rereading Global Socialist Cultures After the Cold War Dubravka Juraga, M. Keith Booker, 2002-06-30 As a counter current to the incessant din of capitalist triumphalism and the portrayal of socialism as grey sameness since about 1990 scholars of literature call attention to the major contributions made by socialist writers to the production of culture in Asia Africa and South America The seven essays draw on a wide range of socialist cultures and the perspectives of individual authors to demonstrate the variety of thought within a socialist paradigm Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Global Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2011-12-21 In countries worldwide the Cold War dominated politics society and culture during the second half of the twentieth century Global Cold War Literatures offers a unique look at the multiple ways in which writers from Asia Africa Europe and North and South America addressed the military conflicts revolutions propaganda wars and ideological debates of the era While including essays on western European and North American literature the volume views First World writing not as central to the period but as part of an international discussion of Cold War realities in which the most interesting contributions often came from marginal or subordinate cultures To this end there is an emphasis on the literatures of the Second and Third Worlds including essays on Latin American poetry Soviet travel writing Chinese autobiography African theatre North Korean literature Cuban and eastern European fiction and Middle Eastern fiction and poetry With the post Cold War era still in a condition of emergence it is essential that we look back to the 1945-89 period to understand the political and cultural forces that shaped the modern world The volume's analysis of those forces and its focus on many of the hot spots Afghanistan Iran North Korea that define the contemporary war on terror make this an essential resource for those working in Postcolonial American and English Literatures as well as in History Comparative Literature European Studies and Cultural Studies Global Cold War Literatures is a suitable companion volume to Hammond's Cold War Literature Writing the Global Conflict also available from Routledge

Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2006-11-22 This collection of essays analyzes the literary response to the coups insurgencies and invasions that took place around the globe during the Cold War and explores the thematic and stylistic trends in world writing prompted by Cold War hostilities

The Palgrave Handbook of Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond, 2020-09-04 This book offers a comprehensive guide to global literary engagement with the Cold War Eschewing the common focus on national cultures the collection defines Cold War literature as an international current focused on the military and ideological conflicts of the age and characterised by styles and approaches that transcended national borders Drawing on specialists from across the world the volume analyses the period's fiction poetry drama and autobiographical writings in three sections dominant concerns socialism decolonisation nuclearism propaganda censorship espionage common genres postmodernism socialism realism dystopianism migrant poetry science fiction testimonial writing and regional cultures Asia Africa Oceania Europe and the Americas In doing so the volume forms a landmark contribution to Cold War literary studies which will appeal to all those working on literature of the 1945-1989 period including specialists in comparative literature, postcolonial literature, contemporary literature and regional literature. British Fiction and the Cold War A. Hammond, 2013-09-19. This book offers a unique analysis of the wide ranging responses of British novelists to the East-West conflict. Hammond analyses the treatment of such geopolitical currents as communism, nuclearism, clandestinity, decolonisation and US superpowerdom and explores the literary forms which writers developed to capture the complexities of the age.

From Internationalism to Postcolonialism Rossen Djagalov, 2020-03-19. Would there have been a Third World without the Second? Perhaps, but it would have looked very different. From Internationalism to Postcolonialism recounts the story of two Cold War era cultural formations that claimed to represent the Third World project in literature and cinema and offers a compelling genealogy of contemporary postcolonial studies.

Mapping Minor/Small and World Literatures Yanli He, Nicholas Birns, 2024-06-05. Mapping Minor/Small and World Literatures Periphery and Center makes a declarative intervention in debates about world literature, redefining the boundaries between the center and periphery to rejuvenate long established assumptions about significance and insignificance. In this book, African American literature emerging from the often overlooked periphery, a cramped space of minor literature works from the Faroe Islands, Basque literature, First Nation Canadian literature, Western narratives about peripheral China, Kurdish literature, the ultraminor literary space of Antigua, the favela of Brazilian literature, as well as the hyperlocal narratives of Australian and New Zealand literature are all studied for their meaningful role within the world literary system. Additionally, working class writing and the literary contributions of individuals on the margins of their own societies are given a voice, ensuring that the world literary space does not merely represent the perspectives of dominant elites. Unlike other descriptions of world literature which have frequently allowed the grandeur and breadth of the global to overshadow the imperative for authentic literary biodiversity, this anthology featuring contributions from diverse scholars representing various countries and backgrounds actively deconstructs the structures of power and domination inherent in Western European centered world literature.

The Chinua Achebe Encyclopedia M. Keith Booker, 2003-12-30. Several hundred A-Z entries cover Achebe's major works, important characters and settings, key concepts and issues, and more. Though best known as a novelist, Achebe is also a critic, activist, and spokesman for African culture. This reference is a comprehensive and authoritative guide to his life and writings. Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries. Some of these are substantive summary discussions of Achebe's major works of fiction, nonfiction, and poetry. Entries are written by expert contributors and close with brief bibliographies. The volume also provides a general bibliography and chronology. Nigerian writer Chinua Achebe is widely regarded as the most important of the numerous African novelists who gained global attention in the second half of the 20th century. Achebe is certainly the African writer best known in the West, and his first novel Things Fall Apart is a founding text of postcolonial African literature and regarded as one of the central works of world literature of the last 50 years Though best known as a novelist Achebe is also a critic activist and spokesman for African culture This reference is a comprehensive and authoritative guide to his life and writings Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries Some of these are substantive summary discussions of Achebe s major works of fiction nonfiction and poetry Other topics include all of his major fictional characters and settings important concepts and issues central to his writings historical persons places and events relevant to his works and influential texts by other writers Entries are written by expert contributors and close with brief bibliographies The volume also provides a general bibliography and chronology

Modern European Borders in Fiction Andrew Hammond,2025-09-18 There are few features of the contemporary world more significant than national and regional borders In modern Europe the practices of human division have defined the continent from the early years of the Cold War to the present barriers of Fortress Europe whose exposure of irregular migrants to trafficking discrimination and deportation is rarely absent from the daily news Modern European Borders in Fiction offers a comprehensive study of literary responses to the topic Through reference to over 600 novels and short stories Andrew Hammond analyses the wide ranging engagement of post 1945 novelists with the ideologies processes and effects of territorialisation as well as the related issues of military conflict migration populism nationalism and regionalism Among the topics under study are the ideological divisions of the Cold War the closed societies of totalitarian communism the labour migrations of the 1950s and 1960s the tightening of border controls from the 1970s the twenty first century war on migration the official restrictions on borderland communities the conflicts in Bosnia Georgia and Ukraine and the patterns of social segregation that have marked the continent from the Second World War to the present Drawing on theoretical work in the social sciences and the humanities this is a ground breaking contribution to European literary studies establishing the importance of continental border writing and opening up fresh avenues for decolonised teaching and research

Asia and Europe in Globalization Göran Therborn,Habibul Khondker,2006-09-30 Readers who are tired of the popularized version of globalization touted as a recent phenomenon will find this book rewarding for both its historical depth and its contemporary significance Dealing with globalization in both time and space a team of prominent sociologists historians political scientists economists and theologians ethicists from both Asia and Europe discuss globalization in terms of actual civilizational encounters and their various consequences Essays range from political and economic developments to the issues of universalistic global ethics covering a wide geographical terrain that includes China Vietnam Bangladesh South and North Korea as well as the European continent In this volume the reader will also find issues in regional development with a special focus on gender and a remarkable contribution on the formation of historical empires such as the Mongol Empire as an early exemplar of globalization

Literature and Politics Today M. Keith Booker,2015-03-10 Focusing on the intersection of literature and politics since the beginning of the 20th century this book examines authors historical figures major literary and political works national literatures and literary movements to reveal the intrinsic links between literature and history Literary works have often engaged political issues and many political writings give close attention to literary concerns This encyclopedia explores the complex relationship between literature and politics through detailed entries written by expert contributors on authors historical figures major literary and political works national literatures and literary movements covering specific themes concepts and genres related to literature and politics from the 20th century to the present The work covers cover authors that include Margaret Atwood James Baldwin Philip K Dick W E B Du Bois William Faulkner Ernest Hemingway Jack London Toni Morrison George Orwell John Steinbeck and Virginia Woolf just to mention a few International in scope Literature and Politics Today The Political Nature of Modern Fiction Poetry and Drama covers writing ranging from the beginning of the 20th century to the present with special emphasis on works written in English The content of the some 150 alphabetically arranged entries is ideal for high school students working on assignments involving literature to explore such current yet historically ongoing social issues as censorship and propaganda This book is appropriate for public libraries where it will serve to support student research and to help general readers learn more about enduring political concerns through literary works Academic libraries will find this reference a valuable guide for undergraduates studying literature history political science law and other disciplines China and Orientalism Daniel Vukovich, 2013-06-17 This book argues that there is a new Sinological form of orientalism at work in the world It has shifted from a logic of essential difference to one of sameness or general equivalence China is now in a halting but inevitable process of becoming the same as the USA and the West Orientalism is now closer to the cultural logic of capitalism even as it shows the afterlives of colonial discourse This shift reflects our era of increasing globalization the migration of orientalism to area studies and the pax Americana the liberal triumph at the end of history and the demonization of Maoism an ever closer Sino West relationship and the overlapping of anti communist and colonial discourses To make the case for this re constitution of orientalism this work offers an inter disciplinary analysis of the China field broadly defined Vukovich takes on specialist work on the politics governance and history of the Mao and reform eras from the Great Leap Forward to Tiananmen 1989 the Western study of Chinese film recent work in critical theory which turns on the China reference and other global texts about or from China Through extensive analysis the production of Sinological knowledge is shown to be of a piece with Western global intellectual political culture This work will be of great interest to scholars of Asian postcolonial and cultural studies

Utopian Ruins Jie Li, 2020-10-26 In Utopian Ruins Jie Li traces the creation preservation and elision of memories about China s Mao era by envisioning a virtual museum that reckons with both its utopian yearnings and its cataclysmic reverberations Li proposes a critical framework for understanding the documentation and transmission of the socialist past that mediates between nostalgia and trauma anticipation and retrospection propaganda and testimony Assembling each chapter like a memorial exhibit Li explores how corporeal traces archival documents camera images and material relics serve as commemorative media Prison writings and police files reveal the infrastructure of state surveillance and testify to revolutionary ideals and violence victimhood and complicity Photojournalism from the Great Leap Forward and documentaries from the Cultural Revolution promoted faith in communist miracles while excluding darker realities whereas Mao memorabilia collections factory ruins and memorials at trauma sites remind audiences of the Chinese Revolution s unrealized dreams and staggering losses Whose History? Grant Rodwell,2013 Somebody once quipped that any work of Australian historical fiction is a burning fuse travelling over decades through Australian culture and society In some manner every newly published Australian historical novel is connected to what it has preceded Each work belongs to a proud history Through multiple examples Grant Rodwell encourages readers to see how a work of historical fiction has evolved Thus under various themes WHOSE HISTORY examines the traditions in Australian historical fiction and ponders how Australian historical novels can engage teachers and student teachers WHOSE HISTORY aims to illustrate how historical novels and their related genres may be used as an engaging teacher learning strategy for student teachers in pre service teacher education courses It does not argue all teaching of History curriculum in pre service units should be based on the use of historical novels as a stimulus nor does it argue for a particular percentage of the use of historical novels in such courses It simply seeks to argue the case for this particular approach leaving the extent of the use of historical novels used in History curriculum units to the professional expertise of the lecturers responsible for the units Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002-04 Slavic Review ,2002 American quarterly of Soviet and East European studies varies The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2002 Bibliographic Index ,2002 The Writers Directory ,2013
