Clamp, Marie P. Ballard, Stephen Gough, 1994 Dictionary of Concepts in Cultural Anthropology Robert H.

Winthrop, 1991-11-18 The field of cultural anthropology describes and interprets the thought and behavior of contemporary and near contemporary societies Inherently pluralistic it offers a framework in which the distinctive perspectives of each cultural world can be appreciated Robert Winthrop's dictionary describes the major concepts that have shaped the discipline both historically and theoretically It sets modern anthropology in its proper context within the broader intellectual tradition Eighty entries review the key concepts culture race nature symbolism adaptation the primitive etc that have established the fundamental problems and issues guided research and served as the focus for debate in key areas of the discipline The entries which range from 2 000 to 6 000 words in length are both thorough in treatment and contemporary in relevance Some entries are primarily of historical significance while others describe recent developments Each entry contains an annotated bibliography and a guide to additional reading on the subject While this is not primarily a technical lexicon many terms have been glossed and explained Designed to be useful to students of anthropology this dictionary will assist those in other disciplines to find their way through the anthropological labyrinth Guide to Human Rights Research John J.

Tobin, Harvard Law School. Human Rights Program, 1994 3 Asia Current Practice in Health Sciences Librarianship, 1994 NIH Guide for Grants and Contracts, 1995 Walford's Guide to Reference Material Marilyn Mullan, 1989

Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Social and historical sciences, philosophy and religion Albert John Walford, Marilyn Mullan, Priscilla Schlicke, Library Association, 1996 This new edition of Volume II last published in 1994 has been extensively expanded and revised in all areas Fully updated the new edition includes major changes and covers a span of topics from archaeology through medieval history to statistics It includes philosophy psychology religion social sciences geography biology and history All areas have been completely updated with additional material in economics business and management Circulation Services in a Small Academic Library Constance Battaile, 1992-07-27 In a library circulation is the process of lending books to borrowers and accurately reshelving them after they have been returned so that they will be retrievable by the next user This basic cycle has many elaborations and sub cycles attached to it such as those for overdues and holds the record keeping process and the reserve book operation These sub cycles vary from library to library but the basic cycle remains the same in every library that allows patrons to remove books Connie Battaile provides a detailed volume written for those new to the circulation department of small academic libraries The author presents not the definitive way to run a circulation department but rather she provides a variety of possible methods Because the circulation department is the main public contact point many library housekeeping chores are assigned to it Again these additional responsibilities vary from library to library but the author provides various procedures The physical environment of the department and the stacks the staff effective communications and scheduling are covered in full detail Automation in Library Reference Services Robert Carande, 1992-11-24 The future of reference librarianship as a viable and essential part of the library depends on developing a proactive participatory and hands on approach to automation This book pulls together the most important elements of change likely to influence library information services and explains them clearly It covers both the conceptual context and practical real life implementations of current automation in reference services The automation technologies include OPACs CD ROM international networks expert systems natural language processing and virtual reality In addition to helping people find information reference librarians also perform another service the comprehension and understanding of the operative connections between and route to information It necessitates an unrelenting exploration and immersion within the world information matrix to maintain currency and knowledge The author shows how reference librarians have in the past and will in the future take a leading role in adapting automation to reference services Library Literature ,1979 Guides to Library Collection Development John Thomas Gillespie,Ralph J. Folcarelli,1994-08-15 Intended to enhance collection development in school public and college libraries this volume lists and annotates approximately 1 500 significant bibliographies published from 1985 through 1993 with some earlier but still useful publications Annotations indicate scope of the work size often the number of entries kinds of material included purpose arrangement nature of entries indexes special features and a recommendation Author title and subject indexes provide easy access to the entries With its deep and comprehensive coverage this work will help not only in the process of selecting and acquiring materials for the library but also in the process of identification of items for reference readers advisory interlibrary loan and collection evaluation Current Catalog ,1988 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1968
