Research In Political Economy Vol 16 1997 Class Economic Theory And State Practice:

Journal of Economic Literature ,1998 Crime and Economics Kevin Albertson,Chris Fox,2011-10-05 Crime and Economics provides the first comprehensive and accessible text to address the economics of crime within the study of crime and criminology The economics of crime is an area of growing activity and concern increasingly influential both to the study of crime and criminal justice and to the formulation of crime reduction and criminal justice policy As well as providing an overview of the relationship between economics and crime this book poses key questions such as What is the impact of the labour market and poverty on crime Can society decrease criminal activity from a basis of economic disincentives What forms of crime reduction and methods of reducing re offending are most cost beneficial Can illicit organised crime and illicit drug markets be understood better through the application of economic analysis For those interested in economic methods but without previous economic training this book also provides an accessible overview of key areas such as cost benefit analysis econometrics and the debate around how to estimate the costs of crime This book will be key reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of criminology and economics and those working in the criminal justice system including practitioners managers and policy makers Red Plenty Francis Spufford,2010-08-19 Bizarre and quite brilliant Dominic Sandbrook Sunday Times Thrilling Michael Burleigh Sunday Telegraph Francis Spufford has one of the most original minds in contemporary literature Nick Hornby The Soviet Union was founded on a fairytale It was built on 20th century magic called the planned economy which was going to gush forth an abundance of good things that the penny pinching lands of capitalism could never match And just for a little while in the heady years of the late 1950s the magic seemed to be working Red Plenty is about that moment in history and how it came and how it went away about the brief era when under the rash leadership of Nikita Khrushchev the Soviet Union looked forward to a future of rich communists and envious capitalists when Moscow would out glitter Manhattan every Lada would be better engineered than a Porsche and sputniks would lead the way to the stars And it s about the scientists who did their genuinely brilliant best to make the dream come true to give the tyranny its happy ending Class, Economic Theory and State Practice Paul Zarembka,1997 An examination of the relationship between class struggle and economics and between class forces and state projects It explores the economics of socialism with an assessment of Marxian labour values and concludes with an introduction to Reagan Bush and right wing politics in the US Economics of Agricultural Development George W. Norton,Jeffrey Alwang,William A. Masters,2021-08-01 Economics of Agricultural Development examines the causes severity and effects of poverty population growth and malnutrition in developing countries It discusses potential solutions to these problems progress made in many countries in recent years and the implications of globalization for agriculture poverty and the environment Topics covered in the book include Means for utilizing agricultural surpluses to further overall economic development The sustainability of the natural resource environment Gender issues in relation to agriculture and resource use The contribution of improved technologies to agricultural development The importance of agricultural policies and institutions to development and trade Actions to encourage more rapid agricultural and economic development This new edition reflects the following developments Growth in environmental challenges due to climate change Continued progress in agricultural and economic development in many low income countries while other countries and regions are being left behind Continued growth in demand for higher valued farm products This book is essential reading for undergraduate students seeking to understand the economics of agricultural development and the world food system including environmental and human consequences international trade and capital flows It contains a wealth of real world case studies and is accompanied by a website A New Public Management in Mexico Esteban Moctezuma Barragán, Andrés Roemer, 2017-09-20 This title was first published in 2001 This innovative text applies new institutional economics public choice theory and new public management concepts to the political arena of the Mexican administration Including cutting edge benchmarking analysis about best practices of human resources and the modernization of the public sector the book also considers the history and situation of other countries from the Mexican perspective especially those of Latin America and the OECD An essential text for all those with an interest in public policy or Latin American politics Karl Marx's Social and Political Thought Bob Jessop, Charlie Malcolm-Brown, 1999 Monthly

Review, 1999 Political Conflict and Development in East Asia and Latin America Richard Boyd, Galjart Benno, Tak-Wing Ngo, 2007-01-24 Long run processes of socio economic change generate prodigious problems of social conflict and social control and governments responsible for these processes must therefore manage the resultant conflict Consequently the success or failure of a government's management of such conflicts is a crucial factor in development outcomes This volume investigates the political struggle for development specifically in two vital regions East Asia and Latin America This analysis calls into question the dominant emphasis on institutional and cultural bases for stable growth A careful historical account of the two regions is presented which permits the rigorous testing of conventional wisdoms regarding development Of importance to a broad range of academics in the spheres of development studies politics political economy and sociology this book will also make an interesting read for those with a general interest in these areas Tax Progression in OECD Countries Christian Seidl, Kirill Pogorelskiy, Stefan Traub, 2012-07-30 This is the first book that performs international and intertemporal comparisons of uniform tax progression with empirical data While conventional measures of tax progression suffer from serious disadvantages for empirical analyses this book extends uniform measures to progression comparisons of countries with different income distributions Tax progression is analyzed in terms of Lorenz curve and Suits curve equivalents of net incomes and taxes The authors derive six distinct definitions of the relation is more progressive than which are then utilized for an empirical analysis of 13 countries included in the Luxembourg Income Study LIS In two thirds of all international comparisons of tax progression the authors report a clear ranking of the respective countries in terms of progression dominance Tax based definitions of greater progressivity perform best These observations are yet reinforced by statistical tests The book also provides an account of the institutional background of the involved countries in order to facilitate the interpretation of the data Moreover the authors conduct intertemporal comparisons of tax progression for selected countries and perform a sensitivity analysis with respect to the parameterization of the equivalence scale The Political Economy of Migration and Post-industrialising Australia Patrick Brownlee,2020-08-31 During the 1980s and 1990s Australia's migration intake turned rapidly towards recruiting business professionals managers and entrepreneurs to support the country's entry into an economic system marked by global value chains This book analyses the policy idea termed Productive Diversity introduced by the Australian government as a way of conceptualising the belief that migrants would bring business acumen and a global outlook to help Australia compete as a trading nation The book examines this germinal period of Australia's economic reorientation through a close inspection of policy documents parliamentary hearings economic and migration statistics and interviews with the architects of the policy It provides a comprehensive account of how the policy framework emerged how it was implemented and studies the rationale in recruiting self starters and managers to connect with global trade flows This work will be of interest to students and researchers of migration studies especially Australian migration diversity policies sociology multiculturalism economics development studies and Asia Pacific studies The methods and data will also be of value to political economists and policy makers Encyclopedia of Critical Political Science Clyde W. Barrow,2024-03-14 An indispensable and exemplary reference work this Encyclopedia adeptly navigates the multidisciplinary field of critical political science providing a comprehensive overview of the methods approaches concepts scholars and journals that have come to influence the discipline's development over the last six decades Approaches to Human Geography Stuart C. Aitken,Gill Valentine,2014-12-01 The book covers some of the traditionally most obtuse and difficult to grasp philosophical ideas that have influenced geographers geography The fact that these are presented in an inclusive and accessible manner is a key strength Many students have commented that the chapters they have read have encouraged them to read more in this field which is fantastic from a lecturer's perspective Richard White Sheffield Hallam University A new edition of the classic Approaches text for students organised in three sections which overviews and explains the history and philosophy of Human Geographies in all its applications by those who practise it Section One Philosophies Positivist Geography Humanism Feminist Geographies Marxisms Structuration Theory Human Animal Realism Postmodern Geographies Poststructuralist Theories Actor Network Theory Postcolonialism Geohumanities Technologies Section Two People Institutions and Cultures Places and Contexts Memories and Desires Understanding Place Personal and Political Becoming a Geographer Movement and Encounter Spaces and Flows Places as Thoughts Section Three Practices Mapping and Geovisualization Quantification Evidence and Positivism Geographic Information Systems Humanism Activism Feminist Geographies Poststructuralist Theories Psychoanalysis Environmental Inquiry Contested Geographies and Culture Wars Fully updated throughout and with eight brand new chapters this is the core text for modules on history theory and practice in
