Introduction

American families were subject to a continuous evolution due to changing external circumstances, and this fact explains drastic changes in these institutions over time. Moreover, the beliefs attributed to them were conditional not only upon such shifts but also on valued emotions (Poptech, 2011). Therefore, it is critical to examine the process of formation of present-day family life through the lens of its transformation and principal characteristics.

Family Life: Three Periods

At the time of Colonial America, during the consequent period of the emerging modern family, and after the formation of the contemporary family, the situation of this institution differed drastically. First, before 1820, Americans emphasized the alleged economic dependency of women on their husbands, and this fact determined their seemingly disadvantaged position (Cohen, 2020). Moreover, they emphasized the correlation between one's marital status and success in life (Cohen, 2020). Later on, during 1820-1900, the perceptions shifted toward the significance of individual choices and increased autonomy (Cohen, 2020). For family life, it meant that the evolution of gender roles resulted in women actively exercising their rights and freedoms, and divorces became common (Cohen, 2020). Consequently, during 1900-1960, modern families appeared, and they were characterized by an earlier age of getting married and poor economic conditions, which implied cooperation for survival (Cohen, 2020). Thus, over history, families went through periods of dependency on women, their increasing freedom, and combined efforts.

The Origins of the American Family

The "origins" of the American family can be viewed as the consequences of external factors, which affected marriage. In the beginning, they were related to men's greater capability in providing for families, which determined their significant roles (Cohen,

Bibliography of Research Studies in Education, 1940 Publication of the American Sociological Society American Sociological Association, 1929 List of members in v 1 5 25 28 supplemental list in v 26 27 The House That God Built Zebedee King, 2016-02-27 By looking at the nightly news and simply observing for themselves the denigration of homes and communities across our country many would agree that family foundations are cracking and shifting out of place This has resulted in untold devastation within the home and our other social systems therefore many households and lives have simply given way and collapsed under the weight of a host of societal pressures Many believe that a generation of social experimentation along with our cultures fixation at redefining virtually every foundational institution especially the first human institution marriage are responsible for placing the family and society on very shaky ground indeed leaving a very dubious moral and economic legacy for successive generations When cracks begin to appear upon the walls of a house it may indicate a shifting or damaged foundation which may indicate poor foundation work As a result builders typically reexamine the blueprints the master plan to determine the manner and materials with which the house and foundations built in order to pinpoint and repair a weak or damaged foundation It is the authors conviction that in many households within society weak or faulty spiritual and moral foundations have been laid resulting in the cultural cataclysm we witness throughout our land In his book The House that God Built Gods Master Plan for Marriage and His Blueprint for Blessing Book One of his Strong Foundation for Strong Families series the author discusses the need for a RE Vision of marriage and the family but not by redefining replacing or removing these honorable foundations and pillars which have supported societies from the beginning of time Rather by employing the word RE Vision he calls for a refocusa fresh new look at Gods original design for the marriage and family This plan is found in Gods Holy Word specially the first two chapters of the Book of Genesis because this he feels is where marriage family and social systems began Therefore the book is a thorough exposition of the first chapters of Genesis which explore the motivations and the methods through which God Himself built His house the heavens and the earth This study provides keen spiritual and practical insights as to how we can build our homes according to Gods plans so as to receive His best blessings upon our homes and upon our communities The Family ,1928 Research Awards Index ,1984 Studying Families Anne P. Copeland,Kathleen M.
