Braungart, Margaret M. Braungart, 2023-04-11 Youth Movements and Generational Politics 19th 21st Centuries by Richard and Margaret Braungart is a collection of 19 of their previously published research articles on youthful political activism generational conflict and social change After assessing 1960s student groups on the political left right and center generations of youth movement activity are identified in each world region from the first student movement in Germany in 1815 to the global surge in youth unrest and demonstrations in the 21st century Representing more than 50 years of research youth movements and generational politics are explored from historical generational and global perspectives As a collection these articles are theoretically grounded empirically based interdisciplinary and comparative Exploring youth movements at individual group societal and international levels a variety of methodological approaches for studying youth activism are illustrated In a concluding chapter the Braungarts update youth movement activity in the 21st century and discuss how their previous decades of international research informs the global rise in youthful mobilization over politics The trends and changes in youth unrest and generational politics are assessed now and into the future Research Methods in Politics Wyn Grant, 2008-06-17 The second edition of this popular text provides a comprehensive introduction to the main research methods employed in the study of politics and assessment of their strengths and limitations and of ethical issues in research It has been revised and updated throughout and a new chapter considers the relationship between research and policy Technical Paper, 1974 Democracy in Southern Europe Isabelle Calleja Ragonesi, 2019-02-28 How have Malta and Cyprus both EU members transitioned from colonial island states to independent democracies With the assistance of primary documentation this book traces the difficult path of these two states to becoming independent liberal democracies by using the pathway of democratization through decolonization Using socio economic and political data analysed through the microscope of political science and international relations theories Isabelle Calleja Ragonesi charts the progress of the two islands in the context of a number of four distinct phases Firstly decolonization independence and achieving the status of procedural democracies secondly post colonial independence consolidating democracy and regime breakdown thirdly sovereign nation state status and second attempts at consolidating democracy and finally attempting to reach substantive democracy status and EU membership The study of these two states is contextualized within the context of democratization in Southern Europe and the cases of Malta and Cyprus provide new insights on the region for scholars of political science and international institutions Political Repression in Bahrain Marc Owen Jones, 2020-07-16 From torture to fake news this book lays out how the Bahrain regime has used political repression and violence to fight social movements

Political Rebellion Ted Robert Gurr, 2015-01-09 This volume comprises key essays by Ted Robert Gurr on the causes and consequences of organized political protest and rebellion its outcomes and strategies for conflict management From the Castro inspired revolutionary movements of Latin America in the 1960s to Yugoslavia's dissolution in ethnonational wars of the 1990s and the popular revolts of the Arab Spring millions of people have risked their lives by participating in protests and rebellions Based on half a century of theorizing and social science research this book brings together Gurr's extensive knowledge and addresses the key questions surrounding this subject What grievances hopes and hatreds motivated the protesters and rebels What did they gain that might have offset myriad deaths and devastation How effective are protest movements as alternatives to rebellions and terrorism What public and international responses lead away from violence and toward reforms The essays in the volume are updated and are organized around the evolving themes of the author's research including theoretical arguments interpretations and references to the evidence developed in his empirical research and case studies The concluding essays bring theory and evidence to bear on the past and future of political violence in Africa This book will be of much interest to student of rebellion political violence conflict studies security studies and IR Mapping

Terrorism Research Magnus Ranstorp, 2006-11-22 This volume provides a comprehensive analytical critique of the current state of research in the terrorism and counter terrorism field specifically an assessment of gaps in scholarly efforts towards understanding terrorism as a complex behavioural and social phenomenon Technical Paper (United States. Bureau of the Census), 1974 The Political Economy of Middle East Peace J.W. Wright Jr., 2013-06-17 The Political Economy of

Middle East Peace looks at the political economy of the Middle Eastern peace process with a focus on the politics of trade Contributors investigate the ways new commercial alliances develop as a result of economic agencies established via the Arab Israeli peace process and look at institutions which contribute to redirection of Arab intra and inter regional trade such as the Palestine Monetary Authority the Middle East Development Bank and free trade zone agencies in Aquaba and Dubai

Women and Trade Unions Jennifer Curtin, 2018-11-09 First published in 1999 this volume aims to examine the extent to which such a partnership has been developed between women workers and trade unions with a comparative emphasis Jennifer Curtin analyses how women trade unionists have sought to make trade union structures and policy agendas more inclusive of the interests of women workers in four countries Australia Austria Israel and Sweden Graduate Study and

Research University of Washington,1928 The Making of an Alienated Generation Sai-Wing Leung,2019-07-23 First published in 1997 this volume examines the political apathy of the Hong Kong Chinese with a particular focus on children in secondary schools While most previous studies have been of adults Leung's approach exposes a generation who are politically uninvolved and disenchanted He examines teacher student encounters in a depoliticized school context and through a curriculum in which explicit political content is absent The study throws light both on Chinese youths and the interaction of older and younger generations and its macroscopic implications are distinctly ominous suggesting trouble ahead for the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Can Tocqueville Karaoke? Terry Nichols Clark,2014-05-28 This volume questions the importance of arts and culture and their possible impact on politics and the economy Chapters outline a new framework for analysis of democratic participation and economic growth and explore how these new patterns work around the world The ideas of Alexis de Tocqueville and Joseph Schumpeter and Jane Jacobs are analysed Social System Talcott Parsons,2013-08-21 First Published in 1991 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Idea of Political Marketing Nicholas O. O'Shaughnessy,Stephan C.M. Henneberg,2002-06-30 O Shaughnessy Henneberg and their contributors examine how the theory and practice of marketing has been and can be applied to politics Particular attention was paid to the theory of political marketing with conceptual definitions developed to better facilitate communication between marketing professionals and political science researchers Political marketing is about the making and unmaking of governments in a democracy Despite its growing importance the marketing academic profession has shown very little interest in the political ramifications of their discipline while political scientists often come to political marketing with the view that it is cosmetic if not trivial O Shaughnessy Henneberg and their contributors examine how the theory and practice of marketing has been and can be applied to politics As they show elections are a persuasion task writ large most especially with the demise of inherited class loyalties Following elections governments can employ marketing techniques to build support for their actions while opposition parties can press the government and its supporters through similar marketing approaches Of particular interest to scholars researchers and policy makers involved with politics political communication and the making of public policy List of Periodicals, 1993 European University Institute. Library,1993

Social Mentality and Public Opinion in China Fanbin Zeng,2023-02-24 This book explores the relationship between social mentality public opinion media and other factors through mixed methods in China especially since the 21st century The book deploys qualitative and quantitative research and adopts a multi disciplinary perspective and diverse research methods The studies are built on and contribute to the burgeoning literature seeking to anatomise the relationship between social mentality media and public opinion from the point of view of sociology and communication It also aims to explore how media can be used to appease public opinion As the first systematic study of the interconnection between social mentality and public opinion this book provides empirical support and a theoretical framework for both areas It will thus be a great read for students and scholars of communication sociology and social psychology especially for those with a focus on China and new media

Rethinking the Body in Global Politics Kandida Purnell, 2021-04-04 This book rethinks the body in global politics and the particular roles bodies play in our international system foregrounding processes and practices involved in the continually contested re-disembodiment of both human bodies and collective bodies politic Purnell provides a new innovative and detailed theory of bodily re-making and un-making that shows how bodies are simultaneously re-made and moved and re-make and move other bodies and things Presented in the form of reflective reflexive and theoretically innovative essays the book explores bodies in general and their precarious excessive ontologically insecure and emotional facets the fleshing out of contemporary necro-body politics and the visual emotional politics embodied through the COVID 19 pandemic The empirical analyses feed into contemporary IR debates on British and American politics and international relations and the Global War on Terror while also speaking to broader and interdisciplinary theoretical literature on bodies embodiment visual politics biopolitics necropolitics and affect emotion and feelings
