Retreat With Thomas Merton Becoming Who We Are:

A Retreat with Thomas Merton Anthony T. Padovano, 1995 In the third retreat in the series the focus is Thomas Merton a Trappist Monk and writer whose astonishing appeal to people derives from his ability to fuse his theology with his life and from his capacity to address the reader as though he were writing for no one else Padovano shares selected aspects of Merton's life story inviting readers to get in touch with their own spiritual journeys Rhetoric, Religion and the Civil Rights Movement, 1954-1965 Davis W. Houck, David E. Dixon, 2006 V 2 Building upon their critically acclaimed first volume Davis W. Houck and David E. Dixon's new Rhetoric Religion and the Civil Rights Movement 1954-1965 is a recovery project of enormous proportions Houck and Dixon have again combed church archives government documents university libraries and private collections in pursuit of the civil rights movement's long buried eloquence Their new work presents fifty new speeches and sermons delivered by both famed leaders and little known civil rights activists on national stages and in quiet shacks The speeches carry novel insights into the ways in which individuals and communities utilized religious rhetoric to upset the racial status quo in divided America during the civil rights era Houck and Dixon's work illustrates again how a movement so prominent in historical scholarship still has much to teach us Publisher Open to the Full Dimension Dominiek Lootens, 2022-03-14 Thomas Merton 1915-1968 is considered to be one of the most important Catholic American authors of the twentieth century In this book one can discover Merton not only as a contemplative writer and prophet but also as a pastoral practitioner Dominiek Lootens is a Catholic practical theologian with more than twenty years of experience as a pastoral supervisor and educator in Belgium and Germany Using his own professional practice as a starting point he reflects in this book on the life and work of Thomas Merton He shows how relevant Merton can be for pastoral practitioners who are active in today's global context A variety of professional topics are discussed interfaith hospital chaplaincy migration and practical theology pastoral supervision and spirituality natural contemplation and Orthodox pastoral theology racism and adult education and the training of chaplains as social justice allies This book offers practical theologians and pastoral practitioners an in-depth view in the life and publications of Thomas Merton and invites them to bring it into dialogue with their own professional practice The Living Church, 1996 An Introduction to Christian Spirituality F. Leadership Models for Your Parish Dan R. Ebener, 2010 Servant Leadership Models for Your Parish explores the practice of servant leadership in a church context. It presents seven behaviors practiced by leaders and members in high performing parishes and provides real life examples of these practices. The unique contribution of this work to the national discussion about parish life and leadership is its description of servant leadership and its explanation of how it works in a parish. This work suggests that parish life can be viewed in light of business principles such as the organizational behaviors of leaders and members in a Christian parish and religious teaching particularly the message of Jesus who taught leaders to be servants and members to be disciples. Intended for pastors and parish leaders, pastoral associates and deacons, parish staff and lay members of parishes who are interested in leadership, it is sure to be indispensable reading for anyone who is interested in changing or improving the leadership, the activities and the culture of their parish.
