Return Of Superfly:

Spinegrinder Clive Davies, 2015-03-06 First came video and more recently high definition home entertainment through to the internet with its streaming videos and not strictly legal peer to peer capabilities With so many sources available today a fan of horror and exploitation movies isn't necessarily educated on paths well trodden Universal classics 1950s monster movies Hammer as once they were They may not even be born and bred on DAWN OF THE DEAD In fact anyone with a bit of technical savvy quickly becoming second nature for the born clicking generation may be viewing MYSTICS IN BALI and S S EXPERIMENT CAMP long before ever hearing of Bela Lugosi or watching a movie directed by Dario Argento In this world H G Lewis so called godfather of gore carries the same stripes as Alfred Hitchcock master of suspense SPINEGRINDER is one man's ambitious exhaustive and utterly obsessive attempt to make sense of over a century of exploitation and cult cinema of a sort that most critics won't care to write about One opinion 8 000 reviews or thereabouts New York Magazine, 1990-11-19 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Making a Promised Land Paula J. Massood, 2013-01-22 Making a Promised Land examines the interconnected histories of African American representation urban life and citizenship as documented in still and moving images of Harlem over the last century Paula J Massood analyzes how photography and film have been used over time to make African American culture visible to itself and to a wider audience and charts the ways in which the Mecca of the New Negro became a battleground in the struggle to define American politics aesthetics and citizenship Visual media were first used as tools for uplift and education With Harlem's downturn in fortunes through the 1930s narratives of black urban criminality became common in sociological tracts photojournalism and film These narratives were particularly embodied in the gangster film which was adapted to include stories of achievement economic success and later in the century a nostalgic return to the past Among the films discussed are Fights of Nations 1907 Dark Manhattan 1937 The Cool World 1963 Black Caesar 1974 Malcolm X 1992 and American Gangster 2007 Massood asserts that the history of photography and film in Harlem provides the keys to understanding the neighborhood's symbolic resonance in African American and American life especially in light of recent urban redevelopment that has redefined many of its physical and demographic contours Encyclopedia of Film Themes, Settings and Series Richard B. Dickerson, 2019-08-01 Biblical narratives are not simply sacred stories for religious communities They are stories that provide transformative insight into cultural biases By putting historical criticism and reception history into dialogue with womanist biblical hermeneutics Luke Widows Judges and Stereotypes offers a provocative reading of Jesus' parable about a widow who confronts a judge and obtains what she seeks by means of physical threat Rather than simply reading the widow as the model for one who prays always and does not lose heart Luke 18:1 Dickerson shows that read in the context of Luke's wider narrative the widow domesticated and robbed both of her agency and moral ambiguity is more likely demanding vengeance instead of justice Likewise rather than simply reading the judge as one who neither feared God nor had respect for people Luke 18:2 Dickerson argues that the judge is both an ideal man and one who compromises standards of ancient masculinity Then reading both the widow and judge through African American stereotypes Mammy Jezebel Sapphire Cool Black Male Master Pastor and Foolish Judge that are used to degrade debase and control and reading them into and in light of the parable Dickerson demonstrates how the parable calls into question these stereotypes thereby producing new liberative readings
