Return to Rainbow Country Davidson, William, Bill Davidson, 1975 The Dusty Bookcase Brian Busby, 2017-08-15
Largely drawn from his columns for Canadian Notes Queries and entries in his popular blog by the same name Brian Busby's The Dusty Bookcase explores the fascinating world of Canada's lesser known literary efforts works that suffered censorship critical neglect or brilliant yet fleeting notoriety These rare and quirky totems of Canadiana collected over the last three decades form a travel diary of sorts yet one without maps Covering more than 250 books peppered with observations on the writing and publishing scenes Busby's work explores our cultural past questioning why certain works are celebrated and others ignored Brilliantly illustrated with covers and ephemera related to the titles discussed The Dusty Bookcase draws much needed attention to unknown writing worthy of our attention and some of our acclaim A Jr. Sherlock Holmes Society of a Rainbow Country Adventure B.T. Clabby, 2022-02-08 Miss champion's sixth grade class is being introduced to the works of Sir Arthur C Doyle and cognitive reasoning Living in North Bay Ontario six of her class form a group called the Sherlock Holmes Society of Rainbow Country and as school lets out for the Canadian Thanksgiving long weekend the group finds a man hurt coming through the woods They must deal with getting help for this man and deal with a police detective that believes the children are behind the shooting of the man To clear their names they must find the true shooter And the adventure begins Outside Looking In Mary Jane Miller, 2008-06-09 Using recent scholarship in ethnography and popular culture Miller throws light on both what these series present and what is missing how various long standing issues are raised and framed differently over time and what new issues appear She looks at narrative arc characterization dialogue and theme as well as how inflections of familiar genres like family adventure soap opera situation comedy and legal drama shape both the series and viewers expectations Miller discusses Radisson Forest Rangers and other children's series in the 1960s and early 1970s as well as Beachcombers Spirit Bay The Rez and North of 60 series whose complex characters created rewarding relationships while dealing with issues ranging from addiction to unemployment to the aftermath of the residential school system TV North Peter Kenter, Martin W. Levin, 2001 This is an entertaining and nostalgic encyclopedia of Canadian television History textbooks pale in comparison to this retro look at what's hot and what's not on Canada's small screen

In Review, 1967 A Back Country Management Plan for Sequoia and Kings Canyon National Parks United States. National Park Service, 1963 Indian School Days Basil H. Johnston, 2022-12-23 This book is the humorous bitter sweet autobiography of a Canadian Ojibwa who was taken from his family at age ten and placed in Jesuit boarding school in northern Ontario It was 1939 when the feared Indian agent visited Basil Johnston's family and removed him and his four year old sister to St Peter Claver's school run by the priests in a community known as Spanish 75 miles from Sudbury Spanish It was a word synonymous with residential school penitentiary reformatory exile dungeon whippings kicks slaps all rolled into one Johnston recalls But despite the aching loneliness the deprivation the culture shock and the numbing routine his story is engaging and compassionate Johnston creates marvelous portraits of the young Indian boys who struggled to adapt to strange ways and unthinking unfeeling discipline Even the Jesuit teachers whose flashes of humor occasionally broke through their stern demeanor are portrayed with an understanding born of hindsight Lincoln Back Country Wilderness Area, Montana United States.
