Revelation Truth Canon And Interpretation:

Revelation, Truth, Canon, and Interpretation Craig D. Allert, 2002 This volume deals with revelation truth canon and interpretation as foundational concepts in pre Nicene Christianity Justin Martyr is used as a case study to develop these concepts within his second century context Revelation, Truth, Canon and Interpretation Craig D. Allert, 2015-12-22 This volume treats the concepts of revelation truth canon and interpretation as four pillars of early Christian theology Using Justin Martyr as a case study his Dialogue with Trypho is examined with a view toward discerning how a second century Christian father understands and develops these concepts Justin s intellectual background is discussed within the nuanced context of Middle Platonism Particular attention is paid to his use of biblical sources which is grounded in the foundational chapter on revelation in Justin Justin is placed within the wider context of theological developments in pre Nicene Christianity and includes a warning against judging Justin by anachronistic post Nicene developments Jeremiah's New Covenant Joshua N. Moon, 2011-06-30 The struggle to read Jeremiah 31 31 34 as Christian Scripture has a long and divided history cutting across nearly every major locus of Christian theology Yet little has been done either to examine closely the varieties of interpretation in the Christian tradition from the post Nicene period to the modern era or to make use of such interpretations as helpful interlocutors This work begins with Augustine s interpretation of Jer 31 31 34 as an absolute contrast between unbelief and faith rather than the now standard reading found in Jerome of a contrast between two successive religious historical eras one that governed Israel the old covenant and a new era and its covenant inaugurated in the coming of Christ Augustine s absolute contrast loosened the strict temporal concern so that the faithful of any era were members of the new covenant The study traces Augustine s reading of an absolute contrast in a few key moments of Christian interpretation Thomas Aquinas and high medieval theology then the 16th and 17th century Reformed tradition The thesis aims at a constructive reading of Jer 31 31 34 and so the struggle identified in these moments in the Christian tradition is brought into dialogue with modern critical discussions from Bernhard Duhm to the present Finally the author turns to an exegetical argument for an Augustinian reading of the contrast of the covenants Scriptural Interpretation and Community Self-Definition in Luke-Acts and the Writings of Justin Martyr Susan Wendel, 2011-02-14 Although scholars often assume that Luke and Justin similarly claim the sacred texts of Jews for the non Jewish church this book offers a fresh analysis that uncovers significant differences between their respective depictions of the relationship between Christ believers and the Jewish scriptures But Their Faces Were All Looking Up Eric M. Vanden Eykel, 2016-12-01 This study of the Protevangelium of James explores the interrelationship of authors readers texts and meaning Its central aim is to better understand how the process of repetition gave rise to the narratives of the early Christian movement and how that process continued to fuel the creativity and imagination of future generations Divided into three parts Vanden Eykel addresses first specific episodes in the life of the Virgin consisting of Mary s childhood in the Jerusalem temple PJ 7 9 her spinning thread for the temple veil PJ 10 12 and Jesus birth in a cave outside Bethlehem PJ 17 20 The three episodes present a uniform picture of how the reader's discernment of intertexts can generate new layers of meaning and that these layers may reveal new aspects of the author's meaning some of which the author may not have anticipated

Tolstoy and the Religious Culture of His Time Inessa Medzhibovskaya, 2009-07-15 The first book length study on the subject in any language Tolstoy and the Religious Culture of His Time treats Tolstoy's experience as a massive philosophical and religious project rather than a crisis laden tragedy Inessa Medzhibovskaya explains the evolution of Tolstoy's religious outlook based on his ongoing dialogue with the tradition of conversion in Europe and Russia as well as on the demands of his own heart mind and spirit The author contextualizes Tolstoy's conversion comparing his pattern of religious conversion with that of other notable religious converts Saint Paul Saint Augustine Luther Pascal Rousseau as well with that of Tolstoy's countrymen Pushkin Gogol Chaadaev Stankevich Belinsky Herzen and Dostoevsky Stressing the importance of the religious culture of his time for Tolstoy this study investigates the nineteenth century debates that inspired and repelled Tolstoy as he weighed arguments for or against faith in his dialogues with the culture of his time covering widely differing fields and disciplines of experimental knowledge The author considers German Romantic philosophy the natural sciences pragmatist religious solutions theories of social progress and evolution and the historical school of Christianity Medzhibovskaya stresses the fact that influential intellectual currents were as important to Tolstoy as believers and nonbelievers were from and beyond his immediate environment The author argues that in this sense Tolstoy's conversion emerges as deeply intertextual and this surprising discovery should not diminish our trust in Tolstoy's sincerity during his religious evolution which occurred both spontaneously as well as deliberately The polyphony of discreet spiritual moments that Tolstoy created by fusing in his narratives of conversion religious and artistic realms is arguably his greatest contribution to spiritual autobiography

From the Passion to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre Jordan J. Ryan, 2021-01-14 Since the early 4th century Christian pilgrims and visitors to Judea and Galilee have worshipped at and been inspired by monumental churches erected at sites traditionally connected with the life and ministry of Jesus of Nazareth This book examines the history and archaeology of early Christian holy sites and traditions connected with specific places in order to understand them as interpretations of Jesus and to explore them as instantiations of memories of him Ryan's overarching aim is to construe these places as instantiations of what historian Pierre Nora has called lieux de m moires sites where memory crystallizes and where possible to track the course and development of the traditions underlying them from their genesis in the Gospel narratives to their eventual solidification in the form of pilgrimage sites So doing will bring rarely considered evidence to the study of early Christian memory which in turn helps to illuminate the person of Jesus himself in both history and reception

Jews and Christians - Parting Ways in the First Two Centuries CE? Jens Schröter, Benjamin A. Edsall, Joseph Verheyden, 2021-08-23 The present volume is based on a conference held in October 2019 at the Faculty of Theology of

Humboldt University Berlin as part of a common project of the Australian Catholic University the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and the Humboldt University Berlin The aim is to discuss the relationships of Jews and Christians in the first two centuries CE against the background of recent debates which have called into question the image of parting ways for a description of the relationships of Judaism and Christianity in antiquity One objection raised against this metaphor is that it accentuates differences at the expense of commonalities Another critique is that this image looks from a later perspective at historical developments which can hardly be grasped with such a metaphor It is more likely that distinctions between Jews Christians Jewish Christians Christian Jews etc are more blurred than the image of parting ways allows In light of these considerations the contributions in this volume discuss the cogency of the parting of the ways model with a look at prominent early Christian writers and places and suggest more appropriate metaphors to describe the relationships of Jews and Christians in the early period

...And So They Went Out Daphna Arbel, J.R.C. Cousland, Dietmar Neufeld, 2010-04-15
Series statement from preface p x

Justification in the Second Century Brian J. Arnold, 2017-02-20 This book seeks to answer the following question how did the doctrine of justification fare one hundred years after Paul's death c AD 165 This book argues that Paul's view of justification by faith is present in the second century a thesis that particularly challenges T F Torrance's long held notion that the Apostolic Fathers abandoned this doctrine The Doctrine of Grace in the Apostolic Fathers 1948 In the wake of Torrance's work there has been a general consensus that the early fathers advocated works righteousness in opposition to Paul's belief that an individual is justified before God by faith alone but second century writings do not support this claim Each author examined Clement of Rome Ignatius of Antioch Epistle to Diognetus Odes of Solomon and Justin Martyr contends that faith is the only necessary prerequisite for justification even if they do indicate the importance of virtuous living This is the first major study on the doctrine of justification in the second century thus filling a large lacuna in scholarship With the copious amounts of research being conducted on justification it is alarming that no work has been done on how the first interpreters of Paul received one of his trademark doctrines It is assumed wrongly that the fathers were either uninterested in the doctrine or that they misunderstood the Apostle Neither of these is the case This book is timely in that it enters the fray of the justification debate from a neglected vantage point
