Reversing Africa's Decline Lester Russell Brown, Edward C. Wolf, 1985 Review of Africa's ecological deterioration and economic decline Discussion of causes of the present drought problem Moreover a review of present activities of restoring African soils and replanting African forests Finally a summary is given of the elements of a reversal strategy Africa and Hunger United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science and Technology. Subcommittee on Natural Resources, Agriculture Research, and Environment, 1986 AF Press Clips, 1988 Breaking New Ground Lester R. Brown, 2013-10-14 An inspirational memoir tracing Lester Brown's life from a small farm childhood to leadership as a global environmental activist Lester R. Brown whom the Washington Post praised as one of the world's most influential thinkers built his understanding of global environmental issues from the ground up Brown spent his childhood working on the family's small farm His entrepreneurial skills surfaced early Even while excelling in school he launched with his younger brother a tomato growing operation that by 1958 was producing 1.5 million pounds of tomatoes Later at the U.S. Department of Agriculture Brown emphasized the need for systemic thinking In 1963 he did the first global food supply and demand projections to the end of the century While on a brief assignment in India in 1965 he pieced together the clues that led him to sound the alarm on an impending famine there His urgent warning to the U.S. and Indian governments set in motion the largest food rescue effort in history helping to save millions of lives This experience led India to adopt new agricultural practices which he helped to shape Brown went on to advise governments internationally and to found the Worldwatch and Earth Policy institutes two major nonprofit environmental research organizations Both brilliant and articulate through his many books he has brought to the fore the interconnections among such issues as overpopulation climate change and water shortages and their effect on food security His 1995 book Who Will Feed China led to a broad restructuring of China's agricultural policy Never one to focus only on the problem Brown always proposes pragmatic employable solutions to stave off the unfolding ecological crises that endanger our future The Failure Of The Centralized State James Wunsch, Dele Olowu, John W. Harbeson, Vincent Ostrom, 2019-07-11 This book is an outcome of the workshop on Political Theory and Policy Analysis held in Indiana during the 1985-86 It seeks to explain why the centralized African state has failed and discusses the breakdown of social processes indirectly caused by the policies of the centralized state Multilateral Development Bank Lending for Africa United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on International Development Institutions and Finance, 1986 Bridge Builders National Research Council, Policy and Global Affairs, Office of International Affairs, Panel on Planning for Scientific and Technological Information (STI) Systems in Sub-Saharan Africa, 1996-07-10 This volume tells 16 remarkable stories first person accounts of how information and communication technologies have been successfully introduced into institutions for the benefit of scientists and engineers in sub-Saharan Africa These case studies focus on the lessons learned in designing and implementing projects dealing with scientific and technological information and examine the impact Future Survey Annual 1986 Michael Marien,1987-01-01 Food And Natural Resources David Pimentel,2012-12-02 Food and Natural Resources provides an understanding of the interdependency of food and natural resources that affect society It is hoped that through these discussions a more complete understanding of these timely issues will emerge This base of knowledge will help individuals and government leaders develop and implement the types of programs that will result in the effective use and management of land water energy and biological resources for improved food production and a higher standard of living for everyone The book begins by examining the intrinsic dynamics of natural ecosystems especially the land water atmosphere energy and biological components This is followed by chapters on the availability and interrelationships between population size arable land water energy and other biological resources the loss of wild species of plants and animals the availability of agricultural land for crops and livestock and the impact of land degradation on food and other resources Subsequent chapters discuss water use in agriculture the mechanization of agriculture and food production the principles and practices that can make agriculture environmentally and economically sound and sustainable and the impact of population growth on the environment and food supply Transformations in the Global Political Economy Dennis Clark Pirages,Christine Sylvester,Dennis C. Pirages,2016-01-03 This book brings together a collection of essays that focus on the various dimensions of this transformation and prospects for future changes The book begins with an analytical essay that offers an overview of causes of change in the global political economy
