Spade, 2019-03-07 The Kaleidoscope of Gender Prisms, Patterns and Possibilities provides an accessible, timely and stimulating overview of the cutting-edge literature and theoretical frameworks in sociology and related fields in order to understand the social construction of gender. The kaleidoscope metaphor and its three themes: prisms, patterns and possibilities unify topic areas throughout the book. By focusing on the prisms through which gender is shaped, the patterns which gender takes and the possibilities for social change, the reader gains a deeper understanding of ourselves and our relationships with others both locally and globally. Editors Catherine Valentine, Mary Nell Trautner and the work of Joan Spade focus on the paradigms and approaches to gender studies that are constantly changing and evolving. The Sixth Edition includes incorporation of increased emphasis on global perspectives, updated contemporary social movements such as BlackLivesMatter and MeToo and an updated focus on gendered violence.

Gender and Governance Lisa Diane Brush, 2003 Lisa D. Brush turns a gendered lens on states, power and governance, showing the inherent inequalities in political systems and gender systems and how they intersect. This book is a useful antidote to traditional textbooks on government, the state, politics and social policy.

Doing Gender Diversity Rebecca F. Plante, Lis M. Mau, 2018-04-17 This cutting-edge reader demonstrates the multiple ways in which the universe of gender is socially, culturally and historically constructed. The selections focus on gender itself, how gender operates, socioculturally exists, functions and is presented in micro and macro interactions. In order to avoid balkanization, the authors examine the various ways in which culture intersects with individuals to produce the range of presentations of self that we call gender, from people born male who become adult men to lesbian women to transmen and everyone else on the diverse gender spectrum.

Gender, Social Inequalities, and Aging Toni M. Calasanti, Kathleen F. Slevin, 2001-08-28 The experience of men and women in later life varies enormously, not only along lines of gender but also due to ethnicity, class, sexual orientation and race. In this text on gender issues among the aging, Calasanti and Slevin explore these differences, their genesis, their meaning to men and women and their treatment in the policy arena. The authors also take to task traditional research on aging and how it ignores these issues. The authors cover topics of work and retirement, body image, sexuality, health, family relationships and informal care among many others. The current research and nuanced theoretical approach presented in this brief book makes it the ideal text to correct the stereotypic and monolithic views of the elderly for courses in gender or aging.
