Sarah Orne Jewett A Writers Life:

Sarah Orne Jewett Elizabeth Silverthorne,1993 A biography of the nineteenth century American writer early feminist ecologist and architectural preservationist Sarah Orne Jewett Paula Blanchard,2002-09-13 Best known for her masterpiece The Country of the Pointed Firs Sarah Orne Jewett 1849 1909 is a writer with enormous resonance for our time Our fascination with place with traditional values and our yearning for a rural utopia all find fulfillment in Jewett s portrayal of the grand and simple lives of coastal Maine In this delicious portrait Paula Blanchard biographer of Margaret Fuller and Emily Carr plunges us into New England literary life in turn of the century Boston into the circles of Henry James Lowell Howell Whittier and Oliver Wendell Holmes She delves into Jewett s close friendships with women from the young Willa Cather and the flamboyant Mrs Jack Gardner and especially to Annie Fields her partner in a sustaining Boston marriage Her enthralling and insightful glimpses into Jewett s fiction will send readers racing back to a writer of whose work Kipling said it is the very life The Life of Nancy Sarah Orne Jewett,2018-05-23 Reproduction of the original The Life of Nancy by Sarah Orne Jewett Writing for Immortality Anne E. Boyd,2010-01-01 Before the Civil War American writers such as Catharine Maria Sedgwick and Harriet Beecher Stowe had established authorship as a respectable profession for women But though they had written some of the most popular and influential novels of the century they accepted the taboo against female writers regarding themselves as educators and businesswomen During and after the Civil War some women writers began to challenge this view seeing themselves as artists writing for themselves and for posterity Writing for Immortality studies the lives and works of four prominent members of the first generation of American women who strived for recognition as serious literary artists Louisa May Alcott Elizabeth Stuart Phelps Elizabeth Stoddard and Constance Fenimore Woolson Combining literary criticism and cultural history Anne E Boyd examines how these authors negotiated the masculine connotation of artist imagining a space for themselves in the literary pantheon Redrawing the boundaries between male and female literary spheres and between American and British literary traditions Boyd shows how these writers rejected the didacticism of the previous generation of women writers and instead drew their inspiration from the most prominent literary writers of their day Emerson James Barrett Browning and Eliot Placing the works and experiences of Alcott Phelps Stoddard and Woolson within contemporary discussions about genius and the American artist Boyd reaches a sobering conclusion Although these women were encouraged by the democratic ideals implicit in such concepts they were equally discouraged by lingering prejudices about their applicability to women Deephaven And Selected Stories And Sketches Sarah Orne Jewett,2024-01-02 American writer Sarah Orne Jewett s compilation of works is titled Deephaven and Selected Stories and Sketches Originally published in 1877 the book demonstrates Jewett s astute observation of rural life and her talent for capturing the subtleties of interpersonal interactions Deephaven a compilation of connected stories set in a fictional New England coastal hamlet is the book s main attraction Jewett creates a realistic picture of the people and dynamics of

Deephaven through vivid and in depth descriptions The chosen tales and illustrations that Jewett created after Deephaven exhibit her talent for capturing the intricacies of human nature as well as the allure of small town living Deephaven and Selected Stories and Sketches is praised for its sensitive portrayals of human relationships vivid portrayals of rural life and late 19th century contribution to American literary realism The anthology is still a living example of Jewett s skill as a writer and her ability to convey the atmosphere of her day American Women Writers Taryn Benbow-Pfalzgraf,2000 These volumes present essays offering critical biographical and bibliographical information on each writer Deephaven Sarah Orne Jewett,2017-09-20 Sarah Orne Jewett September 3 1849 June 24 1909 was an American novelist short story writer and poet best known for her local color works set along or near the southern seacoast of Maine Jewett is recognized as an important practitioner of American literary regionalism Jewett s family had been residents of New England for many generations and Sarah Orne Jewett was born in South Berwick Maine Her father was a doctor specializing in obstetrics and diseases of women and children and Jewett often accompanied him on his rounds becoming acquainted with the sights and sounds of her native land and its people As treatment for rheumatoid arthritis a condition that developed in early childhood Jewett was sent on frequent walks and through them also developed a love of nature In later life Jewett often visited Boston where she was acquainted with many of the most influential literary figures of her day but she always returned to South Berwick small seaports near which were the inspiration for the towns of Deephaven and Dunnet Landing in her stories Jewett was educated at Miss Olive Rayne s school and then at Berwick Academy graduating in 1866 She supplemented her education through an extensive family library Jewett was never overtly religious but after she joined the Episcopal church in 1871 she explored less conventional religious ideas For example her friendship with Harvard law professor Theophilus Parsons stimulated an interest in the teachings of Emanuel Swedenborg an eighteenth century Swedish scientist and theologian who believed that the Divine was present in innumerable joined forms a concept underlying Jewett s belief in individual responsibility She published her first important story in the Atlantic Monthly at age 19 and her reputation grew throughout the 1870s and 1880s Her literary importance arises from her careful if subdued vignettes of country life that reflect a contemporary interest in local color rather than plot Jewett possessed a keen descriptive gift that William Dean Howells called an uncommon feeling for talk I hear your people Jewett made her reputation with the novella The Country of the Pointed Firs 1896 A Country Doctor 1884 a novel reflecting her father and her early ambitions for a medical career and A White Heron 1886 a collection of short stories are among her finest work Some of Jewett s poetry was collected in Verses 1916 and she also wrote three children s books Willa Cather described Jewett as a significant influence on her development as a writer and feminist critics have since championed her writing for its rich account of women s lives and voices The American Short Story Handbook James Nagel,2015-03-02 This is a concise yet comprehensive treatment of the American short story that includes an historical overview of the topic as well as discussion of notable American authors and individual stories from Benjamin Franklin's The Speech of Miss Polly Baker in 1747 to The Joy Luck Club Includes a selection of writers chosen not only for their contributions of individual stories but for bodies of work that advanced the boundaries of short fiction including Washington Irving Sarah Orne Jewett Stephen Crane Jamaica Kincaid and Tim O'Brien Addresses the ways in which American oral storytelling and other narrative traditions were integral to the formation and flourishing of the short story genre Written in accessible and engaging prose for students at all levels by a renowned literary scholar to illuminate an important genre that has received short shrift in scholarly literature of the last century Includes a glossary defining the most common terms used in literary history and in critical discussions of fiction and a bibliography of works for further study

American Women Writers of the 19th Century Heidi M. Hanrahan, 2025-04-03 The nineteenth century was a period of prolific literary production from women writers including figures such as Louisa May Alcott Harriet Jacobs and Zitkala a who played pivotal roles in American literary history Despite facing societal forces aimed at silencing them women writers found ways to assert their voices and contribute to the intellectual and political debates of the era Their works contribute to conversations on a wide range of topics including art gender social reform slavery abolition economic and social inequality national expansion Native American dispossession and the changing identity of the nation Both retrospective and forward looking their written works found diverse audiences of men women and children This book functions as a comprehensive guide to understanding the breadth of nineteenth century women's writing exploring not only the writers and their texts but also the literary periods genres and key cultural historical and social movements that shaped their works By examining these authors impact on American literary traditions and their role in cultural discourse it highlights the lasting relevance of their work in both historical and contemporary contexts The Life of Nancy (1895). By: Sarah Orne Jewett Sarah Orne

Jewett, 2017-09-18 The Life of Nancy 1895 is a collection of eleven short stories by Sarah Orne Jewett Following in the tradition of local color fiction Jewett's stories are defined by their detailed descriptions of all aspects of everyday life in the country locales and fishing towns in which the stories are set Plot Summary The first section of the story is centered on the relationship between Nancy Gale and Tom Aldus throughout their lives It begins in Boston several months after Tom spent time with Nancy's family in East Rodney Maine Tom was forced to spend time on the island as his friend sprained his ankle and could no longer travel Tom and Nancy share a deep connection which hints at romance but is never explicitly stated Tom spends much time emphasizing Nancy's great beauty This is Nancy's first visit to Boston she is staying with her Aunt and Uncle Ezra four miles outside of the city Tom gets permission from Ezra to spend the day with Nancy in the city He is beguiled by her excitement at the city and helps her purchase gifts for several of her family members back home She then attends a dance class with Tom's aunt a woman she finds extremely elegant and poised Nancy informs Tom that a young woman whom he was involved with in East Rodney the previous summer is now seeing another suitor As the two say good bye Tom hopes they will see each other soon The second section of the story begins 15 years after their day together in

Boston The two have not spoken this entire time Tom is now married with children Tom laments his desire to have written to Nancy many times once during his engagement and another when he left the US for Europe for an extended period of time He did however send her many books Tom is traveling to East Rodney to survey land purchased by his father When he arrives he is excited to see Nancy He attends a ball and is greeted by Nancy's father who informs him that she has been ill with a serious form of rheumatoid arthritis for quite sometime She is no longer capable of leaving one room in her house She spends her days giving dance lessons and giving extra help to students from the local school who are having learning troubles She remains the life of the town Tom is deeply saddened by this information and travels the next day to visit her Upon seeing her he is immediately happy and remembers their lifelong friendship which he thinks has not changed at all She expresses how happy she is to see him but does not spend a lot of time complaining of her situation The next section of the story begins several months later Tom has now built a new house on his father's land which he was originally going to sell There is no longer any mention of his wife or children He has also purchased Nancy a form of wheel chair which she uses to leave her house and visit Tom outside in the beautiful weather Everyone in the town is happy that she is able to move about even if she can no longer walk The story ends with Tom and Nancy sharing an emotional moment in which she says there never has been a day when I haven't thought of you Her last line emphasizes the emotional and possibly romantic bond that the two share even after so much time has passed Sarah Orne Jewett September 3 1849 June 24 1909 was an American novelist short story writer and poet best known for her local color works set along or near the southern seacoast of Maine Jewett is recognized as an important practitioner of American literary regionalism
