Sarratt and Chipperfield Map Bill Chester, Chiltern Society, 1996-06-01 Sarratt and Chipperfield Footpath Map Chiltern Society Staff, 2000-12 Dury and Andrews' Map of Hertfordshire Andrew Macnair, Anne Rowe, Tom Williamson, 2015-11-30 This book is about the map of an English county Hertfordshire which was published in 1766 by two London mapmakers Andrew Dury and John Andrews For well over two centuries from the time of Elizabeth I to the late 18th century the county was the basic unit for mapping in Britain and the period witnessed several episodes of comprehensive map making The map which forms the subject of this book followed on from a large number of previous maps of the county but was greatly superior to them in terms of quality and detail It was published in a variety of forms in nine sheets with an additional index map over a period of 60 years No other maps of Hertfordshire were produced during the rest of the century but the Board of Ordnance later the Ordnance Survey established in the 1790s began to survey the Hertfordshire area in 1799 publishing the first maps covering the county between 1805 and 1834 The OS came to dominate map making in Britain but of all the maps of Hertfordshire that produced by Dury and Andrews was the first to be surveyed at a sufficiently large scale to really allow those dwelling in the county to visualize their own parish local topography and even their own house and its place in the wider landscape The first section examines the context of the map s production and its place in cartographic history and describes the creation of a new digital version of the map which can be accessed online The second part describes various ways in which this electronic version can be interrogated in order to throw important new light on Hertfordshire s landscape and society both in the middle decades of the eighteenth century when it was produced and in more remote periods The attached DVD contains over a dozen maps which have been derived from the digital version and which illustrate many of the issues discussed in the text as well as related material which should likewise be useful to students of landscape history historical geography and local history Notes on Map Reading, 1929 Great Britain. War Office, 1929 Osborne's London and Birmingham Railway Guide, illustrated with ... engravings and maps Edward Cornelius OSBORNE (and OSBORNE (W.) of Birmingham.), 1840 Ghost Tours of Hertfordshire and Essex Jenni Kemp, 2019-05-31 Ghosts are ubiquitous This guide has 62 tours which incorporate over 280 towns and villages and more than 800 sites Directions are given in each tour to enable the investigator to find the sites Map references have been included using Ordnance Survey Maps together with the map numbers to enable the investigator to find the haunted sites The purpose of the guide is to enable the enthusiast to seek and observe There are notes of interest and history notes as the counties are awash with fascinating stories and legends So decide which tour you are going to tackle first You may wish to meet the phantom army at Thundridge Church ruins the screaming woman in Water Lane Bishop s Stortford the Witchfinder General Mathew Hopkins at Manningtree or maybe the ghostly monks carrying a coffin at Belchamp Walter Parks in Hertfordshire Since 1500 Hugh C. Prince, 2008 The cultural political and economic influences on the changing fortunes of Hertfordshire's great parks over the past 500 years are examined in this authoritative history. Fascinating accounts of such parks as Hatfield Moor Park and Knebworth are illustrated by revisiting each historical era and its prevailing fashions such as the enthusiasm for deer hunting in the 16th century and the golden age of landscape gardening in the 18th century. Close analysis of each time period's cartographical sources further supports this fitting record of the county's green spaces which ultimately outlines the ongoing decline in Hertfordshire's parklands now divided piecemeal between golf courses, schools and hotels, sold as real estate or precariously maintained as tourist attractions. Written Evidence of Parish Councils, 1968
