Savage State Welfare Capitalism And Inequality:

Savage State Edward J. Martin, Rodolfo D. Torres, 2005-08 The Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 is used as a point of departure for a critique of contemporary welfare policy and the capitalist state Martin and Torres set out to renew a critical Marxist method by extending it to an analysis of co Capitalism and Critique Edward Martin, Rodolfo Torres, Mateo Pimentel, 2018-10-25 While there are signs of recovery from recent economic collapses relatively few protective measures are in place in the United States to prevent future crises and widespread destruction of livelihoods around the globe This book a follow up and further development of Martin s and Torres ideas in their acclaimed Savage State Welfare Capitalism and Inequality contains a synthesis and critique of economic theory with historical case studies and new discourse on American globalism and its failures to provide for the economic security of millions of people Since the original publication over ten years ago there has been a resurgence in radical political economy and critical theory Instead of demonizing the market Capitalism and Critique draws lessons from the new directions in social theory and seeks clear solutions for future modes of capitalism An Empire of Indifference Randy Martin, 2007-03-14 Analyzes imperial ambitions in the context of the dominance of finance not simply as a form of capital but also as a set of protocols for organizing daily life Handbook of Restorative Justice, The Critical Pedagogy Reader Antonia Darder, Kortney Hernandez, Kevin D. Lam, Marta Baltodano, 2023-11-01 Since its publication The Critical Pedagogy Reader has firmly established itself as the leading collection of classic and contemporary essays by the major thinkers in the field of critical pedagogy While retaining its comprehensive introduction this thoroughly revised fourth edition includes updated section introductions expanded bibliographies and up to date classroom questions The book is arranged topically around such issues as class racism gender sexuality language and literacy and classroom issues for ease of usage and navigation New reading selections cover topics such as youth activism agency and affect and practical implementations of critical pedagogy Carefully attentive to both theory and practice this new edition remains the definitive source for teaching and learning about critical pedagogy Encyclopedia of Critical Political Science Clyde W. Barrow, 2024-03-14 An indispensable and exemplary reference work this Encyclopedia adeptly navigates the multidisciplinary field of critical political science providing a comprehensive overview of the methods approaches concepts scholars and journals that have come to influence the discipline s development over the last six decades Cultures of the City Richard Young, Amanda Holmes, 2014-08-20 Cultures of the City explores the cultural mediation of relationships between people and urban spaces in Latin o America and how these mediations shape the identities of cities and their residents Addressing a broad spectrum of phenomena and disciplinary approaches the contributors to this volume analyze lived urban experiences and their symbolic representation in cultural texts Individual chapters explore Havana in popular music Mexico City in art Buenos Aires Recife and Salvador in film and Asuncion and Buenos Aires in literature Others focus on particular events conditions and practices of urban life including the Havana book fair mass transit in Bogota the restaurant industry in Los Angeles the media in Detroit Andean festivals in Lima and the photographic record of a visit by members of the Zapatista Liberation Army to Mexico City The contributors examine identity and the sense of place and belonging that connect people to urban environments relating these to considerations of ethnicity social and economic class gender everyday life and cultural practices They also consider history and memory and the making of places through the iterative performance of social practices As such places are works in progress a condition that is particularly evident in contemporary Latin o American cities where the opposition between local and global influences is a prominent facet of daily life These core issues are theorized further in an afterword by Abril Trigo who takes the chapters as a point of departure for a discussion of the dialectics of identity in the Latin o American global city

Schools Under Surveillance Torin Monahan, Rodolfo D Torres, 2009-10-13 Schools under Surveillance gathers together some of the very best researchers studying surveillance and discipline in contemporary public schools Surveillance is not simply about monitoring or tracking individuals and their data it is about the structuring of power relations through human technical or hybrid control mechanisms Essays cover a broad range of topics including police and military recruiters on campus testing and accountability regimes such as No Child Left Behind and efforts by students and teachers to circumvent the most egregious forms of surveillance in public education Each contributor is committed to the continued critique of the disparity and inequality in the use of surveillance to target and sort students along lines of race class and gender

Absent Citizens Michael J. Prince, 2009-04-22 Disability exists in the shadows of public awareness and at the periphery of policy making People with disabilities are in many respects missing from the theories and practices of social rights political participation employment and civic membership Absent Citizens brings to light these chronic deficiencies in Canadian society and emphasizes the effects that these omissions have on the lives of citizens with disabilities Drawing together elements from feminist studies political science public administration sociology and urban studies Michael J Prince examines mechanisms of exclusion and inclusion public attitudes on disability and policy making processes in the context of disability Absent Citizens also considers social activism and civic engagements by people with disabilities and disability community organizations highlighting presence rather than absence and advocating both inquiry and action to ameliorate the marginalization of an often overlooked segment of the Canadian population
