Sawbones Memorial:

From the Heart of the Heartland John Moss, 1992-01-01 This volume gathers together authors and critics to reappraise the legacy of Sinclair Ross Beyond Ross major novel As For Me and My House the contributors reestablish the value of his other writings in their literary and historical contexts Published in English Canadian Literary Landmarks John Robert Colombo, 1984-01-01 Canadian Literary Landmarks A History of Canadian Fiction David Staines, 2021-08-05 A History of Canadian Fiction is the first one volume history to chart its development from earliest times to the present day Recounting the struggles and the glories of this burgeoning area of investigation it explains Canada's literary growth alongside its remarkable history Highlighting the people who have shaped and are shaping Canadian literary culture the book examines such major figures as Mavis Gallant Mordecai Richler Alice Munro Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje and Thomas King concluding with young authors of today whose major successes reflect their indebtedness to their Canadian forbearers

Racial Attitudes in English-Canadian Fiction, 1905-1980 Terrence Craig, 2010-10-30 Racial Attitudes in English Canadian Fiction is a critical overview of the appearances and consequences of racism in English Canadian fiction published between 1905 and 1980 Based on an analysis of traditional expressions in literature of group solidarity and resentment the study screens English Canadian novels for fictional representations of such feelings Beginning with the English Canadian reaction to the mass influx of immigrants into Western Canada after World War One it examines the fiction of novelists such as Ralph Connor and Nellie McClung The author then suggests that the cumulative effect of a number of individual voices such as Grove and Salverson constituted a counter reaction which has been made more positive by Laurence Lydenko Richler and Clarke The debate between these two sides carried on in fictional and non fictional writing is seen to be in part resolved in synthesis after World War Two as attitudes are forced by wartime alliances and intellectual pressures into a qualified liberalism The author shows how single novels by Graham Bodsworth and Callaghan demonstrated a new concern for the exposure and eradication of racial discrimination an attitude taken further by the works of Wiebe and Klein The book concentrates on single texts that best portray deliberately or not racist ideology or anti racist arguments and attempts to explain the arousal in Canada of such ideas "Collecting Stamps Would Have Been More Fun" Jordan Stouck, David

Stouck, 2010-07-15 This unique exchange of letters between literary icon Sinclair Ross and several prominent writers publishers agents and editors asks why many Canadian artists especially those in western provinces spent a lifetime struggling for recognition and remuneration Featuring exchanges with Earle Birney Margaret Laurence and Margaret Atwood among others this collection exposes the conditions of cultural work in Canada for much of the twentieth century This vivid often moving selection of professional and personal letters plus the only formal interview Ross ever gave provides a valuable resource for those engaged with the history of publishing in Canada as well as for those with an interest in Canadian literature "Collecting Stamps Would Have Been More Fun" Sinclair Ross, 2010-07-15 The peculiar struggles of Canadian authors are writ large in the letters of Sinclair Ross Who's Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History Robert Aldrich, Garry Wotherspoon, 2020-10-28 First published in 2004 With subjects drawn from politics the arts and popular culture Who's Who in Contemporary Gay Lesbian History includes 500 entries from a large team of expert international contributors The geographical scope takes in the whole of the Western world Includes fascinating information about little known figures as well as cult icons from World War II to the present day A History of Canadian Literature William H.
