Elbert, Mary Kawena Pukui, 2001-04-01 Without question this is the definitive grammar of the Hawaiian language Indeed it is the first attempt at a comprehensive treatment of the subject since W D Alexander published his concise Short Synopsis of the Most Essential Points in Hawaiian Grammar in 1864 This grammar is intended as a companion to the Hawaiian Dictionary by the same authors The grammar was written with every student of the Hawaiian language in mind from the casual interested layperson to the professional linguist and grammarian Although it was obviously impossible to avoid technical terms their use was kept to a minimum and a glossary is included for those who need its help Each point of grammar is illustrated with examples many from Hawaiian language literature Ono Ono Girl's Hula Carolyn Lei-lanilau, 1997 Seventeen years after she married Judith Strasser escaped her emotionally and physically abusive husband and sought a better way to live In the process Strasser rediscovered what she had suppressed through that long span of time exceptional strength and a passion for writing Black Eye includes excerpts from a journal Strasser kept from 1985 to 1986 the year she made the decision to leave her marriage and present day commentary on the journal passages and her family history Strasser works like a detective investigating her own life drawing clarity and power from journal passages dreams and memories that originally emerged from confusion and despair With language that is both insightful and poetic she reveals the psychological and social circumstances that led a strong woman an intelligent and politically active feminist to become an emotionally dependent abused wife Not coincidentally the same year that Strasser finally found the courage to leave her husband she also reclaimed her creative voice Newly empowered and energized by this enormous life change Strasser began writing again after twenty five silent years dominated by her mother's illness and death her own cancer and her painful fearful marriage Black Eye is one of the fruits of this creative reawakening Strasser's writing is refreshingly honest and instantly engrossing Not shy of wretchedness or beauty Strasser's story is bitterly personal ultimately triumphant and inspiring to all who deal with the adversity that is part of human life Hawaiian Dictionary Mary Kawena Pukui, Samuel H. Elbert, 1986-03-01 For many years Hawaiian Dictionary has been the definitive and authoritative work on the Hawaiian language Now this indispensable reference volume has been enlarged and completely revised More than 3 000 new entries have been added to the Hawaiian English section bringing the total number of entries to
