Scenes From A Writers Life:

Scenes from a Writer's Life Ruskin Bond, 2017-08-29 The making of a writer Ruskin Bond's first full fledged autobiographical book covers his formative years till the age of twenty one The world of Anglo India with all its conflicting pulls comes alive as he tells his story His earliest memoirs are bitter sweet and relate to Jamnager where he lives till he is six The happy hours spent in exploring the Ram Vilas Palace grounds and playing with his younger sister Ellen and the palace children are overshadowed by the acrimonious relation between his parents Their estrangement while he is still a child leaves him with a life long sense of insecurity His unhappiness is exacerbated by the untimely death of his father his emotional anchor when the author is just ten Forced to stay with his mother and his stepfather both of whom are absorbed in their own worlds he tries to fend off his loneliness through books and the company of a few friends Left for the most part to himself the gentle dreamer realizes very early as a pimply adolescent his calling as a writer His first book The Room on the Roof materializes in England the land of his forefathers where he is sent to make a career for himself Despite the unexpected success of his novel which wins a major British literary prize the author's yearning for India is too powerful to let him remain abroad for long He returns and begins a writing career which has spanned four decades and earned him a place in the pantheon of great Indian writers

Ruskin Bond A Study of Human Emotions Dr. Sangeeta Paul Budhiraja, Literature challenges one not only to think about ethical conundrums but also makes one sensitive and compassionate When it blends with euphoria and nostalgia the integral parts of human mind it toughens and becomes sturdy Man loves to live in his past memories to be happy The experiences form a part of human personality and shape their behaviour pattern Nostalgia stores for us our memories which we relish lifelong Even the lamentable days of past become pleasant Though we might have ignored some not too pleasant incidents in our bygone days yet somewhat bitter experiences appear to be impressive and attractive It is aptly said that the panorama of mountains appear beautiful and splendid from a distance The bitterness of nearness is intolerable The more we grow in years the more our past recedes Distance from the life lived long ago makes it sweet and desirable Strain and stress of the present becomes frivolous when we slip and relapse into euphoric nostalgia The instincts of euphoria and nostalgia have been vividly handled by the legendary writers of all times They have given various dimensions and definitions to the readers to redeem these human aspects yet many more stones are still unturned These two instincts in the oeuvre of the legendary writer Ruskin Bond are the anchor points that suggest the scope of study I have chosen to put forward the very idea about how a man's body mind and soul blend with traces of his past memories and support the holistic growth
