Scenes From The Mesozoic:

Full House Stephen Jay Gould, 2011-10 Gould shows why a more accurate way of understanding our world is to look at a given subject within its own context to see it as a part of a spectrum of variation and then to reconceptualize trends as expansion or contraction of this full house of variation and not as the progress or degeneration of an average value or single thing Encyclopedia of American Humorists Steven H. Gale, 2016-04-14 First published in 1988 this book contains entries on famous American Humorists Humor has been present in American literature from the beginning and has developed characteristics that reflect the American character both regional and national Although American literature was in the past treated as inferior to British literature there has always been a large popular audience for the genre which this book shows The figures with entries in this encyclopedia not only amuse in their writing but also aim to enlighten setting out to expose the foibles and foolishness of society and the individuals who compose it It is the manner in which these authors try to accomplish this end that determines whether they appear in the volume Indeed the book will demonstrate that the best humor has at its base a ready understanding of human nature Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1964 Includes Part 1 Number 1 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January June An Index to Literature in the New Yorker: Volumes I-XV, 1925-1940 Robert Owen Johnson, 1969 Saturday Review, 1935 Saturday Review of Literature, 1935 I Was a Teenage Movie Maker Don Glut, 2007-07-02 In 1953 a nine year old boy watched a prehistoric film called Beast From 20 000 Fathoms featuring the special effect magic of Ray Harryhausen Enthralled by the movie but unsatisfied with what was available for at home movie consumption he decided to make his own science fiction thriller from dinosaurs to superheroes This volume takes a firsthand look at the movie making career of Don Glut Beginning with his first movie Diplodocus At Large at age nine it explores Glut's various attempts and the increasingly creative processes he used to bring his vision to life Through the course of the work Glut discusses his filmmaking experiences at the University of Southern California the inspiration he received and gave through fanzines such as Famous Monsters of Filmland and Castle of Frankenstein and the interest which his movies still generate Films discussed include The Earth Before Man Spy Smasher vs the Purple Monster Dinosaur Valley Girls and Frankenstein Meets Dracula A chronological filmography lists each of Glut's 41 films with notes regarding cast and a brief synopsis Contesting Earth's History in Transatlantic Literary Culture, 1860-1935 Richard Fallon, 2025-02-14 By the mid nineteenth century geologists and palaeontologists had reconstructed an authoritative narrative of Earth's deep history from the planet's molten origins to the rise of humanity Many figures in transatlantic science across subsequent decades however had problems with this narrative it was too secular inhuman and evolutionary or controlled too exclusively by elite scientists Speaking from palaeoscience's unevenly professionalized and controversy racked borders Christian fundamentalists charismatic psychics and respected scholars alike voiced their objections Until now no study has brought their work together for detailed comparative analysis Spanning from the 1860s to the interwar decades Contesting Earth's History examines the fascinating stories of five significant examples of fringe or borderline palaeoscience old and young earth creationism hollow earth theory clairvoyant time travel and sunken continent catastrophism Innovatively combining methods from literary studies with the history of science this book attends not just to the conceptual content of these strange sciences but also to their proponents communication of truth claims through diverse genres ranging from the scientific textbook and the technical monograph to the lost world romance and the epic poem By paying close attention to the hitherto overlooked textual forms and literary strategies of these works of pseudoscience this volume throws into relief the variant conceptions of audience evidence and method that jostled and competed in wider scientific culture during this period It also demonstrates that for all their diversity authors of borderline palaeoscience shared the desire to shift the balance of power creating textual spaces where exclusive hierarchies of scientific expertise could be levelled away These conjurors of lost worlds often captivated wide audiences and many of their bizarre astonishing and iconoclastic ideas remain with us to this day Some even inspired early science fiction by the likes of H P Lovecraft and Edgar Rice Burroughs Hijacking geologists and palaeontologists longstanding effort at making the prehistoric past visible authors on the borderlines of palaeoscience asserted their right to scientific authority and encouraged readers to gaze into time's abyss with bold new eyes

Twentieth-century Literary Criticism Gale Research Company, 2005 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights short story writers and other creative writers who lived between 1900 and 1960 from the first published critical appraisals to current evaluations American Humorists, 1800-1950 Stanley Trachtenberg, 1982 Contains biographical sketches of American humorists who are generally considered to have had a major impact on our attitudes toward and understanding of humor and on the development of the form through the production of a significant body of work Only literary figures were considered for inclusion criterion was based on whether the author's work was primarily humorous or whether there was a significant body of humorous writing Dinosaur Sculpting Allen A. Debus, Bob Morales, Diane E. Debus, 2013-08-28 This new book greatly expanded from the 1995 first edition describes detailed step by step procedures for sculpting molding and painting original prehistoric animals It emphasizes the use of relatively inexpensive materials including oven hardening polymer clay and wire Additional tips are offered on how to build distinctive dino dioramas and scenes involving one's own original sculptures that you will learn how to conceive and build This book will appeal to a new generation who would like to break into the industry of paleosculpture Techniques range from basic to advanced The authors also discuss what it means to be a paleoartist Geomorphology from Space United States. National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Scientific and Technical Information Branch, 1986 The Scientific American Book of Dinosaurs Gregory Paul, 2003-04-22 Collects writings by experts in paleontology from John Horner on dinosaur families to Robert Bakker on the latest wave of fossil discoveries The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross, William Shawn, Tina Brown, David

Remnick, Katharine Sergeant Angell White, Rea Irvin, Roger Angell, 1935 The Ohio Journal of Science, 1923 Includes book reviews and abstracts Imaginative Realism James Gurney, 2009-10-20 A examination of time tested methods used by artists since the Renaissance to make realistic pictures of imagined things Stories in Stone Willis Thomas Lee, 1926
The Irish Naturalist, 1898 Twentieth Century Authors Stanley Kunitz, Howard Haycraft, 1973 Foundation volume of authentic biographical information on the writers of this century of all nations whose books are familiar to readers of English
