Schlafes Bruder:

Translation and Culture Katherine M. Faull, 2004 How we view the foreign presented either in the interrelated forms of culture language or text determines to a large degree the way in which we translate This volume of essays examines the cultural politics of translation that have determined the production and dissemination of the foreign in domestic cultures as varied as contemporary North America Europe and Israel The essays address from a variety of theoretical perspectives the question posed almost two hundred years ago by the German philosopher Friedrich Schleiermacher of whether the translator should foreignize the domestic or domesticate the foreign

Music and Literature in German Romanticism Siobhán Donovan, Robin Elliott, 2004 During the Romantic era many in Germany believed music to be the highest art form representing the quintessence of Romanticism and able to express what could not be expressed in words This book studies the work of composers during this period and examines the cross over between music and literature

Brother of Sleep Robert Schneider, 2014-07-01 A highly unusual tale about an unrecognized musical genius this acclaimed debut novel touches the grand questions about God love art and history Publishers Weekly Set against the backdrop of a nineteenth century Alpine village Brother of Sleep tells the story of Johannes Elias Alder a musical genius with an uncanny ear who develops his talent in secret midnight sessions at the church organ Though he plays transcendently his unrequited love and his struggle to break free from his circumstance threaten to destroy him Translated into twenty four languages and adapted into a film a ballet an opera and several plays Brother of Sleep moves inexorably toward tragedy in a tale reminiscent of Patrick Suskind's Perfume In this beguiling novel Robert Schneider has created a strange rich story suffused with the poignancy of genius that is not allowed to flourish Los Angeles Book Review

Processes of Transposition, 2015-06-29 The essays collected in this book focus on the multi faceted relationship between German Austrian literature and the cinema screen Scholars from Ireland Great Britain Germany Switzerland Luxembourg Portugal USA and Canada present critical readings of a wide range of transpositions of German language texts to film while also considering the impact of cinema on German literature exploring intertextualities as well as intermedialities The forum of discussion thus created encompasses cinematic narratives based on Goethe's Faust Kleist's Marquise of O Kubrick's film version of Schnitzler's Dream Story and Caroline Link's Oscar winning adaptation of Stefanie Zweig's novel Nowhere in Africa The wide ranging analyses of the complex interaction between literature and film presented here focus on literary works by Anna Seghers Hans Magnus Enzensberger Nicola Rhon G nter Grass Heinrich Böll Elfriede Jelinek Rolf Dieter Brinkmann Erich Hackl Thomas Brussig Sven Regener Frank Goosen and Robert Schneider as well as on adaptations by filmmakers such as Friedrich Wilhelm Murnau Max Mack Josef von Sternberg Max W Kimmich Fred Zinnemann Paul Wegener Alexander Kluge Volker Schlöndorff Hans-Jürgen Pohland Hendrik Handloegten Michael Haneke Christoph Stark Karin Brandauer Joseph Vilsmaier Leander Hau mann and Doris Dörrie

The Concise Cinegraph Hans-Michael Bock, im Bergfelder, 2009-09-01 This comprehensive guide is an ideal reference

work for film specialists and enthusiasts First published in 1984 but continuously updated ever since CineGraph is the most authoritative and comprehensive encyclopedia on German speaking cinema in the German language This condensed and substantially revised English language edition makes this important resource available to students and researchers for the first time outside its German context It offers a representative historical overview through bio filmographical entries on the main protagonists from the beginnings to the present day Included are directors and actors writers and cameramen composers and production designers film theorists and critics producers and distributors inventors and manufacturers An appendix includes short introductory essays on specific periods and movements such as Early Film Weimar Nazi Cinema DEFA New German Cinema and German film since unification as well as on cinematic developments in Austria and Switzerland Sections that crossreference names around specific professional groups and themes will prove equally invaluable to researchers Signaturen der Gegenwartsliteratur Dieter Borchmeyer,1999 Twentieth-Century Countertenor

Repertoire Steven L. Rickards,2008-08-11 This significant reference of over 600 entries compiles and catalogues information about repertoire composed specifically for the countertenor from 1950 to 2000 Representing more than 350 composers it provides a resource for countertenors and voice teachers to identify and become more familiar with contemporary works for countertenor The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld,2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema s most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children s literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship Lessing Yearbook Arno Schilson,Richard E. Guthke,1999 Why is it that in some cultures and times literature folklore and art commonly represent death as a man in others as a woman Karl S Guthke shows that these choices which often contradict the grammatical gender of the word death in the language concerned are neither arbitrary nor accidental In earlier centuries the gender of the figure of death contributed to the interpretation of biblical narrative in particular whether the original sin was that of Adam or Eve and also reflected the importance of the classical figure of Thanatos More recently the gender of death as angel lover or bride whether terrifying or welcome has carried powerful psychological and social connotations Tracing the gender of representations of death in art and literature from medieval times to the present day Guthke offers astonishing new insights into the nature and perception of the Western self in its cultural intellectual and literary context German Culture through Film Robert C. Reimer,Reinhard Zachau,2017-09-01 German Culture through Film An Introduction to German Cinema is an English language text that serves equally well in courses on modern German film in courses on general film studies in courses that incorporate film as a way to study culture and as an engaging resource for scholars students and devotees of cinema and film history In its second edition German Culture through Film expands on the first edition providing additional chapters with context for understanding the era in which the featured films were produced Thirty three notable German films are arranged in seven chronological chapters spanning key moments in German film history from the silent era to the present Each chapter begins with an introduction that focuses on the history and culture surrounding films of the relevant period Sections within chapters are each devoted to one particular film providing film credits a summary of the story background information an evaluation questions and activities to encourage diverse interpretations a list of related films and bibliographical information on the films discussed From Page to Screen / Vom Buch zum Film Manuel Almagro-Jiménez,Eva Parra-Membrives,2020-10-05 For a long time now women have struggled for the vindication of their rights and for their visibility This struggle may seem a story of success maybe not complete or equal for all women but at least one which slowly but surely carries with it the promise of equality for all women However a closer look reveals that in various fields of culture the representation of women frequently undergoes a manipulation which makes the image of women lose the intention initially attempted This is often the case with adaptations of literary texts to the screen when the initial literary message is changed because of for example marketing demands or some ideological stance Rarely do we find the opposite case where the indifferent or emasculated original female characters are turned into guardians and or apologists of feminine power The present volume focuses precisely on the way in which the image of women is modified in films and TV series when compared with the original literary texts The hymns and hymn melodies of the cantatas and motetts Charles Sanford Terry,1917
