Calvin and Luther: The Continuing Relationship R. Ward Holder, David M. Whitford, Günter Frank, Ute Lotz-Heumann, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Johannes Schilling, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, Tarald Rasmussen, Mathijs Lamberigts, Bruce Gordon, 2013-09-18 The reforms begun by Luther and Calvin became two of the largest and most influential movements to arise in the sixteenth century but frequently these two movements are seen and defined as polar opposites one's theology is Reformed or Lutheran one is a member of a Reformed or Lutheran congregation Historically these were two very separate movements but more remains to be understood that can best be analyzed in the context of the other Just as surely as the historical question of the boundaries between Calvin and Luther or Lutheranism and Calvinism must be answered with a resounding yes the ongoing doctrinal questions offer a different picture In the more systematic doctrinal articles an argument is forwarded that the broad confessional continuity between Luther and Calvin on the soteriological theme of union with Christ offers still unexplored avenues to both deeper understandings of soteriology Through such articles we begin to see the possibility of a rapprochement between Calvin and Luther as sources though not as historical figures But that insight allows the conversation to extend and bear far greater fruit Contributors are J T Billings Ch Helmer H P J rgens S C Karant Nunn R Kolb Th F Latini G S Pak J Watt T J Wengert P Westermeyer and D M Whitford
