Stakeholder Engagement Henry Tran,Douglas A. Smith,David G. Buckman,2019-12-19 This book focuses on the topic of the multiple stakeholders that comprise the education community across the P 20 continuum In various ways and forms the authors of the chapters found within this book promote the importance of engaging with the diverse array of stakeholders in order to truly improve education in an increasingly interconnected world The book itself is divided into two major arcs the first of which covers community relations and stakeholder engagement in P 12 schools while the second addresses those same issues in higher education When one considers the activities that take place within education institutions there is a realization that they are influenced and driven by much more than just the educators and administrators who occupy the schools In the editors own work e g see Tran Bon 2016 the importance of the inclusion of the viewpoints and inputs of multiple stakeholders in school decisions when appropriate has been consistently argued given that the school is considered by many to be a social and communal environment To address these issues in this text this book is lucky to have a collection of peer reviewed writing that explore various aspects of how multiple stakeholder input can be used to improve school decisions

Planning Educational Facilities Glen I. Earthman,2013-08-22 Planning Educational Facilities What Educators Need to Know is a book about planning and the responsibilities educators have in the process of planning for educational facilities The book covers every aspect of planning that needs to be done to complete any capital improvement project from the assessment of need to the evaluation of the product and process The text is the most comprehensive book on planning educational facilities on the market Each planning process is described in detail explaining the role of the superintendent and school personnel Descriptions of the various means of contracting with a firm for the construction of a building of the completion of a capital improvement project is provided with a discussion of the benefits and problems involved The book also contains a chapter devoted to problem based learning activities which were derived from practical situations These activities provide a very practical experience of solving typical problems in the planning process This text can be used by the practitioner as a guide to follow in planning educational facilities It can also be used as a text in a school planning course
