Development Planning and School Improvement for Middle Managers Marilyn Leask, Ian

Terrell,2014-05-22 Classroom teachers moving to positions of increased responsibility often have very little formal training for their new role This book provides guidelines for best practice in the necessary skills for success planning management and accountability International Handbook on the Preparation and Development of School Leaders Jacky Lumby,Gary Crow,Petros Pashiardis,2009-05-07 Sponsored by the University Council of Educational Administration UCEA the British Educational Leadership Management and Administration Society BELMAS and the Commonwealth Council for Educational Administration and Management CCEAM this is the first book to provide a comprehensive and comparative review of what is known about the preparation and development of primary and secondary school leaders across the globe It describes current issues and debates and offers an assessment of where the field of leadership development is headed Key features include the following Global Focus this book provides the first comprehensive look at leadership preparation and development across the globe The chapter authors are distinguished scholars drawn from the US UK Europe Asia Canada Australia New Zealand and Africa Topical Geographical Focus provides researchers and policymakers with critical descriptions and assessments of both topical and geographical areas International Expertise chapter contributors are drawn from a variety of theoretical perspectives and represent all major continents Creating the Conditions for School Improvement Mel Ainscow,John Beresford,Alma Harris,David Hopkins,Geoff Southworth,Mel West,2013-12-19 First Published in 2001 This is the second edition of this school s improvement handbook of staff development activities by the IQEA Improving Education for All project This book is not about what changes should be introduced into a school but rather about creating the conditions for supporting those changes which schools or individuals believe should be introduced To be effective at managing change schools and teachers need to modify the internal conditions of the school at the same time as introducing changes in teaching or curriculum The book therefore provides ideas and materials to help colleagues in school to create such conditions and suggests a strategic approach Unleashing Greatness - a strategy for school improvement David Hopkins,2024-06-21 There is a paradox at the heart of contemporary school improvement and system change in education Why is it that despite the phenomenal increase in our recent knowledge about what works in schooling standards still lag behind expectations and school level performance is far too variable Unleashing Greatness addresses this paradox and concludes that unless we focus unrelentingly on the quality of teaching in both our small and large scale reform efforts current practice will never meet society s expectations Unleashing Greatness is a compilation of David Hopkins writing into one concise manual to provide an eight step strategy for unleashing greatness Introducing a rational and conceptual framework for pedagogic improvement that has the potential for generating an increasingly specific language for teaching and learning this book significantly aids consistency and precision in the quest for both excellence and equity for all students Written for school improvement activists particularly those who work in laboratory schools or who wish to emulate that ethos and way of working the author himself has located his professional practice for over forty years as well as this book in the middle of that triangle bounded by the vertices of practice research and policy Monitoring and Evaluation for School Improvement Mazda Jenkin, Jeff Jones, Sue Lord, 2000 This work explains the background and context to increased accountability in secondary schools It offers practical help with structures and techniques for monitoring and evaluation within subject departments and pastoral areas Advising on School Improvement Association of Education Advisers, 2025-02-28 Theoretical and practical exemplification of the education adviser s skills knowledge and understanding in relation to school improvement This is the second book in The Education Adviser series which fully aligns with the AoEA accreditation and focuses on school improvement supporting the professional learning of education advisers The education system has undergone significant change recently giving education advisers a huge part to play especially around school improvement Divided into three parts context and causality building capacity and collaborative school improvement providing a thorough exploration of school improvement strategies The range of contributions from MAT leaders headteachers system leaders key influencers and education advisers showcases diverse perspectives and approaches and provides critically reflective opportunities This book delves into the following topics and more understanding a school s improvement within a wider context advising on curriculum and pedagogy supporting new head teachers in identifying priorities building capacity to create and sustain an inclusive school culture system wide collaboration Perfect for new or prospective education advisers it will help school leaders fully understand the complexities of school improvement and how to apply this knowledge in practice Learning to Lead in the Secondary School Mark Brundrett, Ian Terrell, 2004 Learning to Lead in the Secondary School is designed to meet the needs of subject leaders and heads of department in secondary schools offering practical advice and guidance to teachers taking on these demanding roles This highly informative book is structured around six sections that address all of the key areas in leading a department including becoming a subject leader managing effective teaching and learning leading and managing people the strategic direction and development of a department the deployment of staff and resources managing personal performance and development This guide will be invaluable to middle managers in schools subject leaders and heads of departments It will be of interest to teachers and managers at all levels and will also be useful to those undertaking research or further qualifications in educational leadership and management School Improvement after Inspection? Peter Earley, 1998-10-28 The language of the book is accessible to those who are not involved in education The 14 chapters describe and evaluate the impact of OfSTED inspection presenting the cases for external and self assessment Mentoring Training School inspection under OfSTED continues to generate discussion and controversy This book contributes to the wider debate about the role and function of OfSTED inspection particularly as it relates to school improvement and raising standards What do we know about the impact OfSTED is having on schools particularly in terms of their development Is inspection leading to school improvement What is the impact of inspection on the average school This book focuses on the impact of OfSTED inspection and what happens to schools after their inspection Does inspection help raise standards What are the consequences of inspection for successful schools

School-Based Management and School Effectiveness Clive Dimmock, 2013-11-26 This book explores the connections between school based management school effectiveness and school improvement bringing together studies completed in Australia and New Zealand Canada the UK and the USA It describes and analyses how effective principals and teachers perceive and undertake educational change and school based management how a sense of values vision and school culture can improve leadership ways in which delegating financial management to schools may lead to improved teaching and learning and the contribution made by school development planning through reviews and evaluation to school improvement Finally it suggests future directions for study and research in school effectiveness school improvement and school based management

Concept and Design Developments in School Improvement Research Arnoud Oude Groote Beverborg, Tobias Feldhoff, Katharina Maag Merki, Falk Radisch, 2021-06-15 This open access book discusses challenges in school improvement research and different methodological approaches that have the potential to foster school improvement research Research on school improvement and accountability analysis places high demands on a study's design and method The potential of combining the depth of case studies with the breadth of quantitative measures and analyses in a mixed methods design seems very promising Consequently the focus of the book lies on innovative methodological approaches The book chapters address design measurement and analysis developments as well as theoretical and conceptual developments The relevance of the research presented in the chapters for educational accountability is discussed in the book's discussion chapter More specifically authors present one specific innovative methodological approach and clarify that approach with a concrete example in the context of school improvement based on empirical data when possible In this way this book helps researchers designing complex useful studies

Effective Leadership for School Improvement Alma Harris, Christopher Day, David Hopkins, Mark Hadfield, Andy Hargreaves, Christopher Chapman, 2013-09-05 In a complex and multi layered world the conventional idea of great leadership being the result of the efforts of a single individual is rapidly becoming redundant This book takes up the challenge of finding an alternative method of leadership in educational contexts and looks at how this can help achieve sustained improvement in schools The authors acknowledge that there are no simple solutions to school improvement They argue that the effective leaders of the future will be those who are able to share responsibility build positive relationships and offer stakeholders teachers parents and students an opportunity to work together to improve their schools The book is based around four key areas of concern the changing context of leadership leadership and school improvement building leadership capacity and future direction and implications In each section the authors discuss current theories and issues and put forward alternative ideas and perspectives This important book will make valuable reading for headteachers principles deputies and other senior teachers particularly those undertaking leadership qualifications and training It will also be of interest to postgraduate students and school governors

Improving Schools Through Teacher

Development Stephen E. Anderson, 2022-03-27 This book presents a story of school improvement activity in East Africa from 1985 to 2000 which focused on sustained teacher development The core of the book consists of six evaluations of school and district wide school improvement projects SIPs supported by the Aga Khan Foundation in Tanzania Kenya and Uganda The case studies present an evolving body of knowledge about the successes and challenges of a comprehensive approach to school improvement grounded in a common set of strategic principles The strategic principles embody the belief that the chances for quality improvement in teaching and learning are greater when change efforts are school based involve whole schools as the unit of change emphasize the ongoing professional development of teachers attend to school management and organizational conditions affecting the capacity of teachers to implement change prepare for the institutionalization of organizational structures and processes that enable continuous school development and evolve through partnerships among relevant education stakeholders The book concludes with commentaries by international experts in school improvement and teacher development on the SIP project designs implementation and outcomes and on lessons that can be drawn from the projects and their evaluations for school improvement policy practice and theory in developing and developed countries around the world

Subject Leadership and School Improvement Hugh Busher, Alma Harris, 2000-11-17 Curriculum and subject leadership in schools has recently gained substantial attention from both researchers and policy makers The Teacher Training Agency TTA has reinforced the importance of subject leadership in school improvement proposing a new measure of such leadership competence through the creation of national subject leader standards NPQSL Subject Leadership and School Improvement reflects critically on the work of subject and curriculum leaders especially in schools in England and Wales that is those within the policy framework of The National Curriculum and the Teacher Training Agency The book debates the functions of subject leaders in primary and secondary schools using current research based conceptual frameworks and considers how they can bring about improvement and change with their colleagues in their subject areas It emphasizes what is particular about leading and managing the middle realm of education organizations showing how structural cultural and individual imperatives and perspectives interact with each other in the professional practice of being a subject leader The book is of interest not only to subject leaders and curriculum co ordinators to help them reflect rigorously on their practice but also to those responsible for supervising them such as headteachers and school governors as well as for those accountable to them It will be a useful text for serving teachers undertaking higher degrees programmes or programmes for gaining national standards qualifications the National Professional Qualification for Headteachers NPQH as much as for the NPQSL National Professional Qualification for Subject Leaders when it is implemented
