Scratch the Surface Susan Conant, 2006-07-05 When mystery author Felicity Pride stumbles upon a gray Chartreux snuggled up against a corpse in her own vestibule she's determined to solve the crime just like her own fictional sleuth would do Naturally she wants to know who the victim is who did it and what publicity value it all has What unfolds is more surprising than anything she's ever plotted on paper Scratching The Surface Dr. Will Boyd, 2011 Scratching the Surface Dr Adam de Paor-Evans, 2023-03-10 Scratching the Surface Hip Hop Remoteness and Everyday Life presents the encounters of a young rural teenager growing up in Devon in the south west corner of the UK as he engages with the evolution of hip hop told through 28 particular and detailed memories drawn from the experience of the author The book is divided into four parts and situated between 1983 and 1986 explores the emotional growth contextual questioning and at times naive journey of the protagonist as he reflects on such minutiae as the price tags on record sleeves the LED display on cassette players and the zips on tracksuit tops The author of Provincial Headz British Hip Hop and Critical Regionalism returns with a quirky contextual novella which unearths a less canonical hip hop history of the 1980s and expresses the innocence and obsessions of an only child growing up in the sticks as he strives to make sense of his personal history identity and place in the world through the often dialectic relationship between Devonian life and hip hop culture This is the first publication in the new Rhythm Obscura Headz Projects series which seeks to uncover the hidden histories of music cultures in Britain Adam de Paor Evans is an independent creative practitioner ethnomusicologist and spatio cultural theorist and was previously Reader in Ethnomusicology at University of Central Lancashire UK His research is focused on the relationship of the non obvious societal and regional rural phenomena within music cultures He leads the scholarly research project Rhythm Obscura Revealing Hidden Histories Through Ethnomusicology Practice Research and Material Culture and has been an actively involved in British hip hop culture since 1983 Between 1989 1992 he was a member of pioneering Devon hip hop crew Def Defiance as Project Cee He also performs original 45 only DJ shows under the pseudonym RARE GRILLS

Scratching the Surface Kate Allen Fox, 2025-08 Science picture book author Kate Allen Fox takes readers on journey through the Earth's layers down to its core Scratching the Surface Fahmi Natour, 2005-09 In following the fictitious life of Frank Gardner Scratching the Surface exposes compares and contrasts the orientations cultures and attitudes of people in the Middle East with people in the United States Frank provides the link among the multitude of events covering the various aspects of life in both the United States and the Middle East during the 1970s and up to the late 1990s Frank internalizes the American experience first as an outsider and a foreign student then as an American citizen and active participant in the American dream But when Frank returns to Israel at the most challenging stage of its history he experiences fear mistrust and absence of personal security amidst a world that has spun dangerously out of control After surviving a vicious bombing attack in a nearby mall Frank meets his fate on his way to a peace rally in Tel Aviv Scratching the Surface Harvey

Ovshinsky,2021-03-09 The inspiring story of one of Detroit's most creative and prolific storytellers Scratching the Surface Adventures in Storytelling is a deeply personal and intimate memoir told through the lens of Harvey Ovshinsky's lifetime of adventures as an urban enthusiast. He was only seventeen when he started The Fifth Estate one of the country's oldest underground newspapers. Five years later he became one of the country's youngest news directors in commercial radio at WABX FM Detroit's notorious progressive rock station. Both jobs placed Ovshinsky directly in the bullseye of the nation's tumultuous counterculture of the 1960s and 70s. When he became a documentary director Ovshinsky's dispatches from his hometown were awarded broadcasting's highest honors including a national Emmy, a Peabody and the American Film Institute's Robert M. Bennett Award for Excellence. But this memoir is more than a boastful trip down memory lane. It also doubles as a survival guide and an instruction manual that speaks not only to the nature of and need for storytelling but also and equally important the pivotal role the twin powers of endurance and resilience play in the creative process. You don't have to be a writer, an artist or even especially creative to take the plunge. Ovshinsky reminds his readers: You just have to feel strongly about something or have something you need to get off your chest. And then find the courage to scratch your own surface and share your good stuff with others. Above all, Ovshinsky is an educator known for his passionate support of and commitment to mentoring the next generation of urban storytellers. When he wasn't teaching screenwriting and documentary production in his popular workshops and support groups, he taught undergraduate and graduate students at Detroit's College for Creative Studies, Wayne State University, Madonna University and Washtenaw Community College. The thing about Harvey, a colleague recalls in Scratching the Surface, is that he treats his students like professionals and not like newbies at all. His approach is to in a very supportive and non-threatening way combine both introductory and advanced storytelling in one fell swoop.

This is the story of those in the frontline of change.

Scratching the Surface Enakshi Dua,Angela Robertson,1999 Scratching the Surface brings together 14 anti-racist feminists who examine ways in which race and gender interact to shape the lives of women of colour in Canada. This collection of articles covers a broad range of topics such as the impact of colonialism and its associated discourses on First Nations and other groups of colonized women, racism in the Canadian labour movement, the impact of globalization on women of colour, the ways in which the institution of the nuclear family shapes racism, sexism in communities of colour and the ways in which the women's movement can create an anti-racist praxis. The book not only provides exciting new insights into how women of colour experience Canadian society but also provides instructors with a textbook that integrates anti racist and feminist approaches

High Pressure Surface Science and Engineering Yury Gogotsi, V. Domnich, 2019-09-19 In many instances of mechanical interaction between two materials the physical contact affects only the outermost surface layer with little discernible influence on the bulk of the material The resultant high pressures in these localised regimes can induce surface structural changes such as deformation phase transformation and amorphization
