Interactive Cinema Marina Hassapopoulou, 2024-06-25
Connecting interactive cinema to media ethics and global citizenship
Interactive Cinema explores various cinematic practices that work to transform what is often seen as a primarily receptive activity into a participatory multimedia experience
Surveying a multitude of unorthodox approaches throughout the history of motion pictures
Marina Hassapopoulou offers insight into a range of largely ephemeral and site specific projects that consciously assimilate viewers into their production
Analyzing examples of early cinema Hollywood B movies museum and gallery installations virtual reality experiments and experimental web based works
Hassapopoulou travels across numerous platforms highlighting a diverse array of strategies that attempt to unsettle the allegedly passive spectatorship of traditional cinema
Through an exploration of these radically inventive approaches to the medium many of which emerged out of sociopolitical crises and periods of historical transition she works to expand notions of interactivity by considering it in both technological and phenomenological terms
Deliberately revising and expanding Eurocentric scholarship to propose a much broader transnational scope the book emphasizes the ethical dimensions of interactive media and their links to larger considerations around community building citizenship and democracy
By combining cutting edge theory with updated conventional film studies methodologies
Interactive Cinema presses at the conceptual limits of cinema and offers an essential road map to the rapidly evolving landscape of contemporary media

Early Bird Special Bud Simpson, 2005-10
Forsyth sat on the step of the parking lot office reading the Monday morning newspaper
The same little tombstone notice had appeared in the paper three times now just like clockwork
He wasn't given to reading the paper's legal notices but a news clipping containing a foreclosure notice on the lot had been mailed to Harry by Fidelity Union Bank a few weeks earlier and he'd opened it by mistake
Since then he'd located it in the paper and read it for himself every week He was fascinated to see his brother s name in the paper amidst all that legal jargon It wasn t often that anything about his family was worthy of print The last time was his father s obituary It seemed that the occasions were always sad ones But then so was just about everything else in the newspaper According to the notice an auction of the lot would take place on the steps of the county courthouse a week from Tuesday at nine thirty The public was invited to attend and submit bids He could go He was a member As a matter of fact the public was the only group he belonged to
