Faiths on Display Tim Oakes, Donald S. Sutton, 2010-10-16 By providing a unique perspective on China's changing relationship with religion this groundbreaking book explores the role the Chinese state continues to play in religious revival today Over the past several decades China has experienced a rapid expansion of religious spaces and activities More recently a growing middle class urban society has fueled an upsurge in Chinese domestic tourism Faiths on Display challenges the common separation of religious and tourist activities showing how these practices overlap and blend together A group of leading scholars explores the unlikely interaction between these exuberant phenomena finding a surprisingly clear lens through which to view a rapidly transforming society Even the most casual observer is struck by the Chinese rediscovery of traditional culture particularly at revived religious festivals and pilgrimages in suburbs rural areas and at China's margins where religious practices of ethnic minorities attract particular tourist attention A set of fascinating case studies shows how state organizations are helping revive sacred spaces as exploitable sites for tourism development and revenue generation While this may appear to be a straightforward collision of Chinese tradition with modernization the contributors argue that the results of combining religion and tourism offer important insights not only into the practice of religion and the rise of leisure culture in contemporary China but also into the changing and contested nature of state governance The policies of an authoritarian modernizing state obviously influence both religion and tourism but religious practices the book clearly illustrates tend to slip out of state control and tourist tastes push development into directions not anticipated or welcomed by the state Contributions by Kenneth Dean Brian R Dott Xiaofei Kang Charlene Makley Susan K McCarthy Charles F McKhann Tim Oakes Yu Luo Rioux Donald S Sutton Marina Svensson and Rubie Watson     How Wars End Dan Reiter,2009-08-17 Why do some countries choose to end wars short of total victory while others fight on sometimes in the face of appalling odds How Wars End argues that two central factors shape war termination decision making information about the balance of power and the resolve of one s enemy and fears that the other side s commitment to abide by a war ending peace settlement may not be credible Dan Reiter explains how information about combat outcomes and other factors may persuade a warring nation to demand more or less in peace negotiations and why a country might refuse to negotiate limited terms and instead tenaciously pursue absolute victory if it fears that its enemy might renege on a peace deal He fully lays out the theory and then tests it on more than twenty cases of war termination behavior including decisions during the American Civil War the two world wars and the Korean War Reiter helps solve some of the most enduring puzzles in military history such as why Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation why Germany in 1918 renewed its attack in the West after securing peace with Russia in the East and why Britain refused to seek peace terms with Germany after France fell in 1940 How Wars End concludes with a timely discussion of twentieth century American foreign policy framing the Bush Doctrine s emphasis on preventive war in the context of the theory     Educational Film/video Locator of the Consortium of University Film Centers and R.R. Union List of Serials of the California State University California State University,1991 The Gladiators vs. Spartacus, Volume 1 Henry MacAdam,Duncan Cooper,2020-11-13 Using previously unpublished correspondence and personal journal entries from screenwriter Abraham Polonsky neglected notices in Variety and other Hollywood trade publications and a wide range of published sources this narrative backstory of rival movie productions of The Gladiators vs Spartacus documents that intense competition with greater precision and clarity than any other existing account The key role that this little known chapter of Hollywood s blacklist history played in connection with Dalton Trumbo s successful effort to win screen credit for Spartacus is now for the first time available to film historians and lay readers A companion study Volume 2 is devoted to Abraham Polonsky s rediscovered screenplay The Global Work of Art Caroline A. Jones,2017-06-01 Global biennials have proliferated in the contemporary art world but artists engagement with large scale international exhibitions has a much longer history that has influenced the present in important ways Going back to the earliest world s fairs in the nineteenth century this book argues that globalism was incubated in a century of international art contests and today constitutes an important tactic for artists As world s fairs brought millions of attendees into contact with foreign cultures products and processes artworks became juxtaposed in a theater of nations which challenged artists and critics to think outside their local academies From Gustave Courbet s rebel pavilion near the official art exhibit at the 1855 French World s Fair to curator Beryl Madra s choice of London based Cypriot Hussein Chalayan for the off site Turkish pavilion at the 2006 Venice Biennale artists have used these exhibitions to reflect on contemporary art speak to their own governments back home and challenge the wider geopolitical realm changing art and art history along the way Ultimately Caroline A Jones argues the modern appetite for experience and event structures which were cultivated around the art at these earlier expositions have now come to constitute contemporary art itself producing encounters that transform the public and force us to reflect critically on the global condition Film Clowns of the Depression Wes D. Gehring, 2014-11-21 The 1930s are routinely considered sound film's greatest comedy era Though this golden age encompassed various genres of laughter clown comedy is the most basic type This work examines the Depression decade's most popular type of comedy the clown or personality comedian Focusing upon the Depression era the study filters its analysis through twelve memorable pictures Each merits an individual chapter in which it is critiqued The films are deemed microcosmic representatives of the comic world and discussed in this context While some of the comedians in this text have generated a great deal of previous analysis funny men like Joe E Brown and Eddie Cantor are all but forgotten Nevertheless they were comedy legends in their time and their legacy as showcased in these movies merits rediscovery by today's connoisseur of comedy Even this book's more familiar figures such as Charlie Chaplin and the Marx Brothers are often simply relegated to being recognizable pop culture icons whose work has been neglected in recent years This book attempts to address these oversights and to re-expose the brilliance and ingenuity with which the screen clowns contributed a comic resiliency that was desperately needed during the Depression and can still be greatly appreciated today The films discussed are City Lights 1931 Chaplin The Kid From Spain 1932 Cantor She Done Him Wrong 1933 Mae West Duck Soup 1933 Marx Brothers Sons of the Desert 1933 Laurel and Hardy Judge Priest 1934 Will Rogers It's a Gift 1934 W C Fields Alibi 1935 Brown A Night at the Opera 1935 Marx Brothers Modern Times 1936 Chaplin Way Out West 1937 Laurel and Hardy The Cat and the Canary 1939 Bob Hope

The Films of Delmer Daves Douglas Horlock, 2022-03-25 Delmer Daves 1904-1977 was an American screenwriter director and producer known for his dramas and Western adventures most notably Broken Arrow and 3:10 to Yuma Despite the popularity of his films there has been little serious examination of Daves's work Filmmaker Bertrand Tavernier has called Daves the most forgotten of American directors and to date no scholarly monograph has focused on his work In The Films of Delmer Daves: Visions of Progress in Mid Twentieth Century America author Douglas Horlock contends that the director's work warrants sustained scholarly attention Examining all of Daves's films as well as his screenplays scripts that were not filmed and personal papers Horlock argues that Daves was a serious distinctive and enlightened filmmaker whose work confronts the general conservatism of Hollywood in the mid twentieth century Horlock considers Daves's films through the lenses of political and social values race and civil rights and gender and sexuality Ultimately Horlock suggests that Daves's work through its examination of bigotry and irrational fear and depiction of institutional and personal morality and freedom presents a consistent innovative and progressive vision of America
