Companies engaged in FDI or financial services will appreciate the detailed analysis of issues raised by this new EU policy instrument. Practitioners active in competition law, particularly M A, will welcome this clear commentary and analysis of a crucial component of EU policy in the related areas of trade and investment and policymakers will be encouraged to consider whether further regulatory changes are called for.

Access to Primary Care and Preventative Health Services of Migrants Aldo Rosano, 2018-05-02. This salient volume surveys the state of access to primary care and preventive health services by migrants, refugees and asylum seekers across Europe. Experts in public health and allied fields identify obstacles to healthcare interventions for migrants, including costs, legal status, health-related behaviors and beliefs, and cultural and language barriers. The book includes the latest data concerning access to specific preventive services, e.g. vaccinations, colorectal screenings, specific issues of women and sexual minorities, and the potential for health promotion in prevention. Best practices for improving access are outlined as a basis for public health and policy directives toward reducing health disparities between migrant and native populations. Among the topics covered: Access to medical examination for prevention among migrants; Access and barriers to infant vaccinations, female cancer screening and colorectal screening among migrant populations; Provision and policy gap between the primary and preventive care required by and the care provided to LGBTQ migrants, refugees and asylum seekers; Health-related lifestyles and intermediate health conditions of migrants; Quality of primary healthcare and preventive health services provided to migrants; Adaptations of primary health care for migrants; Access to primary health care and policies on migration and health at a time of economic crisis. Dedicated to bridging research and policy gaps in this vital area, Primary Care Access and Preventative Health Services of Migrants is intended for an international audience of academics, researchers, policymakers and practitioners in public health and related disciplines.

Europe's Strategic Future Sarah Raine, 2019-08-08. Europe has suffered a decade of crises with sovereign debt troubles leading to austerity policies that exacerbated divisions inside member states and between them. Thereafter, the Union was confronted with the challenges posed by a revanchist Russia in Ukraine and by a surge in migration from the Middle East and other conflict zones. The June 2016 UK vote to leave the Union threatened further damage to an institution that acknowledges it has failed to punch its weight in the spheres of foreign defence and security policy. While that is a chronic shortcoming, its impact is becoming more acute as economic power moves East and Europe can no longer count on the steadfast support and leadership of the United States. The costs of Europe's failure to achieve strategic coherence and effect are steadily rising. This Adelphi book addresses the consequences of Europe's multiple crises for its standing as a strategic actor acknowledging its unique character and capabilities It argues that strategic thought and action is belatedly being informed by the deteriorating security environment and that nascent initiatives have the potential to effect a step change There are grounds for cautious optimism visible in the success of stabilisation and counter piracy operations as well as coordinated diplomatic activity Also the continent's leading powers are becoming more pragmatic about how cooperation is organised within and beyond the Union These developments offer the possibility that Europe might meet its aspirations to be a strategic actor of consequence despite a long track record of disappointment and the still considerable obstacles that lie in its path

Public Policy and the New European Agendas Fergus Carr,Andrew Massey,2006-01-01 This broad and all encompassing study focuses on Europe's new policy agendas It brings together international academic experts on a range of policies to discuss Europe's place in the world and its relationship to the USA and beyond. This book concentrates on two key themes of particular salience for policy makers: the enlargement of the EU and the place of Europe in international politics. An expansive list of important policy areas within these themes is explored, including enlargement, political and constitutional implications, and international socialization of central and eastern Europe. Europe and the USA: security and defence, policy, trade, finance and development, institutional development and external relations in justice and home affairs before and after September 11, international terrorism, EU immigration and asylum and borders, policy, human rights and civil rights, agriculture, environmental policy and regional policy, pensions and ageing in Europe. This book constitutes a major contribution to achieving a deeper understanding of European integration and the barriers to integration within the context of global and multi-level governance. As such, it will be of enormous interest to an extensive audience including academics, researchers, students, policy makers and practitioners in the fields of political studies, international relations, public policy, European studies, US studies and security studies.

Beyond the Subtitle Mark Betz, 2009. Examining European art films of the 1950s and 1960s. Mark Betz argues that it is time for film analysis to move beyond prevailing New Wave historiography mired in outdated notions of nationalism and dragged down by decades of auteurist criticism. Focusing on the cinemas of France and Italy, Betz reveals how the flowering of European art films in the postwar era is inseparable from the complex historical and political frameworks of the time.
