Mr. Deeds Goes to Yankee Stadium Wes D. Gehring,2010-07-27 Celebrated film director Frank Capra was a central architect of the feel good movie genre now known as populism which celebrates people families second chances and other traditional American icons such as small town or pastoral life and baseball Capra developed his own brand of populism by interweaving traditional values of the genre with a younger more vulnerable hero starting with Mr Deeds Goes to Town in 1936 The result Capraesque populism has had a significant influence on American pop culture in general and forms a small but important subgenre of baseball movie This book examines eight of these Capraesque baseball films starting with the all important Pride

Wasserman,2021-07-22 The eureka moment is a myth

It is an altogether naive and fanciful account of human progress. Innovations emerge from a much less mysterious combination of historical circumstantial and accidental influences. This book explores the origin and evolution of several important behavioral innovations including the high five, the Heimlich maneuver, the butterfly stroke, the moonwalk, and the Iowa caucus. Such creations, striking suitability to the situation and the moment, appear ingeniously designed with foresight. However, more often than not, they actually arise as if by design. Based on investigations into the histories of a wide range of innovations, Edward A. Wasserman reveals the nature of behavioral creativity. What surfaces is a fascinating web of causation involving three main factors: context, consequence, and coincidence. Focusing on the process rather than the product of innovation elevates behavior to the very center of the creative human endeavor. Screenwriting Lew Hunter, 1994. The author conveys his knowledge of screenwriting in a straightforward fashion and answers the important questions which have to be considered at each stage of the process: this may be found and the essential qualities which must be present. Fascinating tricks of the trade which are applied instinctively by the professionals, such as vertical and linear stories, believable unbelievable fourth walls, and flashbacks, red herrings, time locks, and telescoping of time, are revealed in order that the reader too can learn to utilize them to give their work a professional feel. The author also covers such aspects as the building of characters, basic dos and don'ts, dialogue discipline, timing, rewriting, polishing, ties, and more. New York Magazine, 1989-09-04.
