Scripture In The Jewish And Christian Traditions Authority Interpretation Relevance:

Scripture in the Jewish and Christian Traditions Frederick E. Greenspahn, 1982 Richard P. McBrien Ancient Scripture in the modern world Krister Stendahl Martyrdom from Exegesis in Hippolytus W. Brian Shelton, 2008-12-01 In the third century CE Emperor Septimius Severus unleashed a shocking and severe persecution against the Christian church. Witnessing the fear and confusion in his congregations, the presbyter Hippolytus crafted his Commentary on Daniel to encourage Christians confronted with the reality of martyrdom and persecution. In a work which comes to us as the earliest orthodox Christian commentary on scripture, Hippolytus interprets the text through allegory, typology, theodicy, paraenesis, and reflection to create a motif of martyrdom. By doing so, Hippolytus guides Christians in their communities as they stand heroically before the tribunal of Caesar, like the Danielic characters stood before authorities in Babylon. His purpose in the commentary is clearly pastoral, arising from his role as presbyter to exhort his Christian congregations to prepare to be martyred for Christ amidst Roman persecution. John Calvin's Exegesis of the Old Testament David L. Puckett, 1995-01-01 For anyone who wishes to understand the historical tensions that existed in Calvin's time with regard to the interpretation of scripture, this book will be of great value. For those who wish to understand Calvin's actual method of exegetical reasoning, a largely unmined source of information that reveals what he most valued as an exegete, this book will be invaluable. Revelation and Mystery in Ancient Judaism and Pauline Christianity Markus Bockmuehl, 2009-10-01 The theme of revealed heavenly mysteries was a commonplace in Judaism from which it passed on to Christianity. Markus Bockmuehl outlines how this theme developed by showing where ideas of revelation and mystery coalesce. An interesting and very thorough study. Journal of Biblical Literature. A thoughtful and illuminating study of a subject which, rather surprisingly in the light of its centrality to the question of Christian origins, has not hitherto been investigated in detail. Whereas both revelation and mystery have been studied separately in the context of early Jewish and Christian literature, Bockmuehl's original contribution is to examine the interconnectedness of the two ideas. Journal of Jewish Studies. This book is an excellent contribution to biblical scholarship. It synthesizes the light that a biblically based mystery sheds on revelation and revelation sheds on mystery. Bockmuehl treats admirably many difficult passages and scholarly disputes. He develops the progress of biblical understanding regarding revelation and mystery carefully, balancing analysis with synthesis, a talent that is somewhat rare of late. Journal of Ecumenical Studies. A most useful study. Bockmuehl has brought together material from an enormously wide range of primary and secondary literature for which we are greatly in his debt. Journal of Theological Studies. For single authors like Philo, Josephus, and especially Paul, Bockmuehl's studies significantly add to the discussion. Religious Studies Review. Bockmuehl examines the concepts of revelation and mystery not as distinct entities but in their theological interplay: the revelation of heavenly mysteries. This book's breadth and depth will repay the attentive reader. Journal for the Study of the New Testament. Krister Among the Jews and Gentiles Fredriksen, Paula, Svartvik, Jesper, 2018 Essays on Krister

Stendahl's contributions in various arenas institutional formation both of university and of church interreligious dialogue and relations biblical and historical research Scholars Reading Romans 1 with Daniel Patte James P.

Grimshaw, 2022-08-25 A creative collection of essays that introduces critiques and dialogues with Daniel Patte's groundbreaking work Romans Three Exegetical Interpretations and the History of Reception Volume 1 Romans 1 1-32 T T Clark 2018 Nine scholars from different cultural and methodological perspectives engage with Patte's work critique his methodology and ethic of interpretation and develop alternative readings The first part introduces the format of Patte's book and the three historical interpretations forensic covenantal and realized apocalyptic Part two debates methodology and ethical responsibility The third part focuses on Romans 1 16-18 and 1-26-27 and includes a Confucian Chinese reading and a call for joint biblical and social science research on the role of Romans in current public policy debates The final part includes a chapter on pedagogy regarding how Patte's book can be used in the classroom The final chapter is a powerful description by Patte himself of the various life experiences that shaped his reading of Romans This book is a critical and communal conversation with Patte on the history of reception of Romans 1 and an example of the necessity of conversations among diverse interpreters that as Patte says reflect the diversity of the modes of our human experience Problems in Biblical Theology Henry T. C. Sun, Keith L. Eades, 2011-06-07 Trained in the German tradition Rolf Knierim is a scholar who has made many significant contributions to the ongoing discussion of form criticism tradition history and theology He is also a passionate and charismatic teacher and a widely respected author and editor who has served the scholarly world most visibly in his role as coeditor of the Forms of the Old Testament Literature commentary series Problems in Biblical Theology is an erudite collection of twenty-four essays produced to honor Knierim's contribution to the study of biblical theology It also stands in its own right as a vade mecum of current trends in biblical scholarship Written by an international array of respected scholars Knierim's colleagues former students and fellow commentators this volume includes detailed exegetical studies discussions of theological methods and approaches from a variety of standpoints and efforts at relating Old Testament exegesis theology and hermeneutics to current interests in social scientific methods of interpretation or postmodern thought In all the breadth of interests found in this volume reflects the intellectual vitality and passion that Knierim himself has brought to the discipline A biographical narrative written by Hildegard Knierim and a foreword by James M Robinson provide additional insight into the historical and social contexts within which Knierim's work has unfolded

The Prophetic Law Sandor Goodhart, 2014-01-01 To read literature is to read the way literature reads Ren Girard's immense body of work supports this thesis bountifully Whether engaging the European novel ancient Greek tragedy Shakespeare's plays or Jewish and Christian scripture Girard teaches us to read prophetically not by offering a method he has developed but by presenting the methodologies they have developed the interpretative readings already available within and constitutive of such bodies of classical writing In The Prophetic Law literary scholar theorist and critic Sandor Goodhart divides his essays on Ren Girard since 1983 into four groupings In three he addresses Girardian concerns with Biblical scripture Genesis and Exodus literature the European novel and Shakespeare and philosophy and religious studies issues especially ethical and Jewish subject matters In a fourth section he reproduces some of the polemical exchanges in which he has participated with others including Ren Girard himself as part of what could justly be deemed Jewish Christian dialogue The twelve texts that make up the heart of this captivating volume constitute the bulk of the author s writings to date on Girard outside of his three previous books on Girardian topics Taken together they offer a comprehensive engagement with Girard s sharpest and most original literary anthropological and scriptural insights Feminist Introduction to Paul

Sandra Hack Polaski,2005 Sandra Hack Polaski introduces readers to the letters and world of Paul encouraging a critical appreciation of Paul and his writings that does not require a choice between commitment to the scriptures and integrity as a modern feminist In conversation with the leading interpreters of Paul and considering possible responses to Paul conformist resistant rejectionist and transformational Polaski forges her own theory of how to interpret Paul She reads emphasizes and reinterprets overlooked neglected misintegrated or differently interpreted Pauline texts making visible the invisible and challenging the accepted readings Polaski uncovers both the ideologies behind the text and the ideologies the text seeks to suppress She traces the trajectories toward which the texts point even if Paul did not fully follow the trajectories to their logical end Such a program leads Polaski to find God s New Creation as the operative center of Pauline thought

Techniques and Assumptions in Jewish Exegesis Before 70 CE David Instone Brewer,1992 Dancing Girls, Loose Ladies, and Women of the Cloth F. Scott Spencer,2004-09-14 The women in Jesus life are a raucous and rowdy bunch including riotous foremothers loose women and distressed daughters of Israel Reading these new ways of interpreting women in the Gospels male New Testament scholars have discovered liberating perspectives In seven scintillating studies Spencer explores among others the genealogy of Matthew s Gospel to discover the riotous yet righteous nature of Jesus foremothers slave girls and prophetic daughters in Luke Acts and women leading men in the Gospel of Mark 5 7 Scott Spencer a virtuoso young New Testament scholar provides his own lively forays into reading the Gospels through women s eyes He shows what it is like for a man to read stories about the women in Jesus life from a new perspective Spencer is an able and inventive scholar whose broad ranging insights and engaging style make his work very accessible When

Judaism and Christianity Began. Vol. 2 Alan Avery-Peck,Daniel Harrington,Jacob Neusner,2022-12-05 In these volumes top scholars in the study of religion celebrate the enduring heritage in learning bequeathed to coming generations by Anthony J Saldarini 1941 2001 Twenty nine commemorative essays focus on the topical areas of formative Christianity and Judaism to which Dr Saldarini devoted his efforts earliest Christianity with special attention to the Gospels Judaism in late antiquity and the interchange between Judaism and Christianity then and now So too the disciplines represented in these pages match his history including archaeology literature religion and theology Recognizing the standards of learning set by Dr Saldarini in all of these areas the colleagues represented in these volumes memorialize him by following in the model he set of meeting the highest standards of the diverse fields that intersect in the study of Judaic and Christian antiquity The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004136595 A Cosmic Leap of Faith Vincent A. Pizzuto,2006

Among the array of christologies embodied within New Testament literature the so called hymn of Colossians 1 15 20 offers a unique and invaluable contribution to contemporary theological and inter religious discourse This is because it conveys what is arguably the highest christological affirmation within the canon Pizzuto contends that the hymn is a creative and faith filled composition by the same deutero Pauline author of the Colossians epistle itself and demonstrates that there is an inextricable relationship between the chiastic structure of Col 1 15 20 and a proper understanding of its provenance authorship and theology Although the hymn echoes theological motifs consistent with Second Temple Judaism and loosely reflects a number of syncretistic influences it is fundamentally the novelty of the Christ event the historical impact of Jesus of Nazareth that has been most influential in determining the christological categories of Col 1 15 20 and its larger epistolary framework Pizzuto thus defends the overall integrity of the hymn against those who would assert that it reflects a pre Christian or pre Colossians origin He concludes that Col 1 15 20 represents something of a leap beyond Pauline christology into a new and unequivocal conviction of the cosmic implications of the Cross Studying Paul's Letters Joseph A. Marchal,2012-04 Joseph A Marchal leads a group of scholars who are also experienced teachers in courses on Paul More than a series of how to essays in interpretation each chapter in this volume shows how differences in starting point and interpretive decisions shape different ways of understanding Paul Each teacher scholar focuses on what a particular method brings to interpretation and applies that method to a text in Paul s letters aiming not just at the beginning student but at the tough choices every teacher must make in balancing information with critical reflection Teaching in a World of Violent Extremism Eleazar S. Fernandez,2021-05-21 Violent extremism is not new but we have witnessed its rise to the point that it has become a defining issue of our time We cannot brush it aside any longer it characterizes who we are as a people and as a global society Why is violent extremism rising What are its drivers and triggers These questions must be asked and answered first and Teaching in a World of Violent Extremism takes up the questions and the answers In an effort to end violent extremism the next questions that must be pursued are these How shall we prevent and undo extremism especially the militant and violent kind In this world of violent extremism what curriculum designs educational programs and pedagogies shall we employ to develop competent citizens civic leaders and pastors as well as resilient communities The Routledge Companion to the Practice of Christian Theology Mike Higton,Jim Fodor,2015-03-24 This Companion introduces readers to the practice of Christian theology covering what theologians do why they do it and what steps readers can take in order to become theological practitioners themselves The volume aims to capture the variety of practices involved in doing theology highlighting the virtues that guide them and the responsibilities that shape them It also shows that the description of these practices virtues and responsibilities is itself theological what Christian theologians do is shaped by the wider practices and beliefs of Christianity Written by a team of leading theologians the Companion provides a unique resource for students and scholars of theology alike A Master Class on Being Human Anthony Pinn,Brad Braxton,2023-07-25 A conversation between 2 eminent Black thinkers on how to work together to make the world a better place despite deep religious differences Brad Braxton and Anthony Pinn represent two traditions Christianity and Secular Humanism respectively that have for centuries existed in bitter opposition For too long people with different worldviews have disparaged and harmed one another Instead of fighting each other Braxton and Pinn talk with listen to and learn from one another Their wide ranging conversation demonstrates the possibility of fruitful exchange that accounts for rather than masks their differences Written amid the Covid 19 pandemic threats to our democracy and national protests for racial justice A Master Class on Being Human shows us that constructive dialogue can help us pursue the common good without sacrificing our distinctive identities In conversations that are frank personal and deeply informed by scholarship Braxton and Pinn discuss topics that are urgent and immediate such as the ongoing violence against Black communities the rise of religiously unaffiliated communities the Black Lives Matter movement They also ponder those broader philosophical and theological questions that inform our politics and sense of what it means to be human the meaning of religion the stubborn dilemma of moral evil the power and problems of hope Braxton and Pinn invite us to join them in a master class as they strive to create a world where differences are not tolerated but instead celebrated In that kind of courageous classroom all can learn how to be better people who in turn transform the world into a better place An Ethos of Compassion and the Integrity of Creation Brian J.
