Jesus Imandars and Christ Bhaktas Jonas Adelin Jørgensen,2008 The massive changes of Christianity during the 20th century raise the perennial question about its identity in a new radical form The author addresses the question of identity and asks how globalisation religious pluralism and the polycentric nature of Christianity affect Christian self identification and theological reflection First religious life and theological reflection among believers in Jesus from Muslim and Hindu background in South Asia is presented in two empirical studies Secondly the findings are analysed and interpreted within a broad theoretical framework drawing on models for syncretistic processes from history of religions cultural anthropology and Christian theology Finally the study concludes with a systematic theological perspective on the interreligious hermeneutics underlying the changes of Christianity and discusses how interreligious hermeneutics might inform missiology as well as Christian theologies of religions and how this might challenge our understanding of the church's nature and mission In conclusion it is argued that a global polycentric Christianity can be interpreted as fellowship created by the Spirit and centred on Christ NIV, The MacArthur Study Bible Thomas Nelson,2013-10-01 John MacArthur is considered one of the

Liturgy and Sacrament, Mystagogy and Martyrdom Jeffrey L. Morrow, 2020-10-13 For far too long the Bible has been studied as just one among many historical and cultural documents from ancient history That it is a foundational text for Western civilization is clear What is too often forgotten or ignored in academic discussions however is that the Bible has also inspired the lives of countless saints throughout history men and women who sought to love God and love neighbor to the point of offering heroic sacrifices sometimes giving up their very lives Much of biblical scholarship over the past two centuries however has reduced the Bible to a dead historical document with little to no relevance for today beyond intellectual curiosity This in part lies at the root of the tragic separation of theology from biblical studies That theology and biblical exegesis are at an impasse has become a commonplace in academic discourse Liturgy and Sacrament Mystagogy and Martyrdom is an attempt to bridge the gap between theology and exegesis It seeks to develop a theological interpretation of Scripture relying upon the best of traditional Christian exegesis and modern biblical scholarship so that the Bible can serve once again as the wellspring of Christian life
