Mullen,2012-05-07 Beatty's Cabin Elliott S. Barker,2011-04 Beatty s Cabin journeys back to an amazing time when the Pecos high country of northern New Mexico was still wild and free George Beatty an old time prospector built his two room log cabin on a grassy flat beside the upper Pecos River an area Elliott Barker grew to love Beatty s cabin is the pivotal axis for Barker s thrilling memoir of his experiences and rugged adventures many happy a few tragic He gets his first inspiring glimpse of the remote Pecos high country on the very same adventuresome trip when he first explores Beatty s old cabin and prospect holes With the babble of the upper Pecos water and the whispers of the mountain breezes among the spruces he begins chronicling his adventures starting with his first wilderness pack trip in 1896 at the age of ten and continuing with the awe inspiring glimpses of mountain meadows and rugged peaks Elliott relates tales of grizzly bear hunts capturing outlaws and a perilous winter rescue of a bunch of snow trapped horses among others The historical development of the Santa Fe National Forest and the Pecos Wilderness area so dear to Barker s heart form the foundation for this unprecedented memoir of the beauty and the glory of wild New Mexico Fighting with French : A Tale of the New Army Herbert Strang , Fighting with French A Tale of the New Army At six o clock next morning sergeant majors and corporals went round the hall stirring up the sleepers There were groans and grumbles but the men turned out and there was a general dash for the washing basins one among twenty men and a free fight for the razors Our two friends had brought their own safeties and pocket mirrors and when they had finished operating upon their downy cheeks there was a competition among their new messmates for the loan of those indispensable articles Your bristles will ruin a blade in no time Ginger said Harry as he handed over the razor somewhat ruefully Perseverance that s all you want replied Ginger through the lather Yours ll be as hard as mine in time At half past six each man seized a mug and rushed off to the cook house across the yard for cocoa They sat about the hall swilling the morning beverage grumbling at the blankets asking one another who d be a soldier then they rubbed up their boots and made their beds and were ready for the seven o'clock parade. Dressed only in their shirts and slacks, they formed up in the drill hall. There was a good deal of disorder and the NCOs in early morning temper roared above the din. It happened that Dick Kennedy was orderly officer for the week. When the men were at last ranged in ranks, dressed and numbered by the sergeants, he posted himself in front and with a nervous twitching of the lips said gently, "Battalion, shun. Louder, louder," whispered a fellow officer who had come up behind him. "This isn't a mother's meeting." The second lieutenant tried again. "Battalion, shun. Advance in fours from the right. Form fours." Some of the men knew what to do, but many of the new recruits looked about them blankly. "You don't know the movements," said the lieutenant. "Well, when I say 'form fours,' even numbers take one pace to the left with the left foot and one pace to the right with the right. Now, 'form fours.' The result was disorder, jostling in the ranks, cries of "Who're you a shoving of?" "Sorry, my mistake," said Kennedy with a smile. "We'll try again. I should have said 'one pace to the rear with the left foot.' Now, then, 'form fours.' His cheerfulness won the men's sympathy, and the order, being now correctly carried out, one or two of them cheered. Silence in the ranks roared. Kennedy, "Right. Quick march," and the battalion marched off. The day's work began with a run for three quarters of an hour to the bank of a river some two miles away. A run so called for it consisted of slow and quick march and doubling in turn. At eight o'clock they were back in the hall for breakfast: tea, bread and bacon, sausage or cheese. The provisions were good; the men had healthy appetites, and at 9:15, when the battalion orders of the day were read, they were contented and cheerful.
