Creative Bible Teaching Lawrence O. Richards,Gary J. Bredfeldt,2020-08-04 Bring the Bible to Your Students like Never Before Communicating the Scriptures is much like building a bridge However instead of ravines or rivers the teacher must span both cultural boundaries and great gulfs of time between the present and the pasts of Moses David Jesus and Paul Though God s Word is always relevant the teacher must help students see Scripture s vast treasures The effective engaging Bible teacher must therefore become creative Together Lawrence Richards and Gary Bredfeldt have created the ultimate guide to building bridges for those seeking to learn about God s Word Creative Bible Teaching offers a five step process by which Christian educators can construct a bridge across time geography and culture to help students of all ages connect with God s Word This newly revised edition makes learning about God s Word more accessible for both teachers and students today Simple clear and memorable the method laid out in Creative Bible Teaching provides a sure fire way of communicating God s Word in a way that sticks

Formational Children's Ministry (ēmerſion: Emergent Village resources for communities of faith) Ivy Beckwith,2010-01-01 Much ministry to children looks more like mere entertainment than authentic spiritual formation But what if children s ministries were rooted in a mind set whereby we taught children with our words and actions how the story of God the story of church history the story of the local community and the story of the child intersect and speak to one another What if children s ministry was less about downloading information into kids heads and more about leading them into these powerful compelling stories Beckwith aims to help ministers and parents create a ministry that captures children s imaginations not just to keep them occupied but to live as citizens of the kingdom of God In addition to providing theological reasons for formational children s ministry the book offers examples of how Ivy and other practitioners are implementing a formational model
