All My Love, Mary Deborah Stathes, 2022-03-14 Swansea South Wales was largely destroyed during the bombings of World War II But life went on as the city filled with British Canadian and then American soldiers Dances were held at Mumbles Pier and the Brangwyn Hall Friendships and romances began and ended The letters written by Mary to her American soldier give the reader a glimpse into the life of a young woman in love with a stranger during wartime Although intended only for her soldier through her letters we get to know a family with sons away at war and children still in school We learn of engagements and weddings We're treated to delicious neighborhood gossip We learn of relatives and friends who come and go to the house in Manselton Road Mary also shares the songs she loves and the films she sees with her friends and her mother And of course we are witnesses to the love affair between Mary and her soldier a relationship challenged not only by war These letters express the intimate hopes of a young woman and the enduring life of a city Through these letters we are able to appreciate a generation of young people establishing relationships and their own identities in a time of war

Mac Virginia Freytag MacGeorge, 2012-08-20 To tell this story I have to start somewhere These letters and there are almost 300 of them have been in three boxes all tied together with a double wrap of cord They have been tied up in those boxes for over fifty years a few of the early letters are fifty nine years old One box was a four pound heart shaped Fanny Farmer candy box One of the white gift shirt boxes contained a white satin night gown a blue print rayon dress which I had made and a small knitted very dainty looking blue baby sweater which I also had made Once I tied them together I never looked at them again until now and I really regret that I did not do it sooner There are so many questions I would ask but now it is too late
