Low-Cost Approaches to Promote Physical and Mental Health Luciano

L'Abate,2007-06-06 Most physical and mental health professionals will agree that their time space and funds are generally in short supply even under optimal conditions Their participants clients or patients too will admit to similar deficits of time and patience even with optimal motivation Overburdened mental health facilities are trying to cope with limited budgets and overworked and underpaid personnel Low Cost Approaches to Promote Physical and Mental Health addresses both sides of this shortfall by offering either self administered or easily administered verbal and non verbal interventions designed to promote positive health behaviors while requiring little or no outside funding Editor Luciano L Abate continues his long tradition of prolific innovations by identifying major changes in today s health care systems and explaining how targeted prescriptive promotion prevention strategies can enhance traditional primary secondary and tertiary interventions in key behavioral and relational areas Nutrition weight obesity control diets meal planning vitamins and minerals herbal supplements Exercise expressive movement relaxation meditation and mindfulness Writing for mental health promotion from structured protocols workbooks to less structured focused expressive and guided writing including diaries and autobiographies Sex sexuality affection intimacy and fear of intimacy Mother child bonding as well as couple and family togetherness Spirituality and forgiveness in dealing with inevitable life hurts and disappointments Friendships and support groups Plus leading edge interventions including emotional intelligence animal companionship and computer technology Reviews of each promotional approach are engaging effective and consistent with standard psychological practice for lasting results either away from or in addition to non clinical and clinical settings schools hospitals seniorcitizen centers etc L Abate and his fifty colleagues have designed a future oriented sourcebook for mental and public health professionals who want to maximize their resources and those of their participants

The Scene of Harlem Cabaret Shane Vogel,2009-04 Harlem s nightclubs in the 1920s and 30s were a crucible for testing society s racial and sexual limits Combining performance theory historical research and biographical study this title explores the role of nightlife performance as a definitive touchstone for understanding the racial and sexual politics of the early 20th century Using Visual Evidence Howells, Richard,Matson, Robert,2009-05-01 This is a book about visual literacy It both advocates and equips the scholarly use of visual images as visual evidence The visual is not mere illustration it is the text Enabling a rediscovery of the visual skills of the past facilitates the investigation of history and the understanding of the present Chapters by international authorities have been specially commissioned on the use of visual evidence from painting to political prints photographs documentary feature films television news and advertising

Escaping the Racism of Low Expectations Barbara from Harlem,2018-05-15 I was a liberal by default I asked no questions I had no answers I just pulled the lever to vote for Democrats as was expected of me Most of my fellow Black Americans do not fully understand what the term liberal means or who or what they are voting for And in turn they don t realize how harmful those liberal policies are to our freedoms and liberties as Americans I was born into a culture that believes Black equals Democrat A broken home failed marriage and a feeling of victimization fueled my need for inclusion which the Democratic Party fulfilled As an activist and member of the NAACP and Democratic Clubs in Harlem the men I looked up to the Rev Jesse Jackson whom I also campaigned for Congressman Charlie Rangel and Rev Al Sharpton reinforced the negative perceptions that shaped my world But just like false prophets the false narrative that has been spoon fed to us by Black leaders the Black community the media and progressive politicians has enslaved Blacks in a victimhood mentality and entitlement mindset But my eyes were opened to reject victimhood and lack of accountability My journey has proven to me that when you have clarity of conscience love of God and a deep seated belief in America s goodness your life will be enriched and your focus will change to one of accountability The American book circular of Sampson Low, son and & co Low Sampson Marston and co, ltd,1854 When They Go Low, We Go High Philip Collins,2018-07-17 Can a good speech save democracy Anyone interested in the past present and future of speeches and speechwriting will find this a fascinating read The Spectator When First Lady Michelle Obama approached the podium at the 2016 Democratic National Convention nobody could have predicted that her rousing line When they go low we go high would become the motto for the political left and an anthem for opponents of oppression worldwide It was a speech with the kind of emotional pull rarely heard these days joining a long list of addresses that have made history But what was it that made this speech so great When They Go Low We Go High explores the most notable speeches in history analyzing the rhetorical techniques to uncover how the right speech at the right time can profoundly shape the world Traveling across continents and centuries political speechwriter Philip Collins reveals what Thomas Jefferson owes to Cicero and Pericles who really gave the Gettysburg Address and what Elizabeth I shares with Winston Churchill In telling the stories of famous and sometimes infamous speeches including those from Lincoln Woodrow Wilson JFK Martin Luther King Jr Disraeli Hitler Elie Wiesel Margaret Thatcher and Barack and Michelle Obama Collins breathes new life into words you thought you knew well telling the story of democracy Whether it s the inaugural addresses of presidents or the revolutionary writings of Castro Pankhurst and Mandela Collins illuminates and contextualizes these moments with sensitivity and humor When They Go Low We Go High examines the power of public speaking and serves as an urgent reminder that words can change the world Hits on three unassailable truths rhetoric and democracy must go hand in hand democracy for all of its flaws is superior to tyranny and democracy is currently under assault Paste Collins understands intimately the mechanics of rhetoric He believes that we as human beings possess the capacity to extract ourselves from the swamp in which we have sunk The Times Late Medieval Mysticism of the Low Countries Rik Van Nieuwenhove,Rob Faesen,H. Rolfson,2008 When one looks at an icon one has the sense that God is looking back Our whole person is involved What the prayers and music of the Feast convey through the ears the icon conveys visually This book showcases a collection of extraordinarily beautiful icons that introduces readers and art appreciators to the spiritual riches of the Byzantine liturgical tradition The author Father Michael Evdokimov presents an icon for each of the twelve great feasts of the Orthodox Christian liturgical year Preceding each icon is a brief commentary of what the reader can hope to find in the icon including nuances that a casual observer might miss Facing each icon are prayers appropriate for meditating on the icon Quotations from spiritual writers of all ages of Christianity are interspersed in the book In a simple straightforward manner Evdokimov shows how the prayers and the icons used to worship God can nourish the spiritual life Although he sets before his readers beliefs and practices common to Orthodox people everywhere in the world anyone who appreciates beautiful art will find much to savor here Speak Low (When You Speak Love) Kurt Weill, 1997-11-01 Selected letters trace the relationship of the composer and actress who were married for twenty four years

Women's Writing from the Low Countries 1880-2010 Jacqueline Bel, Thomas Vaessens, 2010 This first of its kind anthology offers the English speaking readers a unique chance to become acquainted with the leading Dutch and Flemish women writers since the 1880s Covering a representative range of public and private genres from poetry criticalessays travel literature and political commentary to diaries and journals the fifty six texts are arranged chronologically and are accompagnied by brief introductions chronologies and brief guides to the authors and works An important contribution to our understanding of modern European literary canon and the long march of feminist history and literature Dutch ed Schrijvende vrouwen 978 90 8964 216 5 Fathers and Sons in the English Middle Class, c. 1870-1920 Laura Ugolini, 2021-04-01

This book explores the relationship between middle class fathers and sons in England between c 1870 and 1920 We now know that the conventional image of the middle class paterfamilias of this period as cold and authoritarian is too simplistic but there is still much to be discovered about relationships in middle class families Paying especial attention to gender and masculinities this book focuses on the interactions between fathers and sons exploring how relationships developed and masculine identities were negotiated from infancy and childhood to adulthood and old age Drawing on sources as diverse as autobiographies oral history interviews First World War conscription records and press reports of violent incidents this book questions how fathers and sons negotiated relationships marked by shifting relations of power as well as by different combinations of emotional entanglements obligations and ties It explores changes as fathers and sons grew older and assesses fathers role in trying to mould sons masculine identities characters and lives It reveals negotiation and compromise as well as rebellion and conflict underlining that fathers and sons were important to each other their relationships a significant if often overlooked aspect of middle class men s lives and identities

Low Life - Irreverent Reflections from the Bottom of a Glass Jeffrey Bernard, 2019-11-28 Described as the Tony Hancock of journalism for forty years Bernard wrote only about himself and the failures of his life with women drink doctors horses which have become legendary Low Life is an irresistible collection of the best of Bernard s celebrated autobiographical contributions to The Spectator once described as a suicide note in weekly instalments Previously published in two volumes entitled Low Life A Kind of Autobiography and Reach for the Ground these books are now available in a single volume containing all his derisive reflections on life Antiauthoritarian grumpy charming politically incorrect funny drunk and always mischievous Bernard could usually be found at the Coach and Horses pub on London's Greek street a lit cigarette in his mouth and a drink in hand He was joined by famous friends including Francis Bacon Lucian Freud Graham Green Peter O Toole Ian Fleming and many others and their conversations as well as with whomever was tending bar at the time served as the basis for his writing There were in fact times when he was too drunk to write hence the famous unwell notice that went next to the large hastily sketched cartoon that filled its space in the magazine

Women's Writing from the Low Countries 1200-1875 Lia van Gemert, 2010 This book provides a welcome English translation of a marvelous anthology of women's religious and secular writing stretching from the visions of the late medieval mystics through the prison testaments of sixteenth century Anabaptist martyrs to the pamphleteers and novelists of the growing urban bourgeoisie The translations and introductions demonstrate the ways that women in the Low Countries shaped the intellectual and cultural developments of their eras
