Some folks said who do you think you are to write your Autobiography Nobody will want to read it These folks thought just because I am an unknown person nobody will be interested in reading about my adventures Well I m of a different mind For a lot of people it will be very interesting to read about what they could only dream about having done or doing themselves I have cheated death on a number of occasions at sea and on land I have put down a mutiny The sailing ship I was Master of was declared missing in the North Atlantic for days in a snowstorm but I always brought my passengers and crew and ship back to a safe port I have tried and failed and succeeded in a lot of endeavors in my life but never alone always with a good woman beside me encouraging and praising me Eventually I found not only what I loved to do but what I became very good at and was very proud to do To the reader I want the book to convey this one message follow your dream and make it a reality No matter how difficult the road ahead may seem you will reach your goal and enjoy the rewards at the end The

Literary Communication as Dialogue Roger D. Sell, 2020-11-15 As traced by Roger D Sell literary communication is a process of community making As long as literary authors and those responding to them respect each other s human autonomy literature flourishes as an enjoyable though often challenging mode of interaction that is truly dialogical in spirit This gives rise to author respondent communities whose members represent existential commonalities blended together with historical differences These heterogeneous literary communities have a larger social significance in that they have long served as counterweights to the hegemonic tendencies of modernity and more recently to postmodernity s well intentioned but restrictive politics of identity In post postmodern times their ethos is increasingly one of pleasurable egalitarianism The despondent anti hedonism of the twentieth century intelligentsia can now seem rather dated Some of the papers selected for this volume develop Sell s ideas in mainly theoretical terms But most of them offer detailed criticism of particular anglophone writers ranging from Shakespeare Ben Jonson and other poets and dramatists of the early modern period through Wordsworth and Coleridge to Dickens Pinter and Rushdie

The Art of Life in South Africa Daniel Magaziner, 2016-11-09 From 1952 to 1981 South Africa s apartheid government ran an art school for the training of African art teachers at Indaleni in what is today KwaZulu Natal The Art of Life in South Africa is the story of the students teachers art and politics that circulated through a small school housed in a remote former mission station It is the story of a community that made its way through the travails of white supremacist South Africa and demonstrates how the art students and teachers made together became the art of their lives Daniel Magaziner radically reframes apartheid era South African history Against the dominant narrative of apartheid oppression and black resistance as well as recent scholarship that explores violence criminality and the hopeless entanglements of the apartheid state this book focuses instead on a small group s efforts to fashion more fulfilling lives for its members and their community through the ironic medium of the apartheid era school There is no book like this in South African historiography Lushly illustrated and poetically written it gives us fully formed lives that offer remarkable insights into the now clichéd experience of black life under segregation and apartheid
