Images can be studied in many ways as symbols displays of artistic genius adjuncts to texts or naturally occurring phenomena like reflections and dreams Each of these approaches is justified by the nature of the image in question as well as the way viewers engage with it But images are often something more when they perform in ways that exhibit a capacity to act independent of human will Images come alive they move us to action calm us reveal the power of the divine change the world around us In these instances we need an alternative model for exploring what is at work one that recognizes the presence of images as objects that act on us Building on his previous innovative work in visual and religious studies David Morgan creates a new framework for understanding how the human mind can be enchanted by images in Images at Work In carefully crafted arguments Morgan proposes that images are special kinds of objects fashioned and recognized by human beings for their capacity to engage us From there he demonstrates that enchantment as described is not a violation of cosmic order but a very natural way that the mind animates the world around it His groundbreaking study outlines the deeply embodied process by which humans create culture by endowing places

Ariadne's Thread Shekhinah Mountainwater, 2018-12-06 According to ancient myths the Goddess Ariadne fared poorly But is that simply the story the Ancient Greeks wanted retold in their myths In Ariadne's Thread Shekhinah Mountainwater argues that reclaiming womanhood and seeking spiritual liberation from patriarchal limitations can change the world not by flipping the tables to a hierarchical matriarchy but in working toward a peaceful egalitarian sustainable society that embraces the traditionally feminine values of compassion and nurturing regardless of gender She looks carefully and with wisdom at the old stories and skillfully tugs the loose edges of old paradigms A pioneer of the Goddess feminist movement Mountainwater employs powerful archetypes and a feminist ethic of care to challenge our assumptions and draw us from the mundane into the mysterious in our own lives Considered a classic of women's spirituality and goddess worship Ariadne's Thread offers a magical path of discovery into the mysteries of the Goddess It includes detailed explorations of the Maiden Mother and Crone guiding the cycles of life as well as rituals to affirm our lunar and natural cycles in the world As the Library Journal writes this well written book encourages women to find their own spiritual path Offering her own thread to guide our labyrinth Mountainwater has illuminated a powerful poetic and joyful initiation
