Ravenna Gianfranco Bustacchini, 1984 The Sacred Architecture of Byzantium Nicholas N. Patricios, 2014-04-24 The churches of the Byzantine era were built to represent heaven on earth Architecture art and liturgy were intertwined in them to a degree that has never been replicated elsewhere and the symbolism of this relationship had deep and profound meanings Sacred buildings and their spiritual art underpinned the Eastern liturgical rites which in turn influenced architectural design and the decoration which accompanied it Nicholas N Patricios here offers a comprehensive survey from the age of Constantine to the fall of Constantinople of the nexus between buildings worship and art His identification of seven distinct Byzantine church types based on a close analysis of 370 church building plans will have considerable appeal to Byzantinists lay and scholarly Beyond categorizing and describing the churches themselves which are richly illustrated with photographs plans and diagrams the author interprets the sacred liturgy that took place within these holy buildings tracing the development of the worship in conjunction with architectural advances made up to the 15th century Focusing on buildings located in twenty two different locations this sumptuous book is an essential guide to individual features such as the synthronon templon and ambo and also to the wider significance of Byzantine art and architecture Peter

The Hypogeum of the Aurelii John Bradley, 2019-01-31 This book examines the frescoes of one of the most enigmatic funerary monuments of ancient Rome the three chambers of the Hypogeum of the Aurelii This is the first study in modern times to examine all the extant images in detail

From the Ancient Near East to Christian Byzantium Mario Baghos, 2021-03-11 This book combines concepts from the history of religions with Byzantine studies in its assessments of kings symbols and cities in a diachronic and cross cultural analysis The work attests firstly that the symbolic art and architecture of ancient cities commissioned by their monarchs expressing their relationship with their gods show us that religiosity was inherent to such enterprises It also demonstrates that what transpired from the first cities in history to Byzantine Christendom is the gradual replacement of the pagan ruler cult which was inherent to city building in antiquity with the ruler becoming subordinate to Christ exemplified by representations of the latter as the Master of All Pantokrator Beginning in Mesopotamia the book continues with an analysis of city building by rulers in Egypt Greece and Rome before addressing Judaism specifically the city of Jerusalem and Christianity as shifting the emphasis away from pagan gods and rulers to monotheistic perceptions of God as elevated above worldly kings It concludes with an assessment of Christian Rome and Constantinople as typifying the evolution from the ancient and classical world to Christendom

Passionate Holiness Dennis O'Neill, 2018-09-20 Archbishop Desmond Tutu of Cape Town once said with regard to South Africa's apartheid policy One of the ways of helping to destroy a people is to tell them that they don't have a history that they have no roots More recently he described homophobic discrimination as totally unacceptable and unjust as apartheid ever was Unfortunately it has been particularly difficult for some gay lesbian bisexual and transgender Christians to remain connected to identify with their own faith traditions because some of these traditions not only treat them as people of secondary status but also teach Christian history as though no people of same gender attraction or opposite gender identity had any noteworthy place in it and made no significant contributions at all to Christian tradition Passionate Holiness tries to remedy this situation by explaining why acquaintance with the stories of certain saints with whom gender minorities can identify can help them to connect with their own history and spiritual legacy and empower them to face a brighter future with a sense of optimism and inclusion
