José Coperías Aguilar, 2000 Rethinking Cultural Policy McGuigan, Jim, 2004-03-01 a fascinating thorough and expertly argued discussion of the modes and practices of cultural policy in an increasingly globalized and neoliberal world European Journal of Communication Rethinking Cultural Policy addresses issues concerning culture economy and power in the age of new liberal globalization It examines how public cultural policies have been rationalized in the past and how they are being rethought Arguing that the study of culture and policy should not be confined to prevailing governmental agendas the book offers a distinctive and independent analysis of cultural policy. The book examines a wide range of issues in cultural policy and blends a close reading of key theories with case studies Topics covered include Branding culture and exploitation The state market and civil society How visitor attractions such as London s Millennium Dome are used for national aggrandizement and corporate business purposes Cultural development diversity and ecological tourism in poorer parts of the world This is the ideal introduction to contemporary cultural policy for undergraduate students in culture and media studies sociology of culture politics arts administration and cultural management courses as well as postgraduates and researchers TRIO: Three Sherlock Holmes Mysteries That Introduce Us to Cultural Studies Arthur Asa Berger, 2024-12-03 TRIO reprints three Sherlock Holmes novellas I wrote Freud is Fixated Marx Est Mort and My Name is Sherlock Holmes which provide a novel literally and figuratively introduction to cultural studies This book is meant to do two things be entertaining and also teach my readers something about psychoanalytic theory Marxist theory and the interdisciplinary field known as cultural studies Books such as TRIO are sometimes described as Infotainments combining both information and entertainment Each chapter is introduced by quotations of interest and I also provide bibliographies and at the end of the book a glossary In this book as he tries to solve each crime Sherlock Holmes interrogates some of the most important thinkers of the twentieth century Which means this book is full of ideas about all kinds of things In some cases the dialogue comes from the writings of the thinkers Holmes is questioning I ve had to sacrifice my narrative line to pump as much ideational content into the stories as possible so these novels are didactic in nature but they are still works of fiction but of an unusual kind I have taken some minor liberties with the punctuation and repeat myself at times in different places in different books Teaching cultural studies by using Sherlock Holmes mysteries is an unusual way to instruct students and readers I hope after reading this book you will think it was worth your effort and mine I Was Blind but Now I See Sylvia Darby, 2019-12-05 At the age of seventeen a female committed a crime against her attacker a male rapist She committed arson and murder as a method of revenge for his attack upon her The incident was reported as an unsolved murder for many years She joined the church and was noted as a Christian She was sure she had gotten away with murder Years later when the Holy Spirit had her revisit the year of this traumatic incident he revealed the hand of God in the matter She thought that the things that were happening at that time were coincidences. She later learned that they were not coincidences at all but they were earthly occurrences under the direction of a heavenly being Therefore her eyes were open to the fact that the true avenger for all evil is God and God alone Her sin had been exposed and her secrets were revealed and she was now found guilty So she was now at a place where repentance was needed The spirit revealed to her what she had to do to be forgiven What the devil did against her for evil God made it for good He alone can take life s lemons and make lemonade DANGEROUS DANA Doris Miller, 1999-03 DANGEROUS DANA is a Mystery Suspense Thriller about a young gorgeous Caribbean woman living in New York who gets revenge by killing people living a secret double life as a murderer DANGEROUS DANA involves fistfights chokings stalkings arrests jail time prison time and murders Dana is muscular and is a physically strong person especially when angry She fights like a boxer and is very well known for breaking people s bones when she fights She believes in fighting fire with fire Is she a savior or is she a psycho Is she a vigilante or is she a homicidal maniac Songs of Experience Martin Jay, 2005-01-10 Martin Jay is one of the most influential intellectual historians in contemporary America and here he shows once again a willingness to tackle the big issues in the Western cultural tradition A remarkable history of ideas about the nature of human experience Lloyd Kramer author of Threshold of a New World A magisterial study of one of the most elusive contested and pervasively important concepts of the Western philosophical tradition Ranging from epistemology and aesthetics to the philosophy of history religion and politics Songs of Experience brilliantly traces the major lines of theory and debate Insightful rich and masterfully narrated Jay s book sings with that well tempered voice of erudition synthetic intelligence and generous grace that has become his enviable trademark Richard Shusterman author of Pragmatist Aesthetics This illuminating provocative volume consolidates Martin Jay s standing as our leading modern intellectual historian Ranging sure footedly from ancient to postmodern discourse Jay offers finely balanced readings of thinkers who have wrestled with the elusive concept of experience Because Jay respects and presents so clearly and sympathetically positions different from his own Songs of Experience gives readers the resources necessary to embrace or resist his own bold interpretations of philosophers from Kant and Burke through Dilthey and Dewey to Foucault and Rorty This book will prove as indispensable to intellectual historians as the idea of experience itself James T Kloppenberg author of The Virtues of Liberalism Nafssiva. or Edward Said's Affective Phenomenology of Racism Norman Saadi Nikro, 2024-03-30 This book adapts the Arabic term nafsiyya to trace the phenomenological contours of Edward Said's analysis of the affective dimensions of colonial and imperial racism Reflecting on what he called his colonial education Said rendered his Palestinian Arab background and experience of racism an enabling component of his academic work The argument focuses on his personal dimension section in his introduction to his famous volume Orientalism discussing key notions of Said's oeuvre such as elaboration circumstance humanism worldliness inventory and critical consciousness Providing a lengthy study of his earlier and somewhat neglected Beginnings Intention and Method the book discusses the significance of the style of the essay as a key component of what the author calls Said's interventionist brand of scholarship The final chapter outlines how Said's oeuvre can be situated in a genealogy of a radical phenomenology of racism that emerged from the colonies Mid-Century Romance John T. Connor, 2024-07-22 Mid Century Romance chronicles a revival of the historical novel in the middle decades of the twentieth century in the cultures of British modernism and international communism Born of a national turn in world politics these novels met the turbulence of mid century history with narratives of national becoming roadmaps to situate their readers in the pattern of social change Their writers were often mindful of the genre's romantic era heritage they saw themselves as following in the footsteps of Sir Walter Scott and they drew on the same rescued remains of primitive poetry and popular antiquities that romanticism first used to construct its versions of national identity culture and tradition This book shows how the impulse to salvage traces of ancestral culture and press them to new purpose links the mid century national historical novel to the rise of radical social history and magical realism Post war anticommunism shaped a tradition of the novel as a preserve of art and the individual Mid Century Romance counters with a different genealogy of the British and world novel whose object is society and the future of community the nation and its people It situates its cast of British

Blaagaard, 2016-06-10 Citizen Media and Public Spaces presents a pioneering exploration of citizen media as a highly interdisciplinary domain that raises vital political social and ethical issues relating to conceptions of citizenship and state boundaries the construction of publics and social imaginaries processes of co optation and reverse co optation power and resistance the ethics of witnessing and solidarity and novel responses to the democratic deficit Framed by a substantial introduction by the editors the twelve contributions to the volume interrogate the concept of citizen media theoretically and empirically and offer detailed case studies that extend from the UK to Russia and Bulgaria and from China to Denmark and the liminal spaces within which a growing number of refugees now live A rich new domain of scholarship and practice emerges out of the studies presented Citizen media is shown to embrace both physical and digital interventions in public space as well as the sets of values and agendas that influence and drive the practices and discourses through which individuals and collectives position themselves within and in relation to society and participate in the creation of diverse publics This book will be of interest to students and researchers in media and communication studies particularly those studying citizen media and society journalism and society and political communication Cover image courtesy of Ruben Hamelink Transnational Perspectives on Culture, Policy, and Education Cameron McCarthy, Cathryn Teasley, 2008 This series publishes critical scholarship that seeks to engage and transcend the disciplinary isolationism and genre confinement that now characterize so much of contemporary research in communication studies and related fields It focuses on studies that address the broad intersections and hybrid trajectories that define the encounters between human groups in modern institutions and societies and the way these intersections are represented in contemporary popular cultural forms of knowledge Reconstructing Modernism Ashley Maher, 2020 Drawing upon a wealth of previously unexplored architectural criticism by British authors this book reveals how arguments about architecture led to innovations in literature as well as to redesigns in the concept of modernism itself Nineteenth-Century British Literature Then and Now Simon Dentith, 2016-05-06 Envisioning today s readers as poised between an impossible attempt to read texts as their original readers experienced them and an awareness of our own temporal moment Simon Dentith complicates traditional prejudices against hindsight to approach issues of interpretation and historicity in nineteenth century literature Suggesting that the characteristic aesthetic attitude encouraged by the backward look is one of irony rather than remorse or regret he examines works by Charles Dickens George Eliot Anthony Trollope William Morris and John Ruskin in terms of their participation in significant histories that extend to this day Liberalism class gender political representation and notions of progress utopianism and ecological concern as currently understood can be traced back to the nineteenth century Just as today s critics strive to respect the authenticity of nineteenth century writers and readers who responded to these ideas within their historical world so too do those nineteenth century imaginings persist to challenge the assumptions of the present It is therefore possible Dentith argues to conceive of the act of reading historical literature with an awareness of the historical context and of the difference between the past and the present while allowing that friction or difference to be part of how we think about a text and how it communicates His book summons us to consider how words travel to the reality of the reader's own time and how engagement with nineteenth century writers anticipation of the judgements of future generations reveal hindsight's capacity to transform our understanding of the past in the light of subsequent knowledge
