Raymond Roussel And The Republic Of Dreams:

Raymond Roussel and the Republic of Dreams Mark Ford, 2019-01-24 Raymond Roussel one of the most outlandishly compelling literary figures of modern times died in mysterious circumstances at the age of fifty six in 1933 The story Mark Ford tells about Roussel s life and work is at once captivating heartbreaking and almost beyond belief Could even Proust or Nabokov have invented a character as strange and memorable as the exquisite dandy and graphomaniac this book brings to life Roussel s poetry novels and plays influenced the work of many well known writers and artists Jean Cocteau found in him genius in its pure state while Salvador Dal who died with a copy of Roussel s Impressions d Afrique on his bedside table believed him to be one of France s greatest writers ever Edmond Rostand Marcel Duchamp Andr Breton Michel Foucault and Alain Robbe Grillet all testified to the power of his unique imagination By any standards Roussel led an extraordinary life Tremendously wealthy he took two world tours during which he hardly left his hotel rooms He never wore his clothes more than twice and generally avoided conversation because he dreaded that it might turn morbid Ford himself a poet traces the evolution of Roussel s bizarre compositional methods and describes the idiosyncrasies of a life structured as obsessively as Roussel structured his writing

Sublime Dreams of Living Machines Minsoo Kang, 2011-02-28 Historian Minsoo Kang argues that to properly understand the human as machine and the human as fundamentally different from machine we must trace the origins of these ideas and examine how they were transformed by intellectual cultural and artistic appearances of the automaton throughout the history of the West Kang tracks the first appearance of the automaton in ancient myths through the medieval and Renaissance periods marks the proliferation of the automaton as a central intellectual concept in the Scientific Revolution and the subsequent backlash during the Enlightenment and details appearances in Romantic literature and the introduction of the living machine in the Industrial Age He concludes with a reflection on the destructive confrontation between humanity and machinery in the modern era and the reverberations of the humanity machinery theme today modern culture film and the arts Encyclopedia of the New York School Poets Terence Diggory, 2015-04-22 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of poets associated with the New York Schools of the early twentieth century Illegibility William S. Allen, 2021-06-03 The philosophical significance of Maurice Blanchot's writings has rarely been in doubt Specifying the nature and implications of his thinking has proved much less easy particularly in reference to the key figure of G W F Hegel Examination reveals that Blanchot's thinking is persistently oriented towards a questioning of the terms of Hegel's thought while nevertheless remaining within its themes which shows how rigorously he studied Hegel's works but also how radical his critique of them became Equally it allows for a crucial discussion of the differences between Blanchot's responses to Hegel and those of Jacques Derrida with the implicit suggestion that in some ways Blanchot's critique of Hegel is more far reaching than that developed by Derrida William S Allen demonstrates those aspects of Hegelian thought that permeate Blanchot's writings and in turn develops a detailed three way analysis of Derrida Hegel and Blanchot The key question around which this analysis develops is that of the relation between thought and language concerning the issue of the infinite and its legibility Illegibility introduces a new and substantially philosophical account of Blanchot's importance and also shows how his writings laid the ground for Derrida's work while developing their own uniquely challenging response to the problems of post Hegelian thought Poetry and the Sense of Panic , 2021-09-20 For all the disciplined artifice of Elizabeth Bishop and John Ashbery the essays in this collection show that panic plays a crucial role in their work giving substance to Bishop's claim that an element of mortal panic and fear underlines all art Panic emerges as a condition of creative anxiety and the self imposed demands of originality in response to the poetic traditions Bishop and Ashbery inherited These concerns are explored in essays addressed to Bishop and Ashbery's engagement with European Surrealism as an alternative to the dominant poetics of Modernism and its aftermath in the middle years of the twentieth century Other essays debate the philosophical religious and political orientation of their work in relation to Romantic orthodoxies and Postmodern ironies in terms of cultural history ideology and poetic practice This collection provides original commentaries on the work of two poets widely regarded as amongst the most significant American poets of the second half of the twentieth century with essays by notable scholars from the United States and Britain known for their special interests in modern poetry including Joanne Feit Diehl Mark Ford Edward Larissy Peter Nicholls Peter Robinson Thomas Travisano Cheryl Walker and Geoff Ward Selected Prose John Ashbery, 2005 Fifty years of writing on literature film and art by one of the most influential poets and critics of our time The Archaeology of Foucault Stuart Elden, 2022-12-01 On 20 May 1961 Foucault defended his two doctoral theses on 2 December 1970 he gave his inaugural lecture at the Collège de France Between these dates he published four books travelled widely and wrote extensively on literature the visual arts linguistics and philosophy He taught both psychology and philosophy beginning his explorations of the question of sexuality Weaving together analyses of published and unpublished material this is a comprehensive study of
