Rcmp The Real Subversives:

Fear of a Black Nation David Austin, 2023-04-18 In the 1960s Montreal was a hotbed of radical politics that attracted Black and Caribbean figures such as C L R James Walter Rodney Mariam Makeba Stokely Carmichael Rocky Jones and douard Glissant It was also a place where the ideas of Frantz Fanon Aim C saire and Malcolm X circulated alongside those of Karl Marx Jean Paul Sartre and Simone de Beauvoir During this period of global upheaval and heightened Canadian and Quebec nationalism Montreal became a central site of Black and Caribbean radical politics Situating Canada within the Black radical tradition and its Caribbean radical counterpart Fear of a Black Nation paints a history of Montreal and the Black activists who lived sojourned in or visited the city and agitated for change Drawing on Saidiya Hartman s conception of slavery s afterlife and what David Austin describes as biosexuality a deeply embedded fear of Black self organization and interracial solidarity Fear of a Black Nation argues that the policing and surveillance of Black lives today is tied to the racial including sexual codes and practices and the discipline and punishment associated with slavery As meditation on Black radical politics and state security surveillance and repression Fear of a Black Nation combines theoretical and philosophical inquiry with literary oral and archival sources to reflect on Black political organizing In reflecting on Black self organization and historic events such as the Congress of Black Writers and the Sir George Williams Affair the book ultimately poses the question what can past freedom struggles teach us about the struggle for freedom today Featuring two new interviews with the author and a new preface this expanded second edition enriches the political and theoretical conversation on Black organising and movement building in Canada and internationally As the Black Lives Matter and abolition movements today popularize calls to disarm and defund the police and to abolish prisons Fear of a Black Nation provides an invaluable reflection on the policing of Black activism and a compelling political analysis of social movements and freedom struggles that is more relevant now than ever

Canada's Other Red Scare Scott Rutherford, 2020-12-17 Indigenous activism put small town northern Ontario on the map in the 1960s and early 1970s Kenora Ontario was home to a four hundred person march popularly called Canada s First Civil Rights March and a two month long armed occupation of a small lakefront park Canada s Other Red Scare shows how important it is to link the local and the global to broaden narratives of resistance in the 1960s it is a history not of isolated events closed off from the present but of decolonization as a continuing process Scott Rutherford explores with rigour and sensitivity the Indigenous political protest and social struggle that took place in Northwestern Ontario and Treaty 3 territory from 1965 to 1974 Drawing on archival documents media coverage published interviews memoirs and social movement literature as well as his own lived experience as a settler growing up in Kenora he reconstructs a period of turbulent protest and the responses it provoked from support to disbelief to outright hostility Indigenous organizers advocated for a wide range of issues from better employment opportunities to the recognition of nationhood by using such tactics as marches cultural production community organizing journalism and armed occupation

They drew inspiration from global currents from black American freedom movements to Third World decolonization to challenge the inequalities and racial logics that shaped settler colonialism and daily life in Kenora Accessible and wide reaching Canada s Other Red Scare makes the case that Indigenous political protest during this period should be thought of as both local and transnational an urgent exercise in confronting the experience of settler colonialism in places and moments of protest when its logic and acts of dispossession are held up like a mirror Criminal Injustice Robynne

Neugebauer,2000-01-01 This volume examines racism within the process of criminal justice In every society criminal justice plays a key role establishing social control and maintaining the hegemony of the dominant economic classes The contributors to this anthology argue that the differential treatment of people of colour and First Nations peoples is due to systemic racism within all levels of the criminal justice system which serves these dominant classes Ideological and cultural changes are preconditions for the success of anti racist policies and practices within the criminal justice system and within other state institutions Recommendations for transformations in justice policy and practice are provided Becoming an Ally, 3rd Edition Anne Bishop,2020-05-27T00:00:00Z

Becoming an Ally is a book for men who want to end sexism white people who want to end racism straight people who want to end heterosexism able bodied people who want to end ableism for all people who recognize their privilege and want to move toward a more just world by learning to act as allies Has oppression always been with us just part of human nature What does individual healing have to do with social justice What does social justice have to do with individual healing Why do members of the same oppressed group fight one another sometimes more viciously than they fight their oppressors Why do some who experience oppression develop a life long commitment to fighting oppression while others turn around and oppress those with less power In this accessible and enlightening book now in its third edition Anne Bishop examines history economic and political structures and individual psychology in a search for the origins of racism sexism heterosexism ableism ageism and all the other forms of oppression that divide us Becoming an Ally looks for paths to justice and lays out guidelines for becoming allies of oppressed peoples when we are in the privileged role A new chapter in this third edition offers a greatly expanded discussion of effective approaches to educating allies which is meant for teachers of adults particularly those who teach about diversity equity and anti oppression In this chapter Bishop examines the ways in which Western culture prevents us from recognizing our roles as members of privileged groups and explores how to challenge this with participatory exercises and group discussion The Politics of Scandal Andrei S.

Markovits,Mark Silverstein,1988 Through analytical discussions of such events as Watergate and Britain s Profumo affair this book demonstrates that such political scandals are neither idiosyncratic to democratic regimes nor unique to the United States or for that matter unique to world weary Europeans Nor are they as some political scientists claimed some years ago routine to those underdeveloped societies who have a high toleration of corruption While sex and money play their part at the heart of the great scandals of the post war era lies the violation of process in the pursuit of power Intercontinental Press

Combined with Inprecor, 1978      Labour, 2004      Becoming an Ally Anne Bishop, 2023-04-14 Already I have found myself quoting Anne Bishop's wisdom her simple advice is compelling Right now in Australia she has the power to lead us as we struggle with questions of guilt responsibility and patterns of oppression which are larger than ourselves Rev Tim Costello President Baptist Union of Australia Becoming an Ally is must reading for anyone concerned with understanding and challenging the dynamics forms and sources of oppression whether it is their own oppression that of others or both Bob Mullaly is Head of Social Work at Victoria University Melbourne Where does oppression come from Has it always been with us just human nature What can we do to change it What does individual healing have to do with the struggles for social justice What does social justice have to do with individual healing Why do members of the same oppressed group fight each other sometimes more viciously than their oppressor Why do some who experience oppression develop a life long commitment to fighting oppression while others turn around and oppress others Anne Bishop draws on her many years experience in community work to write this feisty and bestselling guide for activists community workers and welfare workers
