Doing Time Rita Felski, 2000-09 Nine essays that Felski English U of Virginia has revised from publication elsewhere grapple with whether people live in the same time whether it is possible to talk about men's time and women's or Western and non Western time how to explain that individuals and groups may perceive time very differently and yet seem to inhabit the same time in crucial respects and what the stakes are in either affirming or denying the contemporaneity and coevalness of others c Book News Inc

Encountering the Everyday Michael Hviid Jacobsen, 2017-09-16 Everyday life is something we tend to take for granted something that just is something unnoticed But everyday life is perhaps the most important dimension of society it's where we live most parts of our lives with each other This book provides a clear contemporary and comprehensive overview of the sociologies of everyday life Looking at everyday activities and experiences from language and emotions to popular culture and leisure Encountering the Everyday explores what social structures orders and processes mean to us on a daily basis The book carefully leads the reader through historical developments in the field beginning at the earlier Chicago school and finishing with up to date ideas of postmodernism and interactionism Each chapter relates theoretical ideas directly to case studies and real empirical research to make complex concepts and core issues accessible relevant and engaging Written by leading international scholars in the field this truly global book will inspire and inform all students and scholars of everyday life sociology

The Energies of Love Donna Eden, David Feinstein, 2016-01-19 The bestselling authors of Energy Medicine and Energy Medicine for Women present a complete program for using energy medicine to heal and strengthen romantic relationships A relationship begins with the meeting of two unique energies This union of energies though invisible determines the way you communicate fight love and want to be loved In this groundbreaking book the bestselling authors of Energy Medicine draw on the real life experiences of couples who have attended their popular Energies of Love workshops as well as their own experience as husband and wife to show how an understanding of your energy system and that of your partner can help you build a more harmonious and loving bond We all have different ways of making sense of the world around us but when faced with conflict especially with those we care most about we tend to revert to one of four Energetic Stress Styles Visuals are extremely passionate and inspire others to care about the things they care about but in moments of conflict their take on the situation can overshadow what is actually occurring undermining their ability to empathize with their partner Kinesthetics are generous compassionate and accepting of other people but their caring nature pulls them in too many directions They try to meet others needs at the expense of their own which can cause mounting resentment Digital are rational and principled and have a gift for quickly understanding complex situations but they can become closed to others perspectives and feelings Tonals have a gift for understanding others and their dilemmas but during moments of conflict their ability to read between the lines can morph into hearing what was never said felt or thought According to the authors the strongest relationships are those in which the two parties feel that they are partners on a shared spiritual journey By helping you better understand your own unique energy system as well as that of your partner you will be able to recognize your strengths as a couple and avoid the pitfalls The Energies of Love serves as a powerful resource for anyone who wishes to build a rich partnership while maintaining the spark that keeps a relationship exciting Consuming Experience Antonella Caru, Bernard

Cova, 2013-01-11 This book covers the hot topic of the experiential consumption in an accessible manner and from a unique industry perspective which is not used in any other book It highlights the idea that an experience is not something that can be readily managed by firms and is not limited to the market an individual s daily life is made up of consuming experiences that can occur with or without a market relation Offering an overview of the consumption experience it outlines a continuum of experiences of consumption that consumers go through including those that are mainly constructed by consumers around small items that comprise their daily life such as organic products and non profit or local associations those that have been co developed by companies and consumers tourism or adventure projects rock concerts and cultural events those that have been largely developed by the companies where consumers are immersed in a hyper real context such as fashion sports brands edutainment and retail Broad and comprehensive this book provides a challenging vision of the consumption experience which is an invaluable tool for all those studying marketing and consumer behaviour The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice Arnold H. De Graaff, 2025-06-20 Scripture s compelling message of love and justice is powerfully relevant for today The implications of the Amsterdam way of interpreting Scripture are evident throughout the book It is both a personal and timely way of speaking to our disintegrating society The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice provides a meaningful and radical yet simple way of re connecting with the Bible As one of the founders of the Amsterdam way of interpretation Karel Deurloo stated The opportunity to learn anew and understand the language of the Bible has been taken away Often the focus is on the assumed origin and history of a text a historical literary approach or a fundamentalist view creating a fragmented moralistic and doctrinaire emphasis which has alienated many from churches Instead Deurloo and others focused on the prophetic meaning that speaks to all of us as the living word of God today This alternative is rooted in the Hebrew Scriptures Its abiding prophetic message of love and justice is reiterated in the Gospels and apostolic letters Hence the choice of subtitle Rediscovering the Old Testament It is a joyful journey of discovery finding new meaning in the Bible for our lives

Schut,2010-05-01 From the creator of the bestseller Simpler Living Compassionate Life A Christian Perspective comes Food Faith Food is itself a joyful gift recall how the gift of food so often mediates the sanctity and preciousness of life This collection of reflections by Wendell Berry Bill McKibben Elizabeth Johnson Alan Durning and others helps you start thinking about the moral spiritual and economic implications of eating Readings focus on the enjoyment and spirituality of good food ways in which eating connects us to the land and to each other and on the economic environmental and cultural impacts of daily food choices Food Faith includes an eight week study guide for groups or individuals which leads to action setting a table that is healthy joyful and just House and Home Thomas Barrie,2017-03-16 House and home are words routinely used to describe where and how one lives This book challenges predominant definitions and argues that domesticity fundamentally satisfies the human need to create and inhabit a defined place in the world Consequently house and home have performed numerous cultural and ontological roles and have been assiduously represented in scripture literature art and philosophy This book presents how the search for home in an unpredictable world led people to create myths about the origins of architecture houses for their gods and house tombs for eternal life Turning to more recent topics it discusses how writers often used simple huts as a means to address the essentials of existence modernist architects envisioned the capacity of house and home to improve society and the suburban house was positioned as a superior setting for culture and family Throughout the book house and home are critically examined to illustrate the perennial role and capacity of architecture to articulate the human condition position it more meaningfully in the world and assist in our collective homecoming On Living in an Old Country Patrick Wright,2009-02-26 The hulk of Henry VIII s flagship is raised from the seabed in an operation that captures the mind of the nation The leader of the Labour party wears an informal coat at the Cenotaph and provokes a national scandal An elderly lady whose ancient house is scheduled for demolition dismantles it piece by piece and moves it across the country On Living in an Old Country probes such apparently fleeting and disconnected events in order to reveal how history lives on not just in the specialist knowledge of historians archaeologists and curators but as a tangible presence permeating everyday life and shaping our sense of identity It investigates the rise of heritage as expressed in literature advertising and political rhetoric as well as in popular television dramas conservation campaigns and urban development schemes It explores the relations between the idea of an imperilled national identity and the transformation of British society introduced by Margaret Thatcher This is the book that put heritage on the map opening one of the defining cultural and political debates of our time and showing why conservation is a subject of such broad significance in contemporary Britain This new edition includes an extensive new preface and interview material reflecting on the ongoing debate about the heritage industry which the book helped to kick start New Forms of Consumption Mark Gottdiener, 2000-11-01 Consumption as a field of cultural studies overlaps with theories of postmodernism the social construction of self commodification in late capitalism and the role of mass media in daily life New forms of consumption such as those facilitated by cyberspace themed environments the commodification of sex and the increasing role of leisure in society all play new and interesting roles in daily life that combine consumerism with the most contemporary social forms This collection of essays examines the recent ways in which consumerism has been approached by cultural studies with special emphasis given to these and other newly emerging topics The book is divided into three parts The first part provides a theoretical overview of consumption studies dealing with classical and more contemporary approaches in light of the debate between advocates and critics of postmodernism In this section there are papers on McDonaldization tourism and cultural studies and the Theory of Shopping The second part emphasizes empirical studies of the commodification process Papers address the transformation of women's bodies and the mass commodification of milk the creation of the toddler as a subject and the commodification of childhood the commodification of sports and the commodification of rock music The third section of the book explores new forms of consumption on a more detailed and concentrated level Papers in this section include the rise of sex tourism as a global industry the commodification of the sacred and the emergence of new consumer spaces in the city An introduction by the editor delineates the advantages of his approach to new forms of consumption based squarely in the emerging issues of cultural studies debates transcending postmodernism and the society of the spectacle
