One*

A full-body photograph of Bob Flanagan against a blue sky with white clouds. He is wearing a silver chainmail cape and collar. He has a clear plastic mask over his mouth and nose, connected to a tube that leads to a large metal bell hanging from his neck. He is wearing blue gloves and black ankle cuffs. A chain is attached to his waist and hangs down to a metal ring on the ground. He is standing with his hands on his hips.

The Art of Living Dominic Johnson,2017-09-16 Across a series of 12 in depth interviews with a diverse range of major artists Dominic Johnson presents a new oral history of performance art From uses of body modification and physical extremity to the creation of all encompassing personae to performance pieces lasting months or years these artists have provoked and explored the vital limits between art and life Their discussions with Johnson give us a glimpse of their artistic motivations preoccupations processes and contexts Despite the diversity of art forms and experiences featured common threads weave between the interviews love friendship commitment death and survival Each interview is preceded by an overview of the artist s work and the volume itself is introduced by a thoughtful critical essay on performance art and oral history The conversational tone of the interviews renders complex ideas and theoretical propositions accessible making this an ideal book for students of theatre and performance as well as for artists scholars and general readers

When the Body Is the Target Sharon Klayman Farber,2002-11-05 In this comprehensive and insightful work Dr Sharon K Farber provides an invaluable resource for the mental health professional who is struggling to understand self harm and its origins Using attachment theory to explain how addictive connections to pain and suffering develop she discusses various kinds and functions of self harm behavior From eating disorders to body modifications such as tattooing Dr Farber explores the language of self harm and the translation of that language and its psychic functions in the therapeutic setting She tells us When the body weeps tears of blood we need to wonder what terrible sorrows cannot be spoken Brilliantly illustrated with rich clinical material this book offers a practical approach to the diagnosis assessment and treatment of the increasing number of patients whose emotions are expressed through bodily harm The challenges of working with patients who tend to view the world of relationships in terms of predator and prey are clearly explicated and the stormy countertransference responses that threaten to destroy the treatment are given a full hearing Finally she shows how the attachment relationship formed in treatment can repair the traumatic attachment in mind body psyche and soul and can serve as the cornerstone of therapeutic change A Jason Aronson Book

Provoking Religion Anthony Michael Petro,Petro,2025 In the late twentieth century artists were on the front lines of the culture wars Leaders of the Christian Right in the U S made a national spectacle out of feminist and queer art blasting it as sacrilegious or pornographic and sometimes both On the bully pulpits of television and talk radio as well as in the halls of Congress conservatives denounced artists ranging from Robert Mapplethorpe and Judy Chicago to Marlon Riggs and David Wojnarowicz Conservatives alarmed by shifting sex and gender norms collided with progressive artists who were confronting sexism homophobia and racism In Provoking Religion Anthony Petro offers a compelling new history of the culture wars that places competing moralities of gender and sexuality alongside competing visions of the sacred The modern culture wars he shows are best understood not as contests pitting religious conservatives against secular activists but as a series of ongoing historical struggles to define the relationship between the sacred and the political Through captivating case studies of subversive artists Provoking Religion illuminates the underside of the culture wars revealing how progressive artists and activists rendered from those most apparently profane aspects of human life the stuff of conservatives worst nightmares their own haunting visions of the sacred

Media, Performative Identity, and the New American Freak Show Jessica L. Williams, 2017-10-04 This book traces how the American freak show has re emerged in new visual forms in the 21st century It explores the ways in which moving image media transmits and contextualizes reinterprets and appropriates the freak show model into a new American freak show It investigates how new freak representations introduce narratives about sex gender and cultural perceptions of people with disabilities The chapters examine such representations found in horror films including a prolonged look at Freaks 1932 and The Texas Chainsaw Massacre 1974 documentaries such as Murderball 2005 and TLC's Push Girls 2012 2013 disability pornography including the pornographic documentary Sick The Life and Death of Bob Flanagan Supermasochist 1997 and the music icons Marilyn Manson and Lady Gaga in their portrayals of disability and freakishness Through this book we learn that the visual culture that has emerged takes the place of the traditional freak show but opens new channels of interpretation and identification through its use of mediated images as well as the altered freak norm relationship that it has fostered In its illumination of the relationship between normal and freakish bodies through different media this book will appeal to students and academics interested in disability studies gender studies film theory critical race theory and cultural studies

Vicarious Kinks Ummni Khan,2014-01-01 In Vicarious Kinks Ummni Khan looks at the mass of claims that film feminism the human sciences and law make about sadomasochism and its practitioners and the way those claims become the basis for the legal regulation of sadomasochist pornography and practice

New Millennial Sexstyles Carol Siegel,2000 New Millennial Sexstyles questions the twin feminist orthodoxies that the 1960s sexual revolution failed women and that the sexual attitudes most prominent in current youth cultures are deplorably regressive Comparing the American sexscape she inhabits to the vision of contemporary culture produced by feminist theorists Carol Siegel considers whether the sexual revolution may have succeeded but in ways not recognized by current academic studies of gender and sexuality In discouraging undomesticated heterosexuality academic feminism ignores the connection between mainstream opposition to all unrestrained sexual expression and the growth of new forms of homophobia in our times At the same time the youth subcultures challenges to these views of sexuality and gender have been dismissed as insignificant or misunderstood as sexist In this book they receive more respectful attention Siegel draws on her own experience as a college student to create a personal history of academic feminism s early sympathy with bourgeois values She looks at the development of American sex advice literature and at the reception of such transgressive popular films as Basic Instinct Thelma and Louise and Natural Born Killers to demonstrate that the most profoundly capitalist feminist theories have always been the most culturally authoritative A more encouraging vision emerges in the book s second half where a record of conversations about sex and gender with young people and of their responses to products designed for their consumption takes the reader through some of today s most radical youth cultures and suggests new directions for gender studies

Duchamp Is My Lawyer Kenneth Goldsmith,2020-07-28 In 1996 during the relatively early days of the web Kenneth Goldsmith created UbuWeb to post hard to find works of concrete poetry What started out as a site to share works from a relatively obscure literary movement grew into an essential archive of twentieth and twenty first century avant garde and experimental literature film and music Visitors around the world now have access to both obscure and canonical works from artists such as Kara Walker Yoko Ono Pauline Oliveros Samuel Beckett Marcel Duchamp Cecil Taylor Glenn Ligon William Burroughs and Jean Luc Godard In Duchamp Is My Lawyer Goldsmith tells the history of UbuWeb explaining the motivations behind its creation and how artistic works are archived consumed and distributed online Based on his own experiences and interviews with a variety of experts Goldsmith describes how the site navigates issues of copyright and the ways that UbuWeb challenges familiar configurations and histories of the avant garde The book also portrays the growth of other shadow libraries and includes a section on the artists whose works reflect the aims aesthetics and ethos of UbuWeb Goldsmith concludes by contrasting UbuWeb's commitment to the free culture movement and giving access to a wide range of artistic works with today's gatekeepers of algorithmic culture such as Netflix Amazon and Spotify

The Power of Two Isabel Stenzel Byrnes, Anabel Stenzel, 2014-10-14 For most people a diagnosis of cystic fibrosis means the certainty of a life ended too soon But for Isabel Stenzel Byrnes and Anabel Stenzel twin girls with the disease what began as a family's stubborn determination grew into a miracle The tragedy of CF has been touchingly recounted in such books as Frank Deford's Alex The Life of a Child but The Power of Two is the first book to portray the symbiotic relationship of twins who share this life threatening disease through adulthood Isabel and Anabel tell of their lifelong struggle to pursue normal lives with cystic fibrosis while grappling with the realization that they will die young Their story reflects the physical and emotional challenges of a particularly aggressive form of CF and is an honest and gripping portrayal of the daily struggle associated with long term hospitalization the impact of chronic illness on marriage and family and the importance of a support network to continuing survival Born in 1972 seventeen years before scientists discovered the genetic mutation that causes CF the Stenzel twins endured the daily regimen of chest percussion frequent doctor visits and lengthy hospitalizations But in the face of innumerable setbacks their deep seated dependence on each other allowed them to survive long enough to reap the benefits of the miraculous lung transplants that marked a turning point in their lives We have an old life one of growing up with chronic illness and anew life one of opportunities and gifts we have never imagined before In this memoir they pay tribute to the people who shaped their experience These two remarkable sisters have much to teach about the power of perseverance and about the ultimate power of hope

Hungry for Ecstasy Sharon Klayman Farber, 2012-11-16 Hungry for Ecstasy Trauma The Brain and the Influence of the Sixties by Sharon Klayman Farber explores the hunger for ecstatic experience that can lead people down the road to self destruction In an attempt to help mental health professionals and concerned individuals understand and identify the phenomenon and ultimately intervene with patients friends and loved ones Farber speaks both personally and professionally to the reader She discusses the different paths taken on the road to ecstatic states There are religious ecstasies ecstasies of pain and near death experiences cult induced ecstasies creative ecstasies and ecstasies from hell Hungry for Ecstasy explores not only the neuroscientific processes involved but also the influence of the sixties in driving people to seek these states Finally Farber draws from her own personal and professional experience to advise others how to intervene on behalf of the person whose behavior puts his or her life at risk

Patton, Catherine A. Fernandez, 2023-03-23 This volume assesses how current approaches to iconology and iconography break new ground in understanding the signification and reception of medieval images both in their own time and in the modern world Framed by critical essays that apply explicitly historiographical and sociopolitical perspectives to key moments in the evolution of the field the volume s case studies focus on how iconographic meaning is shaped by factors such as medieval modes of dialectical thought the problem of representing time the movement of the viewer in space the fragmentation and injury of both image and subject and the complex strategy of comparing distant cultural paradigms The contributions are linked by a commitment to understanding how medieval images made meaning to highlighting the heuristic value of new perspectives and methods in exploring the work of the image in both the Middle Ages and our own time and to recognizing how subtle entanglements between scholarship and society can provoke mutual and unexpected transformations in both Collectively the essays demonstrate the expansiveness flexibility and dynamism of iconographic studies as a scholarly field that is still heartily engaged in the challenge of its own remaking Along with the volume editors the contributors include Madeline H Caviness Beatrice Kitlinger Aden Kumler Christopher R Lakey Glenn Peers Jennifer Purtle and Elizabeth Sears
