

"Read in order to live."

I try to read after my kids go to sleep so I don't get interrupted

I still read picture books - and not just to my kids at night!

I read a lot of magazines... cooking, fashion, parenting... you name it!

Mrs. Hamilton's Reader's Notebook

I do a lot of pleasure reading on my iPad

Vampire books are my favorite... especially vampires who sparkle!

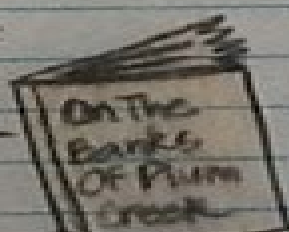

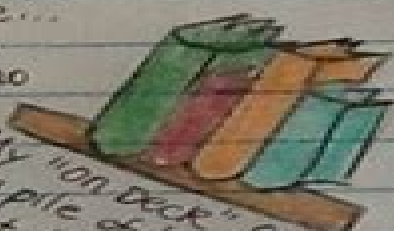

Strong characters are a must for me!

The book is ALWAYS better than the movie!

My "on deck" circle has a pile of books I want to read

Love, love, love books in a series!

Resources in Education, 1998     The Notebooks Michelle Berry, 2010-08-13 In the tradition of the Paris Review The Notebooks is an exciting collection of original short fiction and in depth interviews from Canada's most celebrated and innovative young writers A provocative examination of the writer's life in the twenty first century The Notebooks charts a new direction in Canadian literature It brings together a unique collection of accomplished fiction ranging from the classic storytelling of Michael Redhill to the more experimental style of Lynn Crosbie In his keenly observed story Seratonin Russell Smith captures the sensuous pleasures and dizzying energy of the rave scene Big Trash Day a hybrid of fiction and poetry by Esta Spalding is a devastating commentary on poverty and a striking portrait of the shorthand that develops within intimate relationships In a sample from a novel in progress Yann Martel shares the process through which rough sketches become realized characters and disparate moments become fleshed out scenes The interviews remarkable for their honesty and insight bring us into the writer's world revealing the passion and inspiration that motivates these young writers as well as the hardships they endure in pursuit of their art By asking thoughtful and probing questions Michelle Berry and Natalee Caple elicit frank and intriguing details of how writers work structure their days and order their physical space to facilitate the act of writing Many of the authors here explore the impact of technological innovation and mass culture on contemporary fiction as well as the influence of various art forms on the way they imagine stories The writers in The Notebooks speak candidly about their political engagement their passion for writing and their desire to produce art that will last Contributors Catherine Bush Eliza Clark Lynn Coady Lynn Crosbie Steven Heighton Yann Martel Derek McCormack Hal Niedzviecki Andrew Pyper Michael Redhill Eden Robinson Russell Smith Esta Spalding Michael Turner R M Vaughan Michael Winter Marnie Woodrow These seventeen writers come from different backgrounds different parts of the country have different lifestyles and write very different kinds of fiction yet the connections between them are still plentiful As a group they are highly engaged with the world around them politically sophisticated intelligent modest about their potential success and passionate about the act of writing We hope that The Notebooks inspires an ongoing discussion with young writers at work and answers some of the silent questions that readers have longed to ask From the Introduction The Seattle Educational Bulletin ,1925

Encyclopedia of American Journalism Stephen L. Vaughn,2007-12-11 The Encyclopedia of American Journalism explores the distinctions found in print media radio television and the internet This work seeks to document the role of these different forms of journalism in the formation of America s understanding and reaction to political campaigns war peace protest slavery consumer rights civil rights immigration unionism feminism environmentalism globalization and more This work also explores the intersections between journalism and other phenomena in American Society such as law crime business and consumption The evolution of journalism s ethical standards is discussed as well as the important libel and defamation trials that have influenced journalistic practice its legal protection and legal responsibilities Topics covered include Associations and Organizations Historical Overview and Practice Individuals Journalism in American History Laws Acts and Legislation Print Broadcast Newsgroups and Corporations Technologies New York School Journal ,1904 InfoWorld ,1992-10-12

InfoWorld is targeted to Senior IT professionals Content is segmented into Channels and Topic Centers InfoWorld also celebrates people companies and projects The Mysterious Plus William Tarvin, The Mysterious Plus opens with a situation recently in the news the murder of an American embassy official in a North African country The aim of the novel however is broader than an individual act of violence Its murder becomes a symbol of the fanatic inflamed divisions between Muslim Middle East and Judeo Christian West which are fraying the ties that bond humanity The hero of The Mysterious Plus straddles both worlds To save his sister Omar Naaman nineteen betrayed comrades and country during Algeria s fight for independence from colonial rule At the war s end the defeated French grateful for his double dealing service whisked him to France bestowing a new identity Remy Montpellier Years later Remy is coerced by the French DGSE their intelligence service to return incognito to Algeria where as Omar he is still branded as a traitor in fact as the last of the Seven Devils the first six great collaborators having been tracked down and killed by Algerian agents Sent to investigate the gay bashing murder of an American embassy attach who DGSE suspected was trafficking classified documents Remy gradually moves from pursuer to pursued Will he fulfill the true purpose of his returning to Algiers or will his treasonous past overtake him How does The Mysterious Plus control the answers to these two questions and hence the resolution to the novel In his previous book The Saint of Sodomy GLB 1999 William Tarvin who lived in the Middle East for two decades satirized Muslim sexual hypocrisies Though the same barbed wit infuses The Mysterious Plus it is counterpoised by a darker strain that materialistic spiritual differences between West and Middle East threaten to sever the cords bonding humanity Addendum Since the novel incorporates ideas from around one thousand philosophical religious literary social psychological historical and political works Tarvin has provided some commentary and definitions in end of chapter footnotes
