We all look forward to going on holiday to relax for a while. But sometimes holidays can be stressful. Here are some ideas to make sure you have a stress free trip.

- Before you even start packing, write down everything you will need to take with you, including your passport and any other travel documents. Try to make sure you only include things that you really need.
- If you have to be at the airport very early in the morning, make sure that you and your family get some sleep before you set off. You should get at least 6 hours sleep before travelling. There's nothing worse than travelling with everyone in a bad mood and the kids crying.
- Leave yourself some time to have something to eat before setting off for the airport, too. It could be many hours before you get a chance to have a proper meal. Yes, you can always find something to eat at the airport but the food will probably be low quality and highly expensive!

- Don't Go Hungry
- Make a List
- A Good Suitcase
- Have a Good Rest

Hi John,

How was your weekend? Did you do anything exciting? Well, I visited Madame Tussaud's yesterday and I can't wait to tell you all about it!

They make the statues from wax and other materials but they are very realistic. They looked so alive that sometimes I couldn't tell the real people from the wax people!

I saw statues of presidents and kings, politicians and athletes, writers and television stars. But the best part of all was when I went down to the Chamber of Horrors. There were all kinds of scary things there. There was a guillotine ready to chop off a head, and even an electric chair. I didn't stay long in that room!

I was thinking that we could go to the museum together next time you are in England. Write soon and tell me your news.
