Reading Dick and Jane with Me, 1989      Reading Dick and Jane with Me Clarissa T. Sligh, 1989-01-01      Dick and Jane: Fun with Dick and Jane Penguin Young Readers, 2004-01-19 Look Jane said Dick Here is something funny Can you guess what it is      Reframings Diane Neumaier, 1995 This diverse and compelling collection of contemporary feminist visual art is now available in a paperback edition Reframings makes visible what has been for too long nearly invisible contemporary feminist visual art that represents a remarkable range of perspectives styles and subject matter The forty five women who created these works artists and writers such as Deborah Willis Carrie Mae Weems Nan Goldin and Carm Little Turtle are connected by a belief that images are political and that today s feminist concerns cannot be separated from such issues as ethnicity class age and sexuality They share a consciousness that historically women have been framed and can now be reframed Author note Diane Neumaier is Associate Professor of Visual Arts at Mason Gross School of the Arts Rutgers University      Dick and Jane: We Play Penguin Young Readers, 2004-01-19 Dick can play Jane can play Spot can play too Have fun with Dick and Jane as you read along with this sweet and simple story      A Teacher'S Tale Joe Gilliland, 2015-03-05 It was never in author Joe Gillilands plan to become a teacher certainly not a college teacher and most certainly not an English teacher But thats what happened and hes never looked back In A Teachers Tale he explains how by neither planning for nor seeking a life of learning and teaching lacking a syllabus or lesson plan he discovered that a life in academe lay in his patha path hes followed for more than fifty years A Teachers Tale begins in 1932 with Gillilands first experiences in schooling and concludes in the summer of 1955 just as he completes his apprenticeship and stands on the brink of becoming a qualified instructor in a small college in east Texas This memoir presents a collection of stories about his experiences as a teacher and a college student A story of schooling deeply immersed in the arts and humanities A Teachers Tale shares Gillilands love of the university and how it compelled him to seek a life devoted to teaching primarily in the community college arena Through this narrative he brings together a philosophy of higher education based on the importance of arts and humanities in todays high tech world      Dick and Jane: We Play and Pretend Grosset & Dunlap, 2005-01-13 These are the real classic readers with cloth like covers and original illustrations from the 1960s Dick and Jane basic readers Filled with over 30 stories these books are for beginning readers parents and grandparents alike Dick Jane and Sally are dressed up for a game of make believe Spot and Puff are there too Where will they go after they take a ride in their pretend car      Teaching, Learning, and Other Miracles Grace Feuerverger, 2007 Award winning author Grace Feuerverger explores teaching and learning in schools as a sacred life journey a quest toward liberation Written for teacher educators who wish to make a real difference in the lives of their students this book speaks to everyone who finds themselves as she did on winding and often treacherous paths longing to discover the meaning and potential in their professional lives at school A child of Holocaust survivors Feuerverger wrote this book to tell how schools can be transformed into magical places where miracles happen In an era of narrow agendas of efficiency and control this book dares to suggest that education is and should always be about uplifting the human spirit My Youth Bryan De Vouge,2010-03-29 This book describes the authors childhood growing up on a farm living with four generations of family including his sister parents grandparents and great grandparents The author describes many varied experiences from helping his 90 year old great grandmother churn butter the old fashioned way to helping his grandfather feed the pigs and other animals on the farm He writes about his interactions with many of the other people who lived in the same community and some of the naughty things he and his friends did such as raiding apple orchards This book gives the reader a clear idea of how life was on a farm in rural Quebec in the 1950s

Here's the Score Ronald James Newton,2018-01-30 In 1939 a family of twelve siblings coming out of the depths of Great Depression poverty finds itself living in an abandoned town hall that once served as a basketball gymnasium in the small Colorado town of Mead There with basketball hoops hanging over their heads an all male set of triplets is born marking the beginning of their destined journey toward leading Mead High School to basketball prominence Growing up in the 40s and 50s the triplets obsession with basketball is inspired and nurtured by their older siblings schoolmates teammates and community members Throughout their elementary middle school and early high school years the triplets and two other brothers learn from teammates and coaches They experience adulation and newspaper notoriety causing their mother to constantly remind them to refrain from self absorption and to work together In 1956 the brothers participate in a historic event in the nations basketball history when they form and play as the starting five for Mead High This story told through the eyes of sixteenth born and triplet Ronald James Newton recounts his struggles in the classroom and on the basketball court and portrays his striving toward development of meaningful and satisfying relationships with classmates family and friends The storys threads of spirituality and facing and rising above adversity are enveloped in the bonding relationships that small town and small school athletics provide and are crowned by Meads 57 state basketball championship victory Dick and Jane: Who Can Help? Penguin Young Readers,2004-01-19 Oh Jane Oh Father Who can come Who can come and help me

Personal Odysseys Moira Roth,1989 The Failure Free Reading Methodology Joseph Lockavitch,2008-10 Teach Janice Koch,2019-01-02 Teach is a concise introduction to education that challenges students preconceived notions of teaching in order to transform them into reflective practitioners Empathizing with the difficulties students face as they move from the college classroom to their own classrooms revered author Janice Koch invites readers to both reflect on their own dispositions for teaching and look outside of themselves to the demands of the profession making the philosophy of teaching and learning accessible and relevant The Fourth Edition emphasizes the changing student population and the role of technology and globalization in the field while also including the Interstate Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium InTASC standards correlating with each chapter s content With the guidance of this supportive text students will gain vital exposure by engaging with professional standards from the very start of their career Everything I Need To Know I

Learned From A Children's Book Anita Silvey, 2009-10-13 What children's book changed the way you see the world Anita Silvey asked this question to more than one hundred of our most respected and admired leaders in society and she learned about the books that shaped financiers actors singers athletes activists artists comic book creators novelists illustrators teachers The lessons they recall are inspiring instructive and illuminating And the books they remember resonate as influential reading choices for families EVERYTHING I NEED TO KNOW I LEARNED FROM A CHILDREN'S BOOK with its full color excerpts of beloved children's books is a treasury and a guide a collection of fascinating essays and THE gift book of the year for families Sometimes Being the Queen is All We Have to Hold Onto , I Can Read It All by Myself Paul V. Allen, 2021-05-28 In the late 1950s Ted Geisel took on the challenge of creating a book using only 250 unique first grade words something that aspiring readers would have both the ability and the desire to read The result was an unlikely children's classic The Cat in the Hat But Geisel didn't stop there Using The Cat in the Hat as a template he teamed with Helen Geisel and Phyllis Cerf to create Beginner Books a whole new category of readers that combined research based literacy practices with the logical insanity of Dr Seuss The books were an enormous success giving the world such authors and illustrators as P D Eastman Roy McKie and Stan and Jan Berenstain and beloved bestsellers such as Are You My Mother Go Dog Go Put Me in the Zoo and Green Eggs and Ham The story of Beginner Books and Ted Geisel's role as president policymaker and editor of the line for thirty years has been told briefly in various biographies of Dr Seuss but I Can Read It All by Myself The Beginner Books Story presents it in full detail for the first time Drawn from archival research and dozens of brand new interviews I Can Read It All by Myself explores the origins philosophies and operations of Beginner Books from The Cat in the Hat in 1957 to 2019's A Skunk in My Bunk and reveals the often fascinating lives of the writers and illustrators who created them

Dick and Jane Fun with Our Family Grosset & Dunlap, 2004-08-03 Dick Jane Sally Mother and Father are not the only family having fun This time meet Mike twin sisters Pam and Penny and their parents Two families mean twice the laughs and twice the fun Beginning readers will love the way each chapter is an individual story and parents and educators will appreciate the way this format encourages young readers progression Activating Democracy Sheryl Oring, 2016-09-02 Driven by a powerful belief in the value of free expression Sheryl Oring has for more than a decade been helping people across the United States voice concerns about public affairs through her I Wish to Say project This book uses that project as the starting point for an exploration of a series of issues of public interest being addressed by artists today It features essays by contributors ranging from art historians and practicing artists to scholars and creators working in literature political science and architecture All the contributors offer a different approach but they share a primary goal of sparking a dialogue not just among makers of art but among viewers readers and the concerned public at large The resulting volume will be an essential resource for politically engaged contemporary artists searching for innovative cross disciplinary ways of making and sharing art My Homesteader's Heritage Laurence Crosswell, 2016-08-25
