Motivating Teen and Preteen Readers Jeffrey Pflaum, 2011-08-16. Computer games, video games, Internet, iPods, DVDs, CDs, texting, social media and surfing. No wonder reading has a hard time competing for adolescents' attention. Research studies find that interest in reading diminishes after the fourth grade and continues through high school. Throw in a testing culture with all its drill lessons and you still wind up with 50% of college freshmen unable to comprehend the textbooks. Whatever happened to motivation? You can lead a horse to water but... Motivating Teen and Preteen Readers: How Teachers and Parents Can Lead the Way contains over 1,000 diverse, original, fun, creative, absurd, challenging questions on reading that will inspire adolescent reading lives from the inside out. The four books of questions contained in this volume are designed to help kids help themselves find their ways to a desire to read. Weekly questions, discussions and raps: a one-year journey into the worlds of reading compel preteens and teens to face their demons peacefully and to re-create a passion for reading of course with a little guidance from their friends, teachers, parents and this book. Check out some questions: What was the first book you remember reading by yourself? What thoughts are triggered by this book? What feelings come back to you? Think of a word that makes you feel good. Silently say the word over and over again to yourself. Describe what you experienced. Athletes say they're in the zone when playing at their best. Describe your reading when you're reading in the zone. Reading everyday quietly changes your world. Explain. Mind pictures, reading's little miracles. Explain. Life, 1926 The garden of life, flowers of thought on culture, conduct and character for every day in the year, gathered and arranged by H.W.
