Red Woman with Backward Eyes and Other Stories MariJo Moore, 2001 Listen Here Sandra L. Ballard, Patricia L. Hudson, 2013-07-24 A comprehensive and unsurpassed anthology of women writers from Appalachia Exceptional in diversity and scope Southern Historian Listen Here Women Writing in Appalachia is a landmark anthology that brings together the work of 105 Appalachian women writers including Dorothy Allison Harriette Simpson Arnow Annie Dillard Nikki Giovanni Denise Giardina Barbara Kingsolver Jayne Anne Phillips Janice Holt Giles George Ella Lyon Sharyn McCrumb and Lee Smith Editors Sandra L Ballard and Patricia L Hudson offer a diverse sampling of time periods and genres established authors and emerging voices From regional favorites to national bestsellers this unprecedented gathering of Appalachian voices displays the remarkable talent of the region s women writers who ve made their mark at home and across the globe A giant step forward in Appalachian studies for both students and scholars of the region and the general reader Nothing less than a groundbreaking and landmark addition to the national treasury of American literature Bloomsbury Review A remarkable accomplishment bringing together the work of 105 female Appalachian writers saying what they want to and saying it in impressive bodies of literature Lexington Herald Leader One of the keenest pleasures in Listen Here lies in its diversity of voices and genres Material Culture Besides introducing readers to many new voices the anthology provides a strong counterpart to the stereotype of hillbillies that have cursed the region Atlanta Journal Constitution Full of welcome surprises to those new to this regional literature specifically it includes particularly strong selections from children s fiction and a substantial number of African American writers Choice Sharing Our Stories of Survival Sarah Deer, Bonnie Clairmont, Carrie A. Martell, Maureen L. White Eagle, 2007-10-15 A general introduction to the social and legal issues involved in acts of violence against Native women this book s contributors are lawyers social workers social scientists writers poets and victims In the U S Native women are more likely than women from any other group to suffer violence from rape and battery to more subtle forms of abuse and Sharing Our Stories of Survival explores the causes and consequences of such behavior The stories and case studies presented here are often painful and raw and the statistics are overwhelmingly grim but a countervailing theme also runs through this extremely informative volume Many of the women who appear in these pages are survivors often strengthened by their travails and the violence examined here is human violence meaning that it can be changed if only with much effort and education The first step is to lay out the truth for all to see and that is the purpose accomplished by this book The People Who Stayed Janet McAdams, Geary Hobson, Kathryn Walkiewicz, 2012-10-09 The two hundred year old myth of the vanishing American Indian still holds some credence in the American Southeast the region from which tens of thousands of Indians were relocated after passage of the Indian Removal Act in 1830 Yet as the editors of this volume amply demonstrate a significant Indian population remained behind after those massive relocations The first anthology to focus on the literary work of Native Americans who trace their ancestry to people who stayed in southeastern states after 1830 this volume represents every state and every genre including short stories excerpts from novels poetry essays plays and even Web postings Although most works are contemporary the collection covers the entire post Removal era Some of the contributors are well known while others have only recently emerged as important literary voices All of the writers in The People Who Stayed affirm their Indian ancestry though many live outside the Southeast today As this anthology demonstrates indigenous Southeastern writing engages the local and the global the traditional and the modern While many speak to the prospects and perils of acculturation all the writers bear witness to the ways oblique or straightforward that they and their families continue to honor their Indian identities despite the legacy of removal In an introduction to the volume and in headnotes on each contributor the editors provide historical context and literary insight on the diversity of writing and lived experiences found in these pages All readers from students to scholars will gain newfound understanding of the literature and the human experience of Native people of the American Southeast

A Broken Flute Doris Seale, Beverly Slapin, 2006-12-21 The Winona dilemma Lois Beardslee No word for goodbye Mary TallMountain About the contributors A Cherokee Encyclopedia Robert J. Conley, 2007-12-16 Conley has compiled a guide to historical and contemporary members of the Cherokee tribe and their roles in their clans and nations Genocide of the Mind MariJo Moore, 2009-07-21 After five centuries of Eurocentrism many people have little idea that Native American tribes still exist or which traditions belong to what tribes However over the past decade there has been a rising movement to accurately describe Native cultures and histories In particular people have begun to explore the experience of urban Indians individuals who live in two worlds struggling to preserve traditional Native values within the context of an ever changing modern society In Genocide of the Mind the experience and determination of these people is recorded in a revealing and compelling collection of essays that brings the Native American experience into the twenty first century Contributors include Paula Gunn Allen Simon Ortiz Sherman Alexie Leslie Marmon Silko and Maurice Kenny as well as emerging writers from different Indian nations Birthed from Scorched Hearts MariJo Moore, 2016-07-20 Award winning author MariJo Moore asked women from around the world to consider the devastating nature of conflict inner wars outer wars public battles and personal losses Their answers in the form of poignant poetry and essays examine war in all its permutations beginning in 60 CE and continuing into the 21st century from Ireland to Iraq and everywhere in between With contributions from both well known and first time writers this moving anthology encompasses a wide range of voices a Blitz evacuee an ex slave an incarcerated mother former military personnel survivors of domestic violence those who have battled drugs and disease and many other courageous women willing to share their unique and timeless insight on the realities of war GRANDDAD'S EYE: and other stories Al James, 2015-08-05 Chance encounters and life changing events are at the heart of these 19 stories Paul believes he will never recover from the death of his wife until he meets one of her former friends Despite his daughters anxieties a relationship begins to develop The grandfather in the title story reluctantly tells his grandson how he lost an eye in the battle of the Somme A soldier involved in the D Day landings makes a promise to his friend Grace living in a residential home struggles to separate present from past experience All the stories in this collection draw you into the lives and emotions of those involved and make you want to keep reading That eye boy it tells a story It s staring up at me from the bottom of the glass Through the water I look up at him at the empty socket the eye occupies every day Like part of the right hand side of his head has been scooped out t doesn t scare me I ve never known him any different The Red cross girl [and other stories Richard Harding Davis,1919 The Transparent Girl and Other Stories S.
