more appropriate ways The last 500 years represent a strikingly unexplored and misrepresented period which remains disfigured by colonial apartheid assumptions most notably in the way that African societies are depicted as fixed passive isolated unenterprising and unenlightened This period is one the most formative in relation to southern Africa's past while remaining in many ways the least known Key cultural contours of the subcontinent took shape while in a jagged and uneven fashion some of the features of modern identities emerged Enormous internal economic innovation and political experimentation was taking place at the same time as expanding European mercantile forces started to press upon southern African shores and its hinterlands This suggests that interaction flux and mixing were a strong feature of the period rather than the homogeneity and fixity proposed in standard historical and archaeological writings Five Hundred Years Rediscovered represents the first step taken by a group of archaeologists and historians to collectively reframe revitalise and re-examine the last 500 years By integrating research and developing trans-frontier research networks the group hopes to challenge thinking about the region's expanding internal and colonial frontiers and to broaden current perceptions about southern Africa's colonial past

Must Read: Rediscovering American Bestsellers Sarah Churchwell,Thomas Ruys Smith,2012-08-02 What is it about certain books that makes them bestsellers Why do some of these books remain popular for centuries and others fade gently into obscurity And why is it that when scholars do turn their attention to bestsellers they seem only to be interested in the same handful of blockbusters when so many books that were once immensely popular remain under examined Addressing those and other equally pressing questions about popular literature Must Read is the first scholarly collection to offer both a survey of the evolution of American bestsellers as well as critical readings of some of the key texts that have shaped the American imagination since the nation's founding. Focusing on a mix of enduring and forgotten bestsellers, the essays in this collection consider 18th and 19th century works like Charlotte Temple or Ben Hur that were once considered epochal but are now virtually ignored, 20th century favorites such as The Sheik and Peyton Place and 21st century blockbusters including the novels of Nicholas Sparks The Kite Runner and The Da Vinci Code.

The History and Life Stories of European Women in the Arts Milena Gammaitoni, 2022-03-30 Offering historical identity fortified by the presence of women belonging to the various areas of creative and intellectual life, this book allows readers to understand greater contexts of their identity. The history of female artists is an indicator of how social identity was erased from the historiography which asserted itself in nineteenth century Europe. Analysis of the biographical pathways traced here reveals how women in the Middle Ages and beyond have been active protagonists of the arts, received reviews as well as had an authoritative role as the esteemed and attentive witnesses of the society around them. Reconstruction of social relationships, intellectual and creative production as well as of the life stories of some of Europe's most important female artists foregrounds this omission and highlights their extraordinary nature. The different stories contained in this book narrate the lives and works of Hildegard von Bingen, Francesca Caccini, Mary Wollstonecraft, George Sand, Lou Andreas Salom and Elke Mascha Blankenburg. By reinforcing the awareness of social and historical origins, the informed reader is better equipped to tackle their futures and build up their personalities.
