Wager Raymond Barfield, 2017-03-21 How do humans explore beauty virtue love justice and goodness This book argues that philosophical attention to our lives shaped in part by our choices is our instrument for investigating these parts of reality Constructing a life is a philosophical act Philosophical acts that are shaped by a life and that shape a life constitute philosophical style Everyone has a philosophical style which is fundamentally about the way we live in the world through our bodies our reason our imagination and our virtue It is about what we love and how we are loved Beauty suffering and being in the world are placeholders for everything that makes up our lived experience As we live our lives between beauty and suffering we learn most about being in the world The argument of the book moves from a discussion of philosophical style through the three placeholders for human experience as they are affected by philosophy beauty suffering and being in the world arriving at a reworking of Pascal's wager about living in relationship to the presence or absence of God as a way of understanding the commitments that are our only way into the truth of our life An American Dictionary of the English

Toward More Family-Centered Family Sciences Howard M. Bahr, Kathleen S. Bahr, 2009-03-16 Much academic writing on families reflects the ideal of non involvement and distanced subject matter Toward More Family Centered Family Sciences suggests that the family sciences in their effort to be scientific have perpetuated this distance between researcher and subject to the detriment of both The authors argue that family and kinship ties are transcendent ties boundary crossing in numerous ways They place an emphasis on family love in contrast and in addition to romantic love and criticize current approaches for neglecting the importance of transcendent concepts such as love commitment respect and sacrifice in the development and well being of family structures Drawing from insights both inside and outside of academia the authors seek to reincorporate transcendent concepts into the study of the family as a unit of society They argue for a more collaborative family centered family science and offer recommendations for how family researchers might work to change the scientific monologue about families to a systemic dialogue with families

A Dictionary of the English Language Noah Webster,1831 Erotic Faith Mari Kim,2022-03-24 The thought of contemporary North American theologian and ethicist Wendy Farley is an unflinching clarion call to justice and compassion Farley invites us to discover ways of embodying the deep compassion capable of resisting pernicious distortions and traumatizing injustices that harm and dehumanize us all This volume of essays embodies her invitation to awaken as beloved community And when we are overwhelmed by the magnitude of struggle and despair Farley reminds us that the powerful longing of hope at times against all evidence refuses to give up on seeking justice and wholeness Compassionate justice radical hospitality creative liberation and deep listening emerge as more than ethical values for Farley they are expressions of erotic faith a praxis of faithfulness born of divine desire These writings explore transformative perspectives and practices that have the capacity to help us recover and author our identity as the god bearers we are Erotic faith embodies the love seeking persistence of divine faithfulness necessary to transform us from within it meets the truth of human harm vulnerability and suffering by offering a complex struggling unscripted creativity capable of remaking us and our world until the beloved community is whole     Tracking God Ivana Noble, 2010-01-01 This book offers an introduction to some of the fundamental themes of theology From the very beginning however it insists on the contribution to be found in the different Christian traditions The reader is enabled to view these traditions as part of a common heritage Drawing on the wealth of these understandings of what it is to be Christian can be an inspiration for those from very different church structures and even for people who seek to understand their own spiritual journey and search for God without identifying themselves or their journey with any particular church A number of important theological questions are covered in the book It starts with a look at theological method before examining the idea of divine revelation This is followed by investigating the nature of authority and authorities in different churches and where these coincide and come into conflict The historical and cultural contexts of theology and its roots in religious experience are also examined Each theme has a biblical and patristic part as well as a genuinely reciprocal discussion involving contemporary Catholic Orthodox and Protestant theologians     The Gift of Love Andrew Staron, 2017-02-01 The Gift of Love explores the intelligibility of Augustine's claim that we come to know and encounter God in and through our love Building upon the discoveries of recent scholarship Andrew Staron reads Augustine's De Trinitate not as presenting the Trinity as a concept to be grasped but rather as a rational study of the limits of theological language and the possibility of coming to know the Trinity because of those limits Human dependence on God's initiative indicates that the Trinitarian God of love is knowable only through attention to how God's self-revelation transforms and saves us Therefore to see God one seeks to mark love's formative activity within the heart Jean-Luc Marion's rigorous description of the gift of love offers to Augustine's theology a phenomenological texture by which the Trinitarian love given in revelation might be made incarnate in one's life The Gift of Love presents a reason for hope that while coming to know the Trinity that God is might be impossible for human beings it is made possible by God's antecedent gift of love given in the missions Son and Holy Spirit and iconically received in the particularity of one's own love     The Strand Magazine ,1922     Three to Get Married Fulton John Sheen, 1951 An incisive look at right and wrong notions about sex and love The author covers marriage from practically every aspect with a view of imparting its proper role and purpose From the damage caused by indiscriminate sex education to the three basic tensions in marriage he shows the Catholic Church's teaching on marriage from the standpoints of philosophy theology and morality
