Stateless Talar Chahinian, 2023-02-20 In Stateless Talar Chahinian offers a rich exploration of Western Armenian literary history in the wake of the 1915 genocide that led to the dispersion of Armenians across Europe North America the Middle East and beyond Chahinian highlights two specific time periods post WW I Paris and Post WW II Beirut to trace the ways in which literature developed in each diaspora In Paris a literary movement known as Menk addressed the horrors they experienced and focused on creating a new literary aesthetic centered on belonging while in exile In Beirut Chahinian shows how the literature was nationalized in the absence of state institutions Armenian intellectuals constructed a unified and coherent narrative of the diaspora that returned to the pre 1915 literary tradition and excluded the Menk generation Chahinian argues that the adoption of national as the literature s organizing logic ultimately limited its vitality and longevity as it ignored the diverse composition of diaspora communities

The Armenian Woman, Minoritarian Agency, and the Making of Iranian Modernity, 1860–1979 Talinn Grigor, Houri Berberian, 2025-03-04 With this book Houri Berberian and Talinn Grigor offer the first history of Armenian women in modern Iran. Foregrounding the work of Armenian women's organizations, the authors trace minoritarian politics and the shifting relationships among doubly minoritized Armenian female subjects, Iran's central nodes of power, and the Irano-Armenian patriarchal institutions of church and political parties. Engaging broader considerations around modernization, nationalism, and feminism, this book makes a conceptually rich contribution to how we think about the history of women and minoritized peoples. Berberian and Grigor read archival, textual, visual, and oral history sources together and against one another to challenge conventional notions of the archive and transform silences and absences into audible and visual presences. Understanding minoritarian politics as formulated by women through their various forms of public and intellectual activism, this book provides a groundbreaking intervention in Iran's history of modernization, Armenian diasporic history, and Iranian and Armenian feminist historiography.

Christoph Herzog, Richard Wittmann, 2018-10-10 Istanbul Kushta Constantinople presents twelve studies that draw on contemporary life narratives that shed light on little explored aspects of nineteenth-century Ottoman Istanbul. As a broad category of personal writing that goes beyond the traditional confines of the autobiography, life narratives range from memoirs, letters, reports, travelogues, and descriptions of daily life in the city and its different neighborhoods. By focusing on individual experiences and perspectives, life narratives allow the historian to transcend rigid political narratives and to recover lost voices, especially of those underrepresented groups including women and members of non-Muslim communities. The studies of this volume focus on a variety of narratives produced by Muslim and Christian women, by non-Muslims and Muslims, as well as by natives and outsiders alike. They dispel European Orientalist stereotypes and cross class divides and ethnic identities Travel accounts of outsiders provide us with valuable observations of daily life in the city that residents often overlooked Cries and Whispers in Karamanlidika Books Evangelia Balta, Matthias Kappler, 2010 The Karamanlides are Greek Orthodox Christians originally located in Central Anatolia with Turkish as their primary language Cries and Whispers in Karamanlidika Books contains the papers presented at the First International Conference on Karamanlidika Studies Nicosia 11th 13th September 2008 Since the main problems of research in Karamanlidika are the lack of analytical studies the absence of scholarly exchange between researchers as well as the politicization and political manipulation of the subject the conference was intended to bring together specialists in the field to present papers dealing expressly with the phenomenon without political dilatation and expansion Being a first approach to the intricate subject the conference aimed to create a scientific platform for further research and cooperation between scholars Historians linguists and researchers in literature were asked to pose questions concerning the production of Karamanlidika printed works and manuscripts the reasons that determined this production its quantity and its quality as well as the subjects who produced and assimilated it
