Reflections on Law and Armed Conflicts Hilaire McCoubrey, Michael A. Meyer, 2023-12-11 This unique volume presents an edited selection of works upon the laws of armed conflict by the late Professor Colonel G I A D Draper OBE Professor Colonel Draper was a central figure in the analysis and dissemination of the humanitarian laws of armed conflict in the English speaking world He had a wide practical and academic experience of the subject including service as a prosecutor at the Nuremberg trials His work covered not only the contemporary substance of the law but also its moral ethical and political context the pressures upon its development and its potential for further positive and other development This edited collection presents a very significant part of Professor Colonel Draper s work including many pieces which are no longer readily accessible or have never before been published with modern commentary referring to developments which have occurred since his death The late Professor Colonel s work is an important scholarly contribution to the subject and also retains a very great degree of modern relevance including comment upon such issues as war crimes and appropriate responses to them The Editors present this collection as both an important scholarly and practical resource and a fitting tribute to one of the great twentieth century contributors to this area of law Reflection on the Works of God in Nature and Providence, for every day in the year ... Translated from the French, and collated with the German, by A.

Clarke Christoph Christian STURM, 1801 Experiential Consciousness and the Nature of Human Identity Vitor Jose F. Rodrigues, 2022-12-13 Consciousness is hard to bring to the laboratory as it confronts us with a classic dilemma can a mind observe itself However who then is observing the observer Without experiential awareness culture the arts science and philosophy would not make sense Would it make sense if refrigerators were to produce a refrigerator culture without the experience of freezing food Virtually all human culture is destined to provide conscious experiences This volume provides a rich array of views on human nature and the way it shows up in the strange land of human identity Reflections on the Works of God in Nature and Providence, for Every Day in the Year Christoph Christian Sturm, 1833 The Swedenborg Concordance John Faulkner Potts, 1898 Burke's Reflections on the Revolution in France Edmund

Burke,1890 Evolution and Man's Place in Nature Henry Calderwood,1893 Human/nature John P. Herron,Andrew G. Kirk,1999 Provocative essays explore how ideas about human nature inform or shape human understanding of nature and the environment Understanding Philanthropy Robert L. Payton,Michael P. Moody,2008-03-26 A fine volume on the moral meaning and function of philanthropy makes the case that philanthropy is essential to democratic society Choice Philanthropy has existed in various forms in all cultures and civilizations throughout history yet most people know little about it and its distinctive place in our lives Why does philanthropy exist Why do people so often turn to philanthropy when we want to make the world a better place In essence what is philanthropy These fundamental questions are tackled in this engaging and original book Written by one of the founding figures in the field of philanthropic studies Robert L Payton and his former student sociologist Michael P Moody Understanding Philanthropy presents a new way of thinking about the meaning and mission of philanthropy Weaving together accessible theoretical explanations with fascinating examples of philanthropic action this book advances key scholarly debates about philanthropy and offers practitioners a way of explaining the rationale for their nonprofit efforts Virtue in humble life, containing reflections on the reciprocal duties of the wealthy and indigent. ... Thoughts on the various situations, passions, ... and virtues of mankind. ... Fables. ... Anecdotes. ... A manual of Devotion, comprehending extracts from eminent poets Jonas Hanway,1777 Reflections on the works of God in nature and providence, for every day in the year. Tr. by A. Clarke. New ed., revised Christoph Christian Sturm,1810 Man and Nature Council for Research in Values and Philosophy,1989 Nature of the Self S. K. Leung,2000 Proposes a radical theory on the existential confirmation and understanding of the Self Nature, Human Nature, & Human Difference Justin E. H. Smith,2015-06-30 People have always been xenophobic but an explicit philosophical and scientific view of human racial difference only began to emerge during the modern period Why and how did this happen Surveying a range of philosophical and natural scientific texts dating from the Spanish Renaissance to the German Enlightenment Nature Human Nature and Human Difference charts the evolution of the modern concept of race and shows that natural philosophy particularly efforts to taxonomize and to order nature played a crucial role Smith demonstrates how the denial of moral equality between Europeans and non Europeans resulted from converging philosophical and scientific developments including a declining belief in human nature s universality and the rise of biological classification The racial typing of human beings grew from the need to understand humanity within an all encompassing system of nature alongside plants minerals primates and other animals While racial difference as seen through science did not arise in order to justify the enslavement of people it became a rationalization and buttress for the practices of trans Atlantic slavery From the work of Fran ois Bernier to G W Leibniz Immanuel Kant and others Smith delves into philosophy s part in the legacy and damages of modern racism With a broad narrative stretching over two centuries Nature Human Nature and Human Difference takes a critical historical look at how the racial categories that we divide ourselves into came into being Personal Journals of a Would-Be Philosopher George Lysloff, 2014-03-13 The book is a sequence of personal reflections covering a recent period of close to half a year almost forgotten memories that rose from the authors childhood and adolescence periods covering the Second World War in France and later the eastern part of the Third Reich Most of the pages however are concerned with the mostly unorthodox philosophical considerations that have preoccupied him over the most part of his life attempting to clarify some terms or notions that characterize his views of existence reality and his and mans relationship to God and calls it transcendence The positions he expresses are continuation to comments and ideas he expressed in previous books he wrote in the last decade Memory in the Ontopoiesis of Life Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2009-09-30 From Aristotle to the present memory has been grasped as a trace or impression of lost reality bridging physiological experience and consciousness Philosophers have vainly sought the nature of this bridge The present day physiologizing naturalizing of consciousness is not resolving their congenital continuity in which the very existence and practice of life is rooted We have to change our approach Erwin Straus The Aristotelian congenital ties between memory and temporality acquire crucial significance in our primogenital ontoipoiesis of life Tymieniecka It reveals memory to be the factor that carries this coalescence and the becoming of life itself This can be the fruit only of the generative springs of life first phenomenology philosophy the ontoipoietic logos of life In this collection we explore memory in the constitution of reality rememorizing and interpretation consciousness action facts imagination history myths self realization metamorphosis
